

2011 JOB CENTER HANDOUT

JANUARY 6–9, BOSTON

PREARRANGED INTERVIEWS

If you have a prearranged interview, check the Job Center Handout (beginning on the next page) or the Electronic Search Committee Locator at the Information Booth for that institution's location. If your interview is in a room, go directly to the room close to your scheduled time. If your interview is at a table, go to the Candidate Check-In booth about 10 minutes before your scheduled interview. Water and seating space will be provided in a waiting area in the Hynes Convention Center, Ballroom A.

INTERVIEWS ARRANGED AT THE MEETING

If you seek to arrange interviews through the Job Center, read the Handout carefully. Institutions that are accepting c.v.'s have full position descriptions in the Handout. However, most institutions are conducting prearranged interviews only and are not collecting c.v.'s through the Job Center. Check the bulletin boards frequently for late-breaking announcements, additions, and cancellations. Please note that interviews are not guaranteed, unless they have been prearranged.

- ◆ Check the Handout for institutions that are accepting c.v.'s, and note the times that the institutions will be at their tables or in their interview rooms. Complete a message form (provided by the Job Center) for each position of interest to you. Staple the message form to a copy of your c.v. for each position to which you are applying. Proceed to the C.V. Collection Station in Ballroom A and give the Job Center staff your c.v.'s and message forms. The staff will file the form and c.v. in the respective institution's folder; institutions will collect the material from their folders periodically.
- ◆ Some positions on the bulletin boards are noninterviewing positions. Unless otherwise indicated, you should send the information requested in the position description directly to the institution.

RESPONSES TO INTERVIEW REQUESTS

The Job Center will use the Messaging System for applicants and interviewers to communicate about scheduling interviews. You can retrieve messages online through the Registration Resource Center at www.historians.org or in the Message Center in Ballroom A. When registering for the meeting, applicants will receive a registration number that will serve as the password into the system. Institutions wishing to set up interviews will contact applicants directly via the electronic messaging system or by telephone. Institutions wishing to decline interviews are asked to return their message forms to AHA staff, who will send a generic decline message via the messaging system. Applicants are recommended to frequently check to see if messages are waiting for them.

IMPORTANT NOTE: SOME INSTITUTIONS ARE INTERVIEWING IN HOTEL ROOMS OR SUITES RESERVED INDEPENDENTLY OF THE JOB CENTER. JOB CENTER STAFF MAY HAVE LOCATION INFORMATION, IF THE INSTITUTION HAS PROVIDED IT TO US. ASK AT THE INFORMATION BOOTH IN THE HYNES CONVENTION CENTER, BALLROOM A.

PUBLIC HISTORY

ALABAMA, DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Postdoctoral Fellowship/Environmental. Birmingham-Southern College in Birmingham, Alabama. Prearranged interviews only. Job Center-Arranged Sheraton Room: Fri. 8–5.

Historians. Historians from the U.S. Department of State will be available at the Job Center for informational interviews on careers in the Office of the Historian. The Office of the Historian, located in Washington, D.C., employs more than three dozen professionally trained historians, most of whom hold PhDs in the history of U.S. foreign relations or historical area studies. Our historians are charged with a variety of responsibilities, including producing volumes in the Foreign Relations of the United States series, the official documentary history of U.S. foreign policy; drafting foreign policy-related historical studies; and engaging in historically based outreach initiatives. We anticipate hiring several new full-time historians in 2011. We will be seeking historians to compile volumes in the Foreign Relations of the United States series who have knowledge of diplomatic history and U.S. foreign relations and a willingness to work on a variety of topics and geographic areas over time. We are particularly interested in scholars who specialize in U.S. diplomatic history, Asian and/or Pacific history, and Soviet/Russian history, especially in the latter case, those with advanced Russian language ability. Additionally, the office's Declassification and Publishing Division seeks an editor to perform the technical editing of Foreign Relations manuscripts for both print and online publications. The position requires strong editing and technical skills as well as some familiarity with web site management and electronic publishing, including a basic knowledge of markup languages (HTML or XML). Professional historians with PhDs begin at $62,467, plus health benefits. All appointments must conform to the laws and regulations regarding service with the U.S. government. Candidates must be U.S. citizens and pass a background security clearance check. Collecting c.v.'s. Table: Thurs. 12:30–6; Fri., Sat. 9–6.

Chinese Language. The Asian University for Women in Chittagong, Bangladesh, invites applications for a full-time Chinese language instructor to teach Chinese as a second language to non-native speakers. An MA in Chinese language or MA in teaching with high proficiency in spoken and written Chinese required. Preference will be given to native Chinese speakers, but candidates who are highly proficient in the Chinese language will be considered. Some years of teaching experience and familiarity with language educational technology is highly desired. Applicants are welcome to indicate a specific area of interest or expertise. Faculty members will be expected to teach two courses per term. Collecting c.v.'s. Job Center-Arranged Sheraton Room: Fri. 1–5. Table: Fri., Sat. 9–1; Sun. 9–12.

World/Asia. The Asian University for Women in Chittagong, Bangladesh, invites applications for a full-time faculty position in world history with a preferred specialty in any historical period and area of Asian history. Applicants must hold a PhD or be on track to receive their PhD prior to their appointment to the faculty. We especially encourage applications from candidates whose scholarship places Asia in a broader thematic context, such as comparative state-formation and imperialism or international relations and globalization. The successful candidate will be expected to offer entry level courses in the core curriculum in world history and higher level seminars within the areas of his/her teaching and research expertise in the Asian studies majors. *Collecting c.v.'s.
