LETTER OF SUBMITTAL

THE SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION,

To the Congress of the United States:

In accordance with the act of incorporation of the American Historical Association, approved January 4, 1889, I have the honor of submitting to Congress the Annual Report of the Association for the year 1942.

I have the honor to be,

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

C. G. Abbot, Secretary.
LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

THE AMERICAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION,
Washington, D. C., April 1, 1943.

Sir: As provided by law, I submit herewith the Annual Report of the American Historical Association for the year 1942. This consists of three volumes. Volume I contains the proceedings of the Association for 1942, the report of the treasurer for the Pacific Coast Branch for 1942, and the list of members of the American Historical Association. Volume II consists of Letters from the Berlin Embassy: Selections from the Private Correspondence of British Representatives at Berlin and Foreign Secretary Lord Granville, 1871-1874, 1880-1885, edited with introductions by Paul Knaplund. Papers which were prepared for the annual meeting in Columbus, but not delivered because of the necessary cancellation of the meeting, will make up Volume III.

The cumulative index to Writings on American History, now being compiled by David M. Matteson, will terminate with the combined 1937-38 volume and will appear in due course.

GUY STANTON FORD, Editor.

TO THE SECRETARY OF THE SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION,
Washington, D. C.

ORGANIZATION AND ACTIVITIES OF THE AMERICAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION

THE ASSOCIATION

The American Historical Association, incorporated by Act of Congress in 1889, is defined by its charter to be: A body corporate and politic . . . for the promotion of historical studies, the collection and preservation of historical manuscripts, and for kindred purposes in the interest of American history, and of history in America. There are at present more than 3,500 members.

It is a society not only for scholars, though it has for the last half century included in its membership all the outstanding historical scholars in America, not only for educators, though it has included all the great American teachers of history, but also for every man and woman who is interested in the study of history in America. Its most generous benefactors have been nonprofessionals who loved history for its own sake and who wished to spread that love of history to a wider and wider circle.

MEETINGS

It meets in the Christmas week in a different city each year to accommodate in turn members living in different parts of the country. The attendance at these meetings has been increasing steadily. At the Chicago meeting, in 1941, there were 865 registrations. The formal programs of these meetings include important contributions to every field of historical scholarship, many of which are subsequently printed. The meetings also afford an excellent opportunity for maintaining contacts with professional friends and for exchanging ideas with others working in the same field.

PUBLICATIONS

The publications of the Association are many and their scope is wide. The Annual Report, usually in two volumes, is printed for the Association by the United States Government and is distributed free to all members who ask for it. It contains Proceedings and valuable collections of documents, generally in the field of American history. The American Historical Review, published quarterly and distributed free to all members of the Association, is the recognized organ of the historical profession in America. It prints authoritative articles and critical reviews of new books in all fields of history. The Association also co-operates with the National Council for the Social Studies in the publication of Social Education, one of the most important journals in America dealing with the problems of history teaching in the schools.

Besides these regular publications, the Association controls a revolving fund donated by the Carnegie Corporation out of which it publishes from time to time historical monographs selected from the whole field of history. It has as well two separate endowment funds, the income from which is devoted to the publication of historical source material. The Albert J. Beveridge Fund was established as a memorial to the late Senator Beveridge by his wife, Catherine Beveridge, and a large group of his friends in Indiana. The income from this fund, the principal of which amounts to about $90,000, is applied to the publication of Writings on American History, the standard annual guide to publications on the history of the United States, and to the publication of material relative to the history of the United States, with preference given to the period from 1800 to 1865. The Littleton-Griswold Fund was established by Alice Griswold in memory of her father, William E. Littleton, and of her husband, Frank T. Griswold. The income from this fund, the principal of which amounts to $25,000, is applied to the publication of material relative to the legal history of the United States.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

The Association, from time to time, through special committees, interests itself actively in promoting the sound teaching of sound history in the schools. It has done much and is doing more to collect and preserve historical manuscripts in public and private repositories. It has interested itself in developing the potentialities of the radio as an instrument of education, and it plans and directs historical radio broadcasts in which it seeks to combine the skill and popular appeal of the professional broadcaster with the learning of the professional scholar.

The Association maintains close relations with State and local historical societies through an annual conference which it has organized. It has also organized a Pacific Coast Branch for members living in the Far West.

The Association participates in the support of the International Bibliography of Historical Sciences by contributing the income from the Andrew D. White Fund. This fund was established by the National Board for Historical Service at the close of the first World War.

The American Historical Association is in a position to do significant and useful work not only in the advancement of learning but also in the dissemination of sound knowledge. It commands the resources of the learned world, but it also recognizes the necessity of bringing the fruits of learning to the average American. It needs to be supported. Its endowment funds, amounting to about $240,000, are carefully managed by a Board of Trustees composed of men prominent in the world of finance. Most of the income from this endowment is, however, earmarked for special publications. For its broader educational purposes it has to depend chiefly upon its membership dues. It has over 3,500 members, but needs many more. It welcomes to its ranks any individual subscribing to its purposes. Membership application blanks may be secured by addressing the Executive Secretary in the Library of Congress Annex, Washington, D. C.

PRIZES

The Association offers the following prizes:

The George Louis Beer Prize of about $200 (being the annual income from an endowment of $5,000) is awarded annually for the best work on any phase of European international history since 1895. Competition is limited to citizens of the United States and to works in the English language actually submitted. A work may be submitted either in manuscript or in print.

The John H. Dunning Prize of about $100 is awarded biennially in the even-numbered years for a monograph, either in print or in manuscript, on any subject relating to American history. In accordance with the terms of the bequest, competition is limited to members of the Association.

The Herbert Baxter Adams Prize has been awarded biennially in the even-numbered years for a monograph, in manuscript or in print, in the field of European history. The prize will be adjusted to the funds available in any given year.

The Albert J. Beveridge Memorial Prize of $200 is awarded biennially in the odd-numbered years for a monograph in print or in manuscript in the field of the history of the Western Hemisphere. The committee on the Albert J. Beveridge Memorial Fund, which finances this prize, will publish such of these prize essays as may fall within the scope of the Beveridge Memorial Monograph Series.1

In awarding these prizes the committees in charge consider not only research accuracy and originality but also clearness of expression, logical arrangement, and general excellence of style. All prizes are designed particularly to encourage those who have not published any considerable work previously or obtained an established reputation.

Any work submitted in competition for any of these prizes must be in the hands of the proper committee by June 1st of the year in which the award is made. The date of publication of printed monographs submitted in competition must fall within a period of two and one-half years prior to that date.

1 For information on this series, see the Annual Report for 1938, p. 58.
ACT OF INCORPORATION

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Andrew D. White, of Ithaca, in the State of New York; George Bancroft, of Washington, in the District of Columbia; Justin Winsor, of Cambridge, in the State of Massachusetts; William F. Poole, of Chicago, in the State of Illinois; Herbert B. Adams, of Baltimore, in the State of Maryland; Clarence W. Bowen, of Brooklyn, in the State of New York, their associates and successors, are hereby created, in the District of Columbia, a body corporate and politic by the name of the American Historical Association, for the promotion of historical studies, the collection and preservation of historical manuscripts, and for kindred purposes in the interest of American history, and of history in America. Said Association is authorized to hold real and personal estate in the District of Columbia so far as may be necessary to its lawful ends to an amount not exceeding $500,000, to adopt a constitution, and make bylaws not inconsistent with law. Said Association shall have its principal office at Washington, in the District of Columbia, and may hold its annual meetings in such places as the said incorporators shall determine. Said Association shall report annually to the Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution concerning its proceedings and the condition of historical study in America. Said Secretary shall communicate to Congress the whole of such report, or such portions thereof as he shall see fit. The Regents of the Smithsonian Institution are authorized to permit said Association to deposit its collections, manuscripts, books, pamphlets, and other material for history in the Smithsonian Institution or in the National Museum, at their discretion, upon such conditions and under such rules as they shall prescribe.

[Approved, January 4, 1889.]

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I

SECTION 1. The name of this society shall be the American Historical Association.

ARTICLE II

SECTION 1. Its object shall be the promotion of historical studies.

ARTICLE III

SECTION 1. Any person approved by the Council may become an active member of the Association. Active membership shall date from the receipt by the Treasurer of the first payment of dues, which shall be $5 a year or a single payment of $100 for life. Annual dues shall be payable at the beginning of the year to which they apply and any member whose dues are in arrears for one year may, one month after the mailing of a notice of such delinquency to his last known address, be dropped from the rolls by vote of the Council or the Executive Committee. Members who have been so dropped may be reinstated at any time by the payment of one year's dues in advance. Only active members shall have the right to vote or to hold office in the Association. Persons not resident in the United States may be elected by the Council as honorary or corresponding members, and such members shall be exempt from the payment of dues.

ARTICLE IV

SECTION 1. The officers shall be a President, a First Vice President, a Second Vice President, a Treasurer, an Executive Secretary, a Managing Editor of The American Historical Review, and, at the discretion of the Council, an Editor and an Assistant Secretary-Treasurer.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the Executive Secretary, under the direction of the Council, to promote historical scholarship in America through the agencies of the Association. He shall exercise general oversight over the affairs of the Association, supervise the work of its committees, formulate policies for presentation to the Council, execute its policies and perform such other duties as the Council may from time to time direct.

Sec. 3. The other officers of the Association shall have such duties and perform such functions as are customarily attached to their respective offices or as may from time to time be prescribed by the Council.

Sec. 4. The President, First Vice President, Second Vice President, and Treasurer shall be elected in the following manner. The Nominating Committee at such convenient time prior to the 1st of September as it may determine shall invite each member of the Association to indicate his or her nominee for each of these offices. With these suggestions in mind, it shall draw up a ballot of nominations which it shall mail to each member of the Association on or before the 1st of December, and which it shall distribute as the official ballot at the Annual Business Meeting. It shall present to this meeting orally any other nominations for these offices petitioned for to the Chairman of the Committee at least one day before the Business Meeting and supported by the names of twenty voting members of the Association. The election shall be made from these nominations at the Business Meeting.

Sec. 5. The Executive Secretary, the Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, the Managing Editor of The American Historical Review, and the Editor shall be appointed by the Council for specified terms of office not to exceed three years, and shall be eligible for reappointment. For the purpose of new appointments, the terms of all these officers shall be deemed to have expired on December 31, 1940. They shall receive such compensation as the Council may determine.

Sec. 6. If the office of President shall, through any cause, become vacant, the First Vice President shall thereupon become President and the Second Vice President shall become First Vice President whenever the office of First Vice President shall have been vacated.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. There shall be a Council, constituted as follows:

(a) The President, the Vice Presidents, the Executive Secretary, the Treasurer, and the Managing Editor of The American Historical Review.
(b) Elected members, eight in number, chosen by ballot in the manner provided in Article VI, Section 2. At the election of 1931 the persons so elected shall be assigned to four equal classes, the members of which shall be elected to serve respectively for 1, 2, 3, and 4 years. Subsequent elections in each class shall be for 4 years, except in the case of elections to complete unexpired terms.

(c) The former Presidents, but a former President shall be entitled to vote for the 3 years preceding the expiration of his term as President, and no longer.

Sec. 2. The Council shall conduct the business, manage the property, and care for the general interests of the Association. In the exercise of its proper functions, the Council may appoint such committees, commissions, and boards as it may deem necessary. The Council shall make a full report of its activities to the Annual Meeting of the Association. The Association may by vote at any Annual meeting instruct the Council to discontinue or enter upon any activity, and may take such other action directing the affairs of the Association as it may deem necessary and proper.

Sec. 3. For the transaction of necessary business when the Council is not in session, the Council shall elect annually from its membership an Executive Committee of not more than six members which shall include the Executive Secretary and the Treasurer. Subject always to the general direction of the Council the Executive Committee shall be responsible for the management of Association interests and the carrying out of Association policies.

Article VI

Section 1. There shall be a Nominating Committee to consist of five members, each of whom shall serve a term of two years. In the 1939 election, two new members shall be elected; in 1940, three; and this alternation shall continue thereafter, except in the case of elections to complete unexpired terms. If vacancies on the Nominating Committee occur between the time of the annual elections, the Nominating Committee shall fill them by direct ad interim appointments.

Sec. 2. Elective members of the Council and members of the Nominating Committee shall be chosen as follows: The Nominating Committee shall present for each vacant membership on the Council and on the Nominating Committee two or more names, including the names of any persons who may be nominated by a petition carrying the signatures of twenty or more voting members of the Association. Nominations by petition must be in the hands of the Chairman of the Nominating Committee by November 1st. The Nominating Committee shall present these nominations to the members of the Association in the ballot distributed by mail as described above. The members of the Association shall make their choice from among these nominations and return their ballots for counting not later than the 20th of December at 6 p. m. No vote received after that time shall be valid. The votes shall be counted and checked in such manner as the Nominating Committee shall prescribe and shall then be sealed in a box and deposited in the Washington office of the Association where they shall be kept for at least a year. The results of the election shall be announced at the Annual Business Meeting. In case of a tie, choice shall be made at the Annual Business Meeting from among the candidates receiving the highest equal vote.

Article VII

Section 1. There shall be a Board of Trustees, five in number, consisting of a chairman and four other members, nominated by the Council and elected at the Annual Meeting of the Association. The Trustees elected in 1931 shall serve, respectively, as determined by lot, for 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 years. Subsequent elections shall be in all cases for 5 years except in the case of election to complete unexpired terms. The Board of Trustees, acting by a majority thereof, shall have the power to invest and reinvest the permanent funds of the Association with authority to employ such agents, investment counsel and banks or trust companies as it may deem wise in carrying out its duties, and with further authority to delegate and transfer to any bank or trust company all its power to invest or reinvest; neither the Board of Trustees nor any bank or trust company to whom it may so transfer its power shall be controlled in its discretion by any statute or other law applicable to fiduciaries and the liability of the individual members of the board and of any such bank or trust company shall be limited to good faith and lack of actual fraud or wilful misconduct in the discharge of the duties resting upon them.

ARTICLE VIII

Section 1. Amendments to this Constitution may be proposed by a majority vote of any regular business session of the Association or by a majority vote of the Council and may be adopted by a majority vote of the next regular business session, provided always that the proposed amendment and an explanation thereof shall have been circulated to the membership of the Association not less than twenty days preceding the date of the business session at which the final vote is to be taken. It shall be the duty of the Executive Secretary to arrange for the distribution of all such proposed amendments among the members of the Association.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE
AMERICAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION
FOR 1942
ABSTRACT OF MINUTES OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING

Meeting of Thursday, May 14, 1942, at the Social Science Research Council, New York City

Present: Merle Curti, Chairman; Arthur M. Schlesinger, Carl Stephenson, Benjamin B. Kendrick, Solon J. Buck, and Guy Stanton Ford.

I. BEVERIDGE FUND. The Executive Committee empowered the Executive Secretary to proceed to dispose of the surplus stock of volumes at agreed-upon reduced prices. After due effort has been made to dispose of surplus stocks, sufficient number of volumes or sheets are to be kept in stock to supply normal demands.

It was decided that no action was necessary on the matter of possible economies, on empowering the Beveridge Fund Committee to set dead lines, etc. Mr. Ford observed, in answer to a query from Mr. Schlesinger, that closer contact between the Beveridge Committee and the Executive Secretary was being established and that no legislation on this point was necessary.

II. First Five Volumes of Papers of the A. H. A. now at Smithsonian Institution. A suggestion was made that the Committee on Americana might help dispose of these volumes to college libraries on the committee's list in case such libraries do not possess the volumes.

Approval was expressed of the proposal of the Executive Secretary to try to dispose of these volumes at the Baltimore meeting—a note in the October number of the Review would announce the plan and indicate the general nature of the contents.

III. BIBLIOGRAPHY OF AMERICAN TRAVEL. A motion was carried to have the bibliographical material now in Philadelphia sent at the expense of the Association to the National Archives. The Executive Secretary indicated a willingness to make further inquiries regarding possible subventions for the completion, or partial completion, of this undertaking. An announcement in the Review will indicate that the bibliography may be consulted at the National Archives.

IV. ANNUAL MEETING. Mr. Ford reported on arrangements and program for the Baltimore meeting. It was decided that, if transportation conditions make the annual meeting impossible, a business meeting would be held in Washington. If so decided, an announcement to that effect will be inserted in the October number of the Review. Election of officers would take place at this business meeting.

The Executive Committee decided that, if it should be necessary to cancel the general meetings of the A. H. A. in December, the present chairman of the Program Committee would continue in office and that the present program would in general be held over until a meeting took place.

V. The Committee chose Professor Joseph Strayer of Princeton as chairman of the Program Committee for the 1943 annual meeting in New York. In case no meeting can be held in December, 1942 Mr. Strayer would act with Mr. Pargellis.

VI. REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE ANNUAL REPORT. No action necessary.

VII. PH.D. AND RESEARCH PROJECTS LIST. Mr. Schlesinger expressed the opinion that the inclusion of post-doctoral research projects in the annual list is unnecessary and undesirable; the list is never a complete one; it accumulates dead wood; and younger scholars are sometimes kept from undertaking researches staked out by older men and women who will probably never complete them.

The committee voted, on the motion of Mr. Schlesinger, that hereafter (i.e., after the present annual list) the list of post-doctoral researches be suspended until the whole issue be further explored. Mr. Buck suggested the possibility of including this list in the annual report. Others suggested the possibility of having such a list appear, say, every 5 years.

VIII. REPORT ON MEMBERSHIP CANVAS. The committee expressed appreciation of the vigorous and successful efforts of the Executive Secretary to gain new members through personal correspondence, etc.

On the motion of Mr. Stephenson the committee voted, if there is no obstacle in the Constitution, to confer on Albert Shaw either a life or honorary membership. Mr. Shaw joined the Association in 1885.

IX. PLANS FOR HISTORY OF THE WAR. Mr. Schlesinger reported on the establishment of the Advisory Committee on the Records of War Administration. Mr. Curti reported on two informal conferences of a group in the S. S. R. C. which has been considering plans for a history of the American participation in the second World War. A larger conference is to be held on June 13.

X. It was voted to report back to the next annual business meeting that the Executive Committee feels that nothing can be done regarding Professor Cole’s proposal to change the time of the annual meeting of the Association until after the war.

A motion to recommend the abolition of the office of Second Vice President was referred to the Council for consideration.

XI. PROBLEM OF PAYING FOR REVISING AND RETYPING MANUSCRIPTS SUBMITTED TO THE VARIOUS PRIZE COMMITTEES. No action necessary.

XII. The Committee selected Prof. Samuel H. Brockmaner of Wesleyan University to replace Prof. W. Still Holt as a member of the Carnegie Revolving Fund Committee.

XIII. The Executive Secretary was requested to make further inquiries regarding the matter of identification pins for the membership at the annual meetings.

XIV. It was suggested that possibly the wrappers for the Review could be cut in a larger shape to prevent tearing of the copies of the Review.

XV. The committee approved an appropriation of $5 from the Jameson Fund for Writings, 1937–38.

XVI. The committee approved a suggestion that the letter to delinquent members be redrafted.

XVII. The Executive Secretary read a letter which presented the problems of the Pacific Coast Branch and the support of the Pacific Historical Review. The general discussion indicated that so far as the committee was concerned they saw no objection to the Branch organizing itself along the lines of the Southern Historical Society and the Mississippi Valley Historical Association and making membership and subscription to the Pacific Historical Review coincident.

GUY STANTON FORD, Executive Secretary.

MINUTES OF THE MEETING OF THE COUNCIL OF THE AMERICAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION, NATIONAL ARCHIVES, WASHINGTON, D. C., DECEMBER 30, 1942, 10 A.M.

Present: Arthur M. Schlesinger, President; Nellie Neilson, First Vice President; Merle E. Curti, Benjamin B. Kendrick, Carl Stephenson, Councilors; Solon
J. Buck, Treasurer; Guy Stanton Ford, Executive Secretary. Prof. Osgood Hardy appeared as delegate of the Pacific Coast Branch. Dr. Waldo Leland and Miss Eila Lonn were present for part of the meeting.

Upon motion the minutes of the 1941 meeting of the Council and of the Annual Business Meeting (December 30, 1941) were approved without being read, as were the minutes for the meeting of the Executive Committee on May 14, 1942.

Dr. Ford reported on the action taken by the chairman of the Beveridge Memorial Fund Committee and himself in making available for sale at reduced prices certain volumes published by the committee. These volumes were overstocked and the publishing company wished to dispose of them either by sale or as salvage. He also reported that the McGregor Fund, due to other commitments and limited funds, had withdrawn its support of the Committee on Americana for College Libraries as of August 31, 1943.

The cards for the Bibliography of American Travel are now in the custody of Dr. Solon J. Buck at the National Archives. As yet they have not been made available for general use but will be at some time in the future. In the meantime scholars may make special arrangements to consult them.

Dr. Ford reported that the annual list of doctoral dissertations and research projects for 1941 is being published as Volume III of the Annual Report for 1941. Dr. Schlesinger suggested that the annual list be suspended for the duration. This was placed in the form of a motion by Mr. Curti, seconded by Dr. Buck. It was carried unanimously. By earlier action the Executive Committee had approved the limitation of future issues to the list of doctoral dissertations.

The question of abolishing the office of second vice president was raised at the Council meeting in 1941. No action was taken, but the sentiment of the Council at that time favored abolishing the office. At the current meeting Professor Kendrick made the motion that the Executive Secretary draw up an amendment to the Constitution, in the proper legal language, such an amendment to provide for the abolition of the present office of second vice president. This motion was seconded by Professor Curti and passed unanimously. The amendment must be submitted to the membership of the Association at least 20 days before the next regular business meeting. This will be done through a notice in the October 1942 issue of the Review.

Dr. Ford reported on the activities of the office of the Executive Secretary in soliciting members. This method was substituted for the usual membership committee. The results have justified the procedure, as may be seen in the report on membership.

By action of the Association in the business meeting in Chicago, December 30, 1941, a motion to change the time of the annual meeting was referred to the Executive Committee, which was directed to explore the possibilities. The matter was considered by the Executive Committee and they reported to this meeting of the Council that they had not found it possible to suggest a more suitable date. There is no common time for the spring vacation, and the first weeks of September find many members returning to campuses or seeking vacation between summer sessions and fall openings. As schedules are at present, the Christmas vacation leaves most members freer to attend than any other time. If pressure on transportation at Christmas continues, it is within the power of the Executive Committee to set some other date as well as change the place. The few members from out of Washington who attended the Council meeting reported that in the days between the beginning and end of vacation and the beginning and end of furloughs they had found no great difficulty in securing reservations.
The Executive Secretary reported that the provisions in the Constitution made it impossible to confer a life membership on Dr. Albert Shaw, who had been a regular member for more than 50 years. It will be recalled that the Executive Committee had approved such membership, if possible within the Constitution.

The Council heard the report of Miss Ella Lonn, chairman of the Committee on Nominations. Miss Lonn dealt, as have previous chairmen in successive years, with the futilities and absurdities and waste of time inherent in the present procedures. The preferential ballot in the spring had been returned by only 218 members. These ballots nominated anybody and everybody, members and nonmembers, the living and the dead. Very considerable numbers named for the second vice presidency persons wholly unknown except to the nominator. And in one case an individual desired to fill all offices from the history department of one institution. The committee this year found that in other misunderstandings and misapplications of the preferential ballot their experience paralleled that of Dr. Paul Buck (reported at the Chicago meeting; see Am. Hist. Rev., XLVII, 703). The Committee on Nominations felt strongly that the procedure should be corrected and at once. They had agreed upon an alternate method and Miss Lonn was asked to propose it definitely at the business meeting.

By a motion made and seconded the Council unanimously approved Miss Lonn’s suggestion that the new members of the Committee on Nominations be notified as soon as their choice is indicated so that they may be able to attend the annual meeting and hold a preliminary discussion of their procedure at that time. There was general approval without formal vote of the suggestion of the Executive Secretary that the requirement of the Constitution would be met if the list of offices to be filled were published in the Review before the date required, together with a request to the members to send to the chairman of the Committee on Nominations their suggestions of possible nominees for the consideration of the Committee on Nominations in making up the slate. At this time such a procedure would be a wise economy and might evoke more considered responses than those produced by the present procedure.

On a motion made and carried the following were named members of the Executive Committee for 1943: Benjamin B. Kendrick, Chairman; Arthur M. Schlesinger, Carl Stephenson, Ralph Gabriel; Solon J. Buck, Treasurer, and Guy Stanton Ford, Executive Secretary, ex officio.

Messrs. Buck, Ford, and Kendrick were named members of the Finance Committee.

Dr. Ford reported that in response to a request from the Office of Education, President Schlesinger had appointed Miss Bessie L. Pierce, Chairman, James L. Cate, S. W. Halperin, W. T. Hutchinson, Walter Johnson, J. A. O. Larsen, Harley F. MacNair, and J. Fred Rippy as a special committee to report before August 15, 1942, on an outline of a year's course in American history adapted to present war conditions. Miss Pierce and her associates fulfilled this commission, and the report reached the Office of Education before the desired date. As the War Department has since taken over the responsibility of outlining courses in history and the social sciences as well as technical subjects for the trainees returned to college, the report of this committee will presumably not be made available by the Office of Education.

The Council discussed the possibility of holding the annual meeting in 1943. Dr. Ford read a letter from Prof. A. R. M. Lower of United College, Winnipeg, president of the Canadian Historical Association. Professor Lower reported the deep interest of our Canadian colleagues in any action taken by the American Historical Association with regard to future meetings. Their own and similar organizations in Canada had discussed the matter thoroughly as to this year and the future:

Our feeling was that our societies are semipublic bodies, that many of our members are either in Government service regularly during the war or serve Government from time to time and that almost all directly or indirectly contribute to the war effort. We felt that these annual meetings are helpful, if not essential, to our members, at no time more so than during the war when there are so many new problems to be discussed and so many old ones to be reexamined. Further, it seemed to us that continuance of such meetings was necessary if the values of our civilization, for which we fight, are to be maintained. That is, during the short run, it seemed to be our duty to stand for a certain point of view and expound certain doctrines central to our western way of life and during the long run to do our best to stand as guardians of the future by keeping alight the flame of culture and scholarship. Therefore since there have been no positive orders against meeting and no direct request not to do so, we propose to carry on.

The Council's discussion of the matter was of the same tenor as the excellent statement by Dr. Lower. It was recognized that no other action could have been taken this year when the communication from the Office of Defense Transportation was put in the form of a request.

Following the general discussion and on motion of Prof. Carl Stephenson, it was unanimously agreed that it was the sense of the Council that we should plan a meeting in New York in 1943 of such a character as is suitable to the situation at that time and, if such a meeting takes the form of a program session, that there be but a 2-day session. It would remain within the power of the Executive Committee to meet any emergency requiring a suspension or modification of this plan.

The Council had before it the matter of publishing a general index to all the volumes of Writings in American History published under the auspices of the Association. The last such volume to be published by the Association through the Government Printing Office will be the combined volume for 1937-38. Dr. Matteson undertook this task some years ago when the terminal date was fixed at 1930. At that time the Association secured from the Carnegie Corporation through the good offices of the American Council of Learned Societies a grant of $2,000. This money remains unexpended, although Dr. Matteson has done considerable work intermittently. Dr. Ragatz, chairman of the Committee on the Publication of the Annual Report, has been in conference with Dr. Matteson, who thinks that when certain present tasks are discharged he may be able to give the major part of his time to the compilation of the Index. The labor and time required will be materially increased by the revisions necessitated by the inclusion of the volumes since 1930. The Executive Secretary and Mr. Leland were authorized to seek at the proper time additional funds for the preparation of the manuscript if it were found that the present grant was insufficient. There will then remain the very serious problem of the expense of publication.

The Council next heard from Mr. Leland an interesting and informing account of the activities and present status of the International Committee of Historical Sciences, organized after the International Historical Congress held in Brussels in 1928. The American Historical Association is a contributing member of the International Committee, whose origin in 1928 was due in large part to the efforts of American scholars. The last congress and the last meeting of the full committee were held in Zurich in 1938, and the last meeting of the governing board in Luxembourg in May 1939. Dr. Leland is one of the delegates of the Association in the committee and at present president of the International Committee. Of the many activities of the International Committee of Historical Sciences in the promotion of scholarship the most evident and continuous has been the International Bibliography of Historical Sciences, of which 14 volumes have now been published. This bibliography was set up to take the place of the Jahresberichte der Geschichtswissenschaft, which ceased in 1916. The last volume was prepared and printed in a limited edition in unoccupied France under the greatest difficulties and will not be available in America until it is reproduced in this country by some offset process. Mr. Leland reported that in order to continue this evidence of the Council's continuity, the responsible editor, M. Jaryc, was brought to this country. He arrived in July and is now in Washington, with working quarters in the Library of Congress. He is preparing the next volume, which is fairly well along. Funds for continuing this work will be expended by July 1, 1943. Dr. Leland hoped that the Council of the American Historical Association would join in an effort to secure refinancing of this work and of the work of the International Committee for a period of two years and for the compilation and publication of the Bibliography.

It was the sense of the Council in a motion made by Miss Nellson, seconded by Mr. Curti, that the Association authorize its officers to support efforts to secure the necessary funds. Professor Stephenson made a motion, which was approved, that a special subcommittee of the Council be appointed to keep in touch with and be available for consultation on the preparation of the Bibliography.

The Council discussed plans for a history of the present war that had been outlined in an informal conference called the preceding day by the Archivist of the United States. The Council approved for presentation to the business meeting the summary of agreements reached at this conference on a war history commission. (See minutes of the business meeting.)

The Council authorized the Executive Secretary to use any funds made available for such purposes to pay the membership dues of members of the Association who have gone into service and are, therefore, obliged to let their membership lapse.

The Council elected Prof. Shepard B. Clough of Columbia University to replace Professor Schlesinger as one of the three representatives of the American Historical Association on the Social Science Research Council. The continuing members are Professors Curti and Nichols. The Council reelected Prof. Wallace Notestein of Yale University as the delegate of the Association on the governing board of the American Council of Learned Societies. The other delegate is Prof. W. S. Ferguson of Harvard, whose term expires in 1944.

The Council approved the action of the Executive Secretary in declining membership in the A. A. A. S. and referred to the Executive Committee the question of determining, if necessary, a list of affiliated societies participating in the annual program.

In a lively discussion the Council manifested its keen interest in the character and conduct of courses in American history and the social sciences to be given trainees returned to college by the Army. It was reported that such action as had been taken by the Army had been without reference to either the historical and social science groups or the committee in this field recommended by the American Council on Education; this being the sole committee among the many recommended by the Council on Education which was completely ignored. For it there had been substituted a committee weighted with mathematicians and a professor of English. Only two members had historical interests, including the Army officer responsible for the committee. It was considered advisable to present the matter to the Association at the business meeting in the afternoon.

The Council then approved the appointment of the committees for the coming year (see page xxx).

1 President Nellson has appointed the following members of the Council to serve on this committee: Carl Stephenson, Chairman; S. J. Buck and J. S. Shapiro.
Mr. Ford reported that the following ad interim appointments of delegates had been made during 1942: John L. La Monte was the delegate to the forty-sixth annual meeting of the American Academy of Political and Social Science. William S. Ferguson was the delegate to the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of the American Oriental Society. Thomas P. Abernethy was the delegate to the centennial celebration of Hollins College. William L. Westermann was the delegate to the inauguration of Harry Noble Wright as president of the College of the City of New York. Milton R. Gutsch was the delegate to the inauguration of John Nelson Russell Score as president of Southwestern University. C. D. Johns was the delegate to the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina. W. T. Root was the delegate to the inauguration of Charles Albert Anderson as president of Coe College. R. Earl McLeod was the delegate to the inauguration of Harmon Lowman as president of Sam Houston State Teachers College.

The Council adjourned with the agreement to hold a brief meeting at the conclusion of the business meeting in the afternoon.

GUY STANTON FORD, Executive Secretary.

Present: Arthur M. Schlesinger, President; Nelle Neilsen, First Vice President; Merle E. Curti, Benjamin B. Kendrick, Carl Stephenson, Counsellors; Solon J. Buck, Treasurer; Guy Stanton Ford, Executive Secretary.

Dr. Buck on behalf of the Finance Committee presented the budget for the coming year. After certain adjustments were made, due to new estimates of receipts and expenses, the corrected budget was adopted.

Professor Schlesinger made a motion extending a vote of thanks to the Executive Secretary for his report read at the business meeting and requested that in future reports the Executive Secretary follow the precedent he had set in commenting on matters he felt were of interest to the historical profession. The motion was approved.

The meeting adjourned at 5 p. m.

GUY STANTON FORD, Executive Secretary.

MINUTES OF THE BUSINESS MEETING OF THE AMERICAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION, NATIONAL ARCHIVES, WASHINGTON, D. C., DECEMBER 30, 1942, 2:30 P. M.

President Arthur M. Schlesinger presided.

The annual business meeting of the American Historical Association was held in the Conference Room of the National Archives Building. It was called to order by President Schlesinger, with some 50 or more members present.

On behalf of the Association President Schlesinger extended thanks to Dr. Buck for the hospitality shown the Association in making available meeting rooms in the National Archives Building.

Mr. Ford then read his annual report as Executive Secretary and Managing Editor and embodied in it the essential parts of the reports from the chairmen of the various committees (see Am. Hist. Rev., XLVIII, 461-81).
The Treasurer, Dr. Buck, then presented his report. The motion was made to accept the report and place it on file. Approved (see p. 12).

The following were elected members of the Board of Trustees: W. Randolph Burgess to replace Shepard Morgan as chairman; Thomas I. Parkinson (reelected); A. W. Page to replace Shepard Morgan on the Board. The Association took note, with regret, of the withdrawal of Mr. Shepard Morgan, who has given such excellent service as chairman of the Board. Mr. Morgan is now in war service and not available.

The Executive Secretary then reported the action of the Council on three matters: the roster of committees (see p. XXI); the matter of changing the date of the annual meeting of the Association (see p. 5); and the action taken concerning the meeting in 1943 (see p. 7).

Dr. Hardy then presented the report of the Pacific Coast Branch—a formal report prepared by Mr. Hardin Craig, Jr., Secretary-Treasurer (see p. 49). This shows the Branch to be in a healthy condition, with a membership of 226, including 33 libraries. Their annual meetings, set for December 28-30, had been cancelled, and the present officers will retain their positions until a decision as to the election of new officers is reached. For the formal meeting the group in the Los Angeles area substituted an informal gathering at the California Institute of Technology at Pasadena on December 30. At this meeting the papers prepared for the annual meeting by those in the nearby area were read, Dr. Hardy said that at an informal conference (see Am. Hist. Rev., XLVIII, 451) some attention had been given to required American history courses on the West Coast because a number of so-called educators had gone overboard for progressive education in California. In many cases they do not offer American history in the grammar school, only California history. The treatment of United States history in the high schools is so diluted with extraneous material that no one knows “where anything ends and very little has even a beginning.” The informal meeting had meant to emphasize by its action the need for American history somewhere in the curriculum of the schools of California.

Miss Lonn reported for the Nominating Committee that the mail vote had resulted in the following choices:

For Council members:
J. Salwyn Schapiro.
Ralph H. Gabriel.

For members of the Nominating Committee:
Sidney Packard, Chairman.
Julius Pratt.
Leo Gershoy.
Frances Gillespie.
Elmer Ellis.

Miss Lonn stated that in view of the delay and irregularity in the receipt of the ballots, enclosed with the program, all votes had been counted up to December 30.

It was moved and seconded that the Executive Secretary cast a ballot for the following officers:

For President, Nellie Neilson.
For First Vice President, William L. Westermann.
For Second Vice President, Carlton J. H. Hayes.
For Treasurer, Solon J. Buck.

The motion was unanimously carried.
Miss Lonn, retiring chairman, proposed on behalf of the Nominating Committee the following changes in the method of nominating officers:

To amend Article IV, Section 4, and Article VI, Section 2, to read:

The President, Vice President, Treasurer, and members of the Council and Nominating Committee shall be elected in the following manner. The Nominating Committee at such convenient time prior to the first of September as it may determine shall submit to the members of the Association a fairly lengthy list of nominees, from among whom each member shall indicate his first, second, and third choices for each vacancy to be filled. Accompanying the name of each nominee there shall be printed a concise statement of the nominee’s career and qualifications for the office for which he is presented. This shall constitute a preferential ballot. The Nominating Committee will then submit, on the basis of the preferential vote, the two, three, or four names (as the Council and Association shall determine) of the persons receiving the highest number of votes to the membership for the final ballot.

In addition the names of any persons who may be nominated by a petition carrying the signature of 20 or more voting members of the Association must appear on the final ballot. Nomination by petition must be in the hands of the Chairman of the Nominating Committee by November 1. The Nominating Committee shall present these nominations to the members of the Association in the ballot distributed by mail ——— (Bring over from Article VI, Section 2). In case of a tie, choice shall be made at the annual Business Meeting from among the candidates receiving the highest equal vote.

To amend Article V, Section 1 (b), to read:

Elected members (eight in number, chosen by ballot) chosen in the manner provided in (Article VI, Section 2) Article IV, Section 4.

To amend Article VI, by omitting Section 2. (Incorporated in Article IV, Section 4.)

There was some informal discussion of the motion. The general purport of the remarks was to the effect that the proposed method might involve even more labor for the Nominating Committee, especially if funds were not available for it to meet, and that the present method, even with all the absurdities and futilities that have accompanied it since its inauguration, would leave the Nominating Committee a great measure of freedom while it preserved what the initiators of the present method had considered democratic procedure.

The resolution of the Council to abolish the office of Second Vice President was read and discussed briefly. The resolution will take the normal procedure followed in acting on amendments to the Constitution.

Dr. Leland then presented the resolutions adopted at an informal conference called by the Archivist of the United States on December 29, to consider the possible plans for a national war history commission. The resolutions, which had been reviewed by the Council in the morning, are as follows:

Agreed: That the conference approves in principle the establishment of an official national war history commission as an independent government agency responsible to the President.

Agreed: That among the objectives of the commission should be the encouragement and facilitation of: the collection and preservation of source materials; the preparation of “first narratives,” reports, and other consciously created sources including official accounts; the preparation of guides to sources relating to the war; the publication by print or microfilm of significant bodies of source materials; the preparation of a general history or histories of the war; and private research in the field of war history.

Agreed: That there should be appointed a steering committee to carry into effect the agreements arrived at by the conference. The chairman appointed the following steering committee:

Luther A. Evans, Chief Assistant Librarian of Congress, Chairman.
Solon J. Buck, Archivist of the United States.
Guy Stanton Ford, Executive Secretary, American Historical Association.
Pendleton Herring, Executive Secretary, Committee on Records of War Administration.
Waldo G. Leland, American Council of Learned Societies.
After some discussion in which it was explained that, in addition to the present activity in following war administration records by representatives of the Bureau of the Budget and the activities of the Committee of the Social Science Research Council, it was thought that it would be desirable to have a national body, appointed by the highest authority and responsible to that authority, which would be charged with the responsibilities indicated in the resolution. The motion was made, seconded, and carried that the American Historical Association approve the resolutions agreed upon by the informal conference on December 29 and presented by Mr. Leland.

Professor Curti reported on the Army and the American history course for trainees returned to college. Historians have a definite contribution to make to the training of citizen soldiers. They can fulfill this function best by maintaining the highest standards of their profession. The most effective contribution by historians and social scientists can be made if considerable autonomy is left to local institutions in regard to the approach and methods of historical instruction once they know the objectives. It was moved, seconded, and carried that in an appropriate way the War Department be assured of the sincere desire of the American Historical Association to cooperate in its program for the education of trainees but to make clear its view that the detailed prescription of curricula applicable to technological subjects could not advantageously be applied to history and the social sciences if our common object is to train young citizens as soldiers and return to civil life soldiers who are understanding citizens.

Professor Frank M. Anderson moved that the meeting adjourn.

GUY STANTON FORD, Executive Secretary.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE TREASURER FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING AUGUST 31, 1942

The financial assets of the American Historical Association on August 31, 1942, amounted to $251,719.69. Of that sum, $196,864 constitute the capital funds of the Association, which are in the custody of the Fiduciary Trust Company of New York and are managed by it under the direction of the Board of Trustees. Of that amount $131,215 are credited to various special funds, leaving only $65,649 the income from which is unrestricted. The cash on hand in checking and savings accounts amounts to $54,855.69 of which sum $48,026.61 is restricted, leaving only $6,829.08 available for general purposes. The total of unrestricted funds, including both capital and expendable sums, amounted to $72,478.08; and that of restricted funds amounted to $179,241.61.

The expendable funds of the Association are administered through a general account, five special accounts, and three operating accounts. The general account includes, however, a number of special funds and grants, which are segregated from the unrestricted funds only by bookkeeping. The balances in this account are kept partly in a savings account and partly in a checking account, and transfers are made from one to the other as occasion arises. The balances in the special accounts are separately deposited, four in savings accounts and one in a checking account. The operating accounts are not administered by the Treasurer, but the funds for them are supplied from the general or special accounts and, as a rule, their receipts are transmitted to the Treasurer for deposit in the appropriate accounts.

The following tables present a condensed exhibit of the financial transactions of the Association during the year. The statement for the general fund is broken down into unrestricted funds and the various special funds and grants, and for the unrestricted funds the items for 1940-41 are included for purposes of comparison. Statements for the special accounts and the operating accounts follow, and there are a number of summaries. It is gratifying to note that receipts exceeded disbursements for 1941-42 by $2,371.04.

The Treasurer's accounts have been audited by F. W. Laffrentz & Co., certified public accountants; and their report, with the exhibits omitted, is reproduced herewith. The complete report is on file in the Washington office of the Association, where it may be examined by any interested member. The operating account of the Committee on Americana for College Libraries has been audited by Price, Waterhouse & Co., Detroit; and the other operating accounts have been audited and certified to be correct by members of the Association appointed by the President for that purpose, as follows: the account of the Radio Committee, by Eugene N. Anderson, and William L. Langer; and the account of Social Education, by Robert L. Schuyler and John A. Krout. Reports of these audits are also on file and available for inspection in the Washington office.

The last item presented herewith is the report of the Board of Trustees for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1942, which was submitted by Shepard Morgan, chairman of the Board.

SOLON J. BUCK.

The securities of the Association are in the custody of the Fiduciary Trust Co. of New York and are managed by it subject to the approval of the Trustees. During the year securities at a cost price of $37,023.25 have been purchased for the Bond Account, and securities at a sales price of $33,311.04 have been sold from the Bond Account. Securities at a cost price of $7,478.64 have been purchased for the Special Account, and securities at a sales price of $8,66 have been sold from the Special Account. A list of these purchases and sales has been filed at the office of the Treasurer of the Association.

The holdings of the American Historical Association as of August 31, 1942, compare with its holdings as of August 31, 1941, as follows:

As will be noted from the foregoing figures, the market value of the securities held in both accounts for the Association decreased from a total of $214,450.27 on August 30, 1941, to $196,864.10 on August 31, 1942, a decline of 8 percent. This reduction reflects conditions general in the securities markets for the respective dates. The income basis, figured as of the same two dates, declined from $8,038 to $8,095, a reduction of 6.7 percent. This reduction is attributable mainly to somewhat more conservative dividend policies on the part of corporations and to a larger proportionate investment in United States Government obligations of which the Association now holds $33,000.

In accord with accepted principles the Trustees have given instructions to the Fiduciary Trust Co. to set aside out of each year's income such an amount as is applicable for that year toward the amortization of the premiums on bonds purchased above the redemption price. The charge upon income on this account for the fiscal year was $222.86.

During the fiscal year the Trustees received from the Association for investment $200.

Charges made by the Fiduciary Trust Co. for the management of securities amounted during the fiscal year to $1,100.20. The brokerage charges on purchases and sales amounted to $121.39. The Board of Trustees incurred no other expenses.

Very truly yours,

FOR THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE
AMERICAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION,
SHEPARD MORGAN, CHAIRMAN.

COMMITTEE REPORTS FOR 1942
THE NOMINATING COMMITTEE

It is high time for the Association to evaluate the procedure under which it is functioning for the election of the executive officers and members of the Council and Nominating Committee. This electoral system, voted by the Association in 1938, was designed to democratize the procedure; members were invited to suggest candidates to the Nominating Committee, and that body was to name at least two candidates for each vacancy. Furthermore, under our rules any group of twenty or more voting members may add by petition the name of a candidate of their own choosing to the list selected by the committee by following the time requirement stipulated by the Constitution. This is the fourth election held under the procedure prescribed in 1938.

In the opinion of the committee the results as indicated in the preliminary ballot call for a change in procedure. The following note typed on a blank preliminary ballot is typical, judging from the comments and letters of other members, of dissatisfaction with a method which leaves the committee free to disregard the suggestions at their discretion: "I am not at all convinced that the present system of choosing officers and Nominating and Program Committees [Council and Nominating Committee must be meant] 'has any merit at all. At the last meeting the totality of votes cast for any one candidate showed that..."
members took little or no interest in the whole procedure, and that when former students got behind any given 'master' they could run him for an office, regardless of his merits. I will have no part in any such system." Another member, irked because none of his nominees has been selected by the committee for the final ballot, writes tersely, "I see no object in suggesting officers in the future when the nominations have been so consistently ignored in the past."

One member requests that the committee send out a list of all those who have filled the elective positions in the past "if not too expensive." This information is furnished to the members of the committee, but it would entail a prohibitive expense to furnish it to the entire membership of the Association. Another member wished the chairman of this committee to send out to all members the tabulated results of the preferential ballot, indicating the number of persons supporting each candidate. When the results of this ballot are set forth here, the request will appear as hardly practicable.

This year the number of members participating has decreased in both ballots, though the war conditions in the country necessitating delay in sending out the second ballots should preclude the final ballot from being regarded in any sense as normal. The number of preliminary ballots cast out of a total membership of 3,383 was 218, a number which registers a marked decline from last year, when 307 persons took the trouble to vote. Furthermore, the vote of 1941 represented a decline from that of 1930 when 397 responded to the call for a preferential vote. Although the date fixed for return of these ballots was July 1, they straggled in all summer, the last being received October 9 when the work of the committee was just about completed! It may be objected that the basis for computation, the ratio to the total membership, is unfair as a measure of the degree of interest in the election. Certainly, we may reckon those who attend the annual meetings, normally a thousand or more, as interested members who should be sufficiently interested to cast a ballot. Even considered in relation to this conservative number, the vote is small. The final ballot was even more meager this year, only 177 by December 30, doubtless because of the late date at which the ballots went out. It is difficult to conclude that the paucity of the vote indicates lack of interest on the part of members in the choice of their officers. Rather, it would seem to indicate disapproval of our system of selection.

The vote in the preferential ballot was so scattered that it could perform no useful guidance to the committee. No less than eighty-two different persons were suggested for the Second Vice Presidency, and many were entirely unsuitable for what is regarded as the highest honor likely to be bestowed on a historian. The highest number cast for any one person was fifteen and but one attained that number. The next highest received nine votes, but two attaining even that low number, while fifty-five received one vote each. Ballots were obviously prepared hastily and apparently with little thought; many ballots bore a suggestion for the highest office but showed no further interest in the positions to be filled. It should be noted that where only partial ballots are cast, the voter to that degree deliberately disfranchises himself; that individual, at least, should never complain of lack of democracy in this Association.

The ballots reveal all sorts of absurdities, which a better system of procedure could remove. Some ballots were cast for the existing officers, thus stating them to continue in their present offices again during 1943; several men, distinguished for work in other fields, political science, religion, and law, were suggested to head an association of historians. One zealous admirer would bring a former distinguished historian back from his grave, where he has been reposing for over a decade, to preside over our deliberations. I suspect that the same ghost who was produced by the chairman last year may be walking again. About eight members offered an entirely new slate, quite ignoring our tradition of promotion from Second Vice President through First Vice President to President. It is questionable whether these ballots represented a protest against this tradition, when there are more effective ways to voice a protest. It would argue rather too little interest in the business methods of the Association to be aware of the existing procedure. One member evidently thought his candidate all-sufficient, for he recommended him for President and First Vice President for the same year.

Similar lack of thought in preparing recommendations for the Council appears in some ballots. One hundred and fifty-four persons were presented for the Council vacancies, only one of whom received as many as nine votes and that a member of the present Nominating Committee. From that they ranged down to a single vote bestowed on around 50 members. Councillors with one or two years, still to serve were suggested, as if they were to appear at the Council table, if elected, as new members, although the membership of the Council, together with the institution and field of history represented, is always printed on both ballots. A member of the Council, whose term has not expired, was named for Treasurer. Should the Association thus create a vacancy in the Council by his election or should one member file two posts? A woman who has forsaken history for another field of scholarship was named for Treasurer; one voter would demote a Council member to the Nominating Committee.

Equal absurdities appeared in connection with the suggestions for the Nominating Committee. Two hundred and twenty-six different names occurred to the minds of our members for this post, of which 201 received one vote each. Some voters wasted their ballots by urging that the two members who were elected last year for a two-year term be re-elected this year. Some members would place on the Nominating Committee some of the most distinguished historians of the country, including a number of former presidents of the Association. Not one member of the present Nominating Committee failed of solicitous attention. Every single member was suggested for some other office, including that of the Second Vice Presidency. Only one person justified this type of vote by stating clearly his view that the interests of the Association would be served by using in the Council experience acquired with regard to the functioning of the Association through service on the Nominating Committee. This expression of confidence in the committee is touching, but it is hard to see under what canons of good taste the committee could be expected to propose any one of its members for another post. In general it might be stated that the preliminary ballot is hard on the disposition of the chairman of this committee.

The chairman received many caustic personal criticisms written on the final ballots, from which she will, it is to be hoped, be exonerated by an explanation in the next issue of the Review. A few samples are illuminating as to how members directed their ire, which might have been turned toward war conditions, which led the Government to several changes of opinion as to the advisability of our convening, toward an innocent victim. "This ballot did not reach me until December 22," wrote on irritated member, "was this carelessness on your part or because of poor-mail service?" Another wrote, "This ballot reached me only yesterday, December 17. I protest against it being excluded if it does not reach you by December 20. Three days is hardly enough in these times." The date printed on the report of the committee proves that the report reached the Washington office in ample time to be printed and sent out, as usual, with the programs on December 1.
I shall now announce the results of the final ballot for vacancies on the Council and Nominating Committee.

For the Council, the ballots received by December 20, resulted in the election of R. H. Gabriel and J. S. Schapiro. Again a woman has failed of election to the Council. The committee, realizing that all other methods which have been tried to secure selection of a woman have failed, determined this time to attempt a renomination. The chairman wishes to go on record as not wishing the election of a woman merely because she is a woman; but neither does she wish to see a woman discriminated against because of her sex. She hopes to see a woman elected to the Council because we do have in the Association able, competent scholars worthy of the honor. Such women have been named for the post and as regularly defeated. We feel that we paid the woman whose name appeared on the ballot this year a high compliment in regarding her as worthy of renomination.

For the Nominating Committee the election resulted in the selection of Julius Pratt, Leo Gershey, and Frances E. Gillespie. The absence of Walter P. Webb from the country on a visiting professorship at Oxford University necessitated filling his place. That vacancy is being filled by naming the person who received the fourth highest number of votes to complete the unexpired term of Professor Webb—Elmer Ellis. Prof. Sidney Paddock will serve as chairman of the committee next year.

In view of the numerous protests against "violation of the democratic principle" which have accompanied ballots received since December 20, an additional paragraph is in order. "This is all very patriotic and charming," wrote one member, "but this ballot reached me January 11, 1943. It is difficult to get in my vote before December 20, 1942. I think something should have been done to make A. H. A. democracy a little more applicable." And then to relieve highly aroused emotion, he added a postscript, "And, I notice in yesterday's N. Y. Times, January 3, 1943, that Professor Schapiro has already been elected to the post for which I was going to vote. So why should I ballot ex post voto [Latin not guaranteed, but indignation 100 percent]." For the benefit of the members the chairman wishes to state that every ballot received since December 30 has been carefully tabulated. These ballots are running very similar to those cast before December 30; in no case would these ballots have altered the results as reported to the business session on December 30; they merely afford a wider sampling. It is clear, of course, that many ballots were not returned because members may have assumed that it would be futile to send in ballots after the date of the business meeting, but war exigencies make it impossible for the chairman to report a result on hypothetical ballots never received.

As no nominations by petition for the executive officers have been received, the election of these officers is next in order. Since it would be a waste of time to distribute ballots and to collect them, though they are here at hand if called for, it will meet the constitutional requirement if we vote to instruct the secretary to cast a ballot for the following candidates:

For President........................................... Nellie Nelson.
For First Vice President......................... William L. Westermann.
For Second Vice President..................... Carlton J. H. Hayes.
For Treasurer........................................ Solon J. Buck.

If this procedure has your approval, I so move.

In view of the absurdities which recur annually in our procedure for the preferential ballot, I wish to present a proposal for a change. These absurdities, which have been pointed out in the first part of this report, are probably to be explained by the fact that the great majority of our members do not know the outstanding members of the Association who would be suitable for the various positions to be filled each year. Yet they feel constrained to cast a ballot; as good American citizens they have been constantly exhorted to discharge their duty by exercising the franchise. The committee, therefore, offers the following suggestion:

Instead of a preliminary ballot in which a member is free to present any name which occurs to him, the Nominating Committee shall draw up a fairly lengthy list of names (to vary according to the number of suitable candidates available at any given time) for First Vice President. This list shall be accompanied by a concise statement of the record and qualifications of each candidate for submission to the members. Not one name should appear on the preliminary ballot which does not represent a suitable choice ultimately for President. Members will indicate on this ballot their first, second, and third choices for Vice President. The final vote will call for a vote on the two, three, or four candidates who receive the highest number of votes in the preliminary ballot, as the Council and Association shall determine to be a suitable number.

To preserve the democratic principle the rule providing for nomination by petition shall be preserved as a part of the procedure. Any name presented by petition of twenty members shall automatically be added to the final ballot.

It is reasonable to infer that if the proposal for a selected list to be presented to the membership for the First Vice President appears to have merit in the judgment of the Council, a similar procedure for selection of names for the Council and Nominating Committee for the preferential ballot would be recommended to the Association.

It might be pointed out that this is the procedure followed in the election of members of the Board of Directors for many corporations, with the exception that but one ballot is held.

I move reference of this proposal, which will require constitutional amendment, to the Council for its consideration.

ELLA LONN, Chairman.

DECEMBER 30, 1942.

THE COMMITTEE ON THE ALBERT J. BEVERIDGE MEMORIAL FUND

The committee has had under its direction, as during the preceding year, two major programs: first, the continuation of the series of monographs on American history; and, second, the continuation of the bibliography entitled Writings on American History. In addition, it has been involved in clearing up certain old commitments relating to the earlier documentary series, which were inherited from actions taken some years ago. The committee held two meetings, as has been customary, during the past 12 months; the first at Chicago on December 30, 1942, in connection with the A. H. A. sessions, and the second at Lexington on May 9, 1942, in connection with the M. V. H. A. meetings. All members were present at both sessions, and Dr. Guy Stanton Ford attended the second as Executive Secretary of the Association.

During the present calendar year two works have been published for the Association by the committee through the D. Appleton-Century Company, and in terms of the existing contract with that firm. These are H. C. Perkins' Northern Editorials on Seclusion and Mrs. C. H. Kirby's George Keith. The former was one of the older, documentary series, the latter the first of the new monograph series to appear. No report on sales has as yet been received. It will be noted in the financial statement appended that the cost of publishing the Kirby monograph ($357) was much less than that for the Perkins documents ($3,812). This disparity in the costs of documentary and monographic items was perhaps a factor in the committee's decision, 3 years ago, to abandon the former type of publication for the latter.
As noted in our last annual report (November 11, 1941), several other old commitments for the documentary series were still on the books at the beginning of the year. Some of these commitments were as much as 10 years old, and all were of long standing. They occasioned some concern, since it was difficult to make allowance for such uncertain items in estimating future expenditures. The chairman, therefore, wrote all the men concerned, in November, 1941, asking for a prompt clarification of the status of their projects. As a result one manuscript was submitted in July, 1942, and it is now being checked for publication by Miss Bertha Josephson, of Columbus, Ohio, whom the committee has retained as editor. The status of the other projects was so uncertain that the chairman then consulted Dr. Ford and the other members, and received their approval, as well as that of the Council, for setting a dead line this fall.

During the spring D. Appleton-Century requested of the chairman permission to destroy unbound sheets of past Beveridge publications and also some bound copies, on the ground that the United States Government had requested such action in order to secure paper pulp. Relatively large stocks were on hand and sales in most cases had been slight for some years. The chairman referred the matter to Dr. Ford, as Executive Secretary of the Association, who in turn referred it to the Council. After some discussion the committee was authorized to offer back volumes for sale at reduced prices for a limited time, in the hope that some of these could be distributed rather than destroyed. The publishers agreed to this arrangement, and Dr. Ford inserted a statement of the special prices in the October Review. Three hundred and twenty-four volumes have already been sold at the reduced prices. Meanwhile, in agreement with Dr. Ford, the chairman authorized the publishers to destroy obviously excessive lots of unbound sheets of certain of the older publications.

The prospect for new manuscripts a year ago was not encouraging. Only one manuscript was submitted prior to January, 1942, and this exceeded our customary limit of about 80,000 words. It was hoped that the manuscript awarded the Beveridge prize would be submitted to this committee, and possibly other manuscripts of which the Beveridge Prize Committee thought highly. The chairman of the latter committee, Professor Hutchinson of the University of Chicago, informed us, however, that the prize essay had already been given to the Yale University Press for publication.

In view of these circumstances some further publicity for the Beveridge publications seemed necessary. At the chairman's request, therefore, Dr. Ford inserted a statement about the publication program in the April issue of the Review. The chairman also called it again to the attention of the profession, through personal letters sent to professors of American history in more than fifty of the better-known colleges and universities. The result was moderately encouraging. Between May and August seven manuscripts were submitted. One other, which was sent back because of excessive length and which the author promised to reduce, has not been returned.

The committee has already completed the examination of five of the manuscripts, has declined to accept three, and has agreed to publish two of them. These are:

Richard Hofstadter, Social Darwinism in American Thought.

In reaching its decisions the committee has been mindful of its established standards relating to the importance of the subject, the scholarly character of the work, and the quality of the writing. Authors are informed that the manuscripts must be in good shape prior to submission in order to reduce editorial expenses to a minimum. Publication will be placed in the hands of D. Appleton-Century, as heretofore.

The obligations of the committee for the Writings on American History and our plans concerning this publication were explained in the last annual report. In pursuance of these plans Miss Griffin and her associates have worked intensively during the past year in preparing the cards for the next double volume for 1939-40, and it is expected that these will be ready about the end of this calendar year. As soon as available these will be submitted to several publishers for publication estimates. As explained in the last report, the costs of publishing the Writings will be substantial but should be lower than they were heretofore with the Government Printing Office. Much time will also be saved by placing them in the hands of a private firm.

As soon as Miss Griffin and her associates are free, they will be requested to begin work on the 1941 volume, or—if it will save time and is feasible—on a double volume for 1941-42. In this way it is hoped further to reduce the time-lag in publication until it reaches the minimum interval possible.

As explained last year, it is understood that the first volume issued under the auspices of the committee (1939-40) will not be distributed to the membership of the A. H. A., but will be offered for sale at a price determined by the committee after consultation with the Secretary and the publishers. Sales are very uncertain (hence the initial cost to the committee for publishing will be high); but it is assumed that the Association will co-operate in providing publicity, and some modest advertising may prove desirable.

The financial situation of the committee is satisfactory for the time being, ample funds being available for any undertakings planned for next year. It will be noted in the appended statement, however, that disbursements exceeded receipts by nearly $4,000 during the past year. At this rate the accumulated income would be exhausted in less than five years from this time. Actually it will be spent sooner than this, since expenditures last year were unusually low. (Only two publications were issued.) During the next year costs will be higher. A rough estimate of these costs would appear, as follows:

<tr>
<th>Item</th>
<th>Cost</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3 monographs, at $1,000 each</td>
<td>$3,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Double volume of Writings (pub.)</td>
<td>$5,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Editorial work on next volume of Writings</td>
<td>$2,200</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Miscellaneous</td>
<td>$800</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total</td>
<td>$11,000</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Subtracting from this an estimated income of $3,000 (optimistic) would leave a net loss of accumulated income of $8,000. The present accumulated income (as of August 1) is about $20,000. By next August this will therefore be reduced to about $12,000. Should one of the delayed manuscripts be published, it will be reduced at least to $9,000. At this rate the committee can expect to carry on its present program at best for about two more years from date; and it might have to curtail monograph publications after the coming year. The only promise in this situation is the possible returns from sales of the 1939-40 volume of the Writings (unpredictable) and small royalties on other recent publications.

The committee is doing what it can to economize in view of this general situation. The elimination of grant-in-aid awards and the shift to monographic rather than documentary publications will both effect substantial savings in the long run. It is unfortunate in this connection, however, that the long-overdue commitments for documentary works continue as obligations for the current budget.
The committee recommends that the present program be continued for the next year. By November, 1943, it should be possible to take stock more accurately and decide what publications, if any, should be curtailed or abandoned thereafter. The basic cause for financial difficulties, of course, will be the assumption of responsibility for the Writings; but as this program is now well under way, it would seem a mistake not to give it a trial.

The committee hopes that it will not be necessary to secure much further publicity for its publication program in 1943. It seems strange, in view of the repeated complaints about lack of aid for publications, that any publicity should be needed for a series of publications of some years' standing.

We wish to express our appreciation of the advice and co-operation of Dr. Ford, and of the conscientious services of Miss Washington and of Miss Griffin and her staff.

RICHARD H. SHRYOCK, Chairman.
I submit the following report upon the activities during 1942 of the Committee on Legal History:

War conditions have inevitably greatly affected during the past year work on the publication program of the Committee on Legal History; nevertheless, prospects are not particularly discouraging.

The Superior Court Diary of William Samuel Johnson, 1772–1773, was published in the middle of the year as the fourth volume of American Legal Records. It is a handsome book, in every way a most interesting and creditable addition to the series. What effect the war may have upon its sale cannot yet be judged. Publication of our first New Jersey volume has been long delayed for the completion of Mr. Miller’s introduction, from which he was for some time diverted by work for the State of New Jersey.

Work on the Rhode Island manuscript is virtually complete save for editorial labors of Dr. Boorstin that await his return from war service in Washington. Inasmuch as the materials were carefully studied and discussed by him and his graduate students, only matters of detail lie ahead. Dr. Gregorie has discovered materials that will add greatly to the value of the South Carolina volume, and Dr. Ames has made progress on the great task of the Accomac records of Virginia. Particularly welcome has been the interest and cordial aid offered us by Mr. Van Schreeven of the Virginia State Library. Prospects for both these volumes are bright, thanks to the unflagging efforts of Doctors Ames and Gregorie.

Editorial difficulties, resulting in the main from the war, have delayed work on the Delaware and Connecticut volumes and have also very seriously altered plans for our Pennsylvania volume. However, nothing worse than delay is anticipated in any of these cases; and in the case of the Connecticut volume disappointment over that has been more than compensated by Mr. Lacy’s uncovering of file papers of precious value for the enrichment of his judicial records.

Much the most discouraging of our setbacks has resulted in North Carolina from the dissolution of the Historical Records Survey, upon whose aid we had counted for the discovery and classification of file papers belonging to the cases that appear in the judicial records there chosen for publication. However, since Dr. Crittenden has from the beginning been keenly interested in promoting the appearance of North Carolina materials in our series, it is possible that the State Historical Commission may find some way of carrying forward the aid that the Historical Records Survey had undertaken.

No additions to our series will be initiated until after the publication of two or three more of the manuscripts now in progress. It is to be expected that by that time the return of peace will afford promise of stability in such undertakings.

A financial statement of the Littleton-Griswold Fund for the fiscal year September 1, 1941, to August 31, 1942, is attached hereto.

DECEMBER 9, 1942.

The Committee on the Carnegie Revolving Fund for Publication.

The work of the Committee on the Carnegie Revolving Fund has gone forward during the past year at a rapid pace, despite the difficulties involved in a change of chairmanship and a considerable change in the personnel of the committee. The committee has examined four new manuscripts, re-examined three manuscripts previously submitted, has printed one volume (Luther P. Jackson, Free Negro Labor and Property Holding in Virginia, 1830-1860), and has accepted three manuscripts for publication (Grace Lee Nute, Caesars of the Wilderness, Radisson and Des Groseilliers, 1618-1710, to be published in February; Margaret Hastings, The Court of Common Pleas in 15th Century England; Louis C. Hunter, An Economic and Technological History of Steamboating on the Western Waters in the 19th Century).

The committee is deeply appreciative of financial assistance received from the Advisory Board of the American Council of Learned Societies, Mr. Donald Goodchild, chairman, in the publication of the Jackson volume. Application has been made for financial assistance for the Nute volume, and applications will be made for both the Hastings and the Hunter manuscripts. Without such subsidies the committee could not carry out its present commitments in less than three or four years without unduly depleting its capital fund.

The committee has corresponded with a number of authors and has been helpful in connection with at least one manuscript submitted to another learned society. The committee has also considered the wisdom of advertising the fund more widely within the profession, fixing a date for the submission of manuscripts, and defining within rather wide limits our requirements. Action along these lines has not yet been taken but may be forthcoming during the next calendar year.
The chairman who was obliged to read the records of the committee from 1936 down to date in order to familiarize himself with the methods and the policies of the committee, feels that he should express at this time and in this place his conviction that the American Historical Association is very considerably indebted to his predecessor, Prof. John D. Hicks, now of the University of California. The books published by the Carnegie Fund under the chairmanship of Professor Hicks reflect only a part of the energy and the skill which he devoted to the work of this committee.

Our financial statement is appended.

The Radio Committee

The Story behind the Headlines has been presented every Sunday evening since Pearl Harbor by the American Historical Association, in co-operation with the National Broadcasting Co., over a nation-wide network. This program has constituted a definite war activity for the A. H. A., for the broadcasts have inevitably been concerned with backgrounds of the war, each talk treating that phase which is, at the moment, most important.

The scope of the program has embraced the globe. It has ranged all the way from Washington and the historic backgrounds of the mobilization of manpower to the islands of the Pacific and a discussion of their economic and racial development, and from India and the background of the Nationalist Movement to North Africa, from ancient Carthage to modern Bizerte.

The routine report of the Radio Committee has more than once in the past been interrupted by some particularly startling incident in which a last-minute change of plans has been made necessary by world events. This year is no exception. The script of the talk for Sunday, November 8, 1942, was finished and had been approved when the news of the Allied invasion of North Africa made all other news take a second place. That news, as all the world remembers, came fairly late Saturday evening. The A. H. A. broadcaster was out of town, but he rushed back, and on Sunday, the eighth, with the aid of back scripts and telephoned consultations, he prepared an excellent broadcast on the French African Empire and gave it that night instead of the one originally planned.

All the talks this year have had to be prepared under difficulties. Many historians, among them consultants of The Story behind the Headlines, have answered the call to serve their country, and their services are no longer available to the radio program. In addition, the unpredictable nature of the headlines in time of war has made it necessary to prepare talks on much shorter notice than previously; the eighth of November was an extreme, but many weeks it is Thursday before the subject for the coming Sunday's broadcast can be determined.

Too great praise cannot be given Mr. César Saerchinger for the success of the program under these very difficult conditions. He has worked with unfailing zeal and determination to keep up the high standard of the talks. That he has succeeded is beyond question and is a real achievement both on his own part and on the part of the consulting historians who have helped him. The Association has reason for satisfaction that through the medium of The Story behind the Headlines it is making a contribution to the war effort, co-operating with the National Broadcasting Co. in disseminating sound and important knowledge necessary to a better understanding of the important issues in the world today.

On March 8, 1942, The Story behind the Headlines celebrated its fifth anniversary on the network of the National Broadcasting Co. On this occasion Prof. James Shotwell and the chairman of the Radio Committee spoke briefly. Their remarks stressed the importance of radio in the world today and how much history has contributed to a better understanding of the complicated and bewildering present. The chairman spoke of the splendid co-operation we have received from the National Broadcasting Co. In the years of our association with it the N. B. C. has never imposed restrictions upon our freedom to present as true and unbiased a picture as possible and has helped, not only financially but also by their attitude of friendly co-operation, to make this program a success.

THE COMMITTEE ON THE HERBERT BAXTER ADAMS PRIZE

The committee appointed to award the Herbert Baxter Adams Prize for 1942 begs to make the following report. The committee would suggest that the award be made to Mr. E. Harris Harbison for his Rival Ambassadors at the Court of Queen Mary. The committee would further suggest that honorable mention be given to Mr. W. F. Church for his Constitutional Thought in Sixteenth Century France and to Mr. R. R. Palmer for his Twelve Who Ruled: The Committee of Public Safety during the Terror. Messrs. Church and Palmer were exactly tied in the poll taken by the committee and we would not like to attempt to choose between the two.

THE COMMITTEE ON THE JOHN H. DUNNING PRIZE

I wish to submit the final report for the John H. Dunning Prize Committee for the year 1942.

The committee votes unanimously to award the prize to Oscar Handlin for his book Boston's Immigrants. The committee likewise votes unanimously to award honorable mention to David M. Potter for his book Lincoln and His Party in the Secession Crisis.

THE COMMITTEE ON GOVERNMENT PUBLICATIONS

The Committee on Government Publications during 1942 bent its energies to a difficult, wartime task—that of the continuance of the most important Government historical publications. In this time of crisis it is particularly difficult, if not impossible, for the fiscal divisions in our great Federal departments and agencies, for the Bureau of the Budget, for the Senate and House appropriation committees and conference committees, to find time to inform themselves thoroughly on the many aspects of the publication programs. In this situation proffered information as to the relative values of publications is to a degree welcome and effective, if concise, discriminating, unprejudiced, frank, and well-timed. Therefore, your committee has undertaken, so far as possible, to aid by following the most important publications through the legislative process. Numerous members of the Association, conversant with particular matters, have been drafted for co-operative efforts at appropriate junctures and have responded generously. This effort has helped to safeguard some publication programs.

Considerable thought has been given to the work entailed if this sort of undertaking is to be continued “for the duration.” To follow through all historical publication programs of the Government agencies would perhaps be too burdensome; but the more important should be aided. Members are invited to apprise the committee as to which publications they deem indispensable in the various series and as to new, wartime issues of which there are a number. The committee can be of great service in the over-all wartime picture with its special programs and special opportunities and emergencies, if it can ascertain, in time, which series are in jeopardy and which of these are dispensable and which of greatest worth. Thus may the best be preserved. The committee would further suggest that Government documents receive much less notice in periodicals than they merit and that Association members might well encourage more frequent reviews of them in many historical magazines appearing over the country.

JEANNETTE P. NICHOLS, Chairman.

THE COMMITTEE ON AMERICANA FOR COLLEGE LIBRARIES

The Committee on Americana for College Libraries submits herewith its annual report for 1941-42. In the execution of its duties the committee has expended about $11,250 in rare, scarce, and uncommon books relating to American history, and distributed around $14,850 worth of books among the fifteen selected college libraries, as follows:

Albion College, Albion, Mich.
Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa.
Baylor University, Waco, Tex.
Birmingham-Southern College, Birmingham, Ala.
Carleton College, Northfield, Minn.
Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H.
Emory University, Atlanta, Ga.
Florida State College for Women, Tallahassee, Fla.
Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass.
Pomona College, Claremont, Calif.
Wake Forest College, Wake Forest, N. C.
Wesleyan College, Macon, Ga.
Western Kentucky State Teachers College, Bowling Green, Ky.
College of William and Mary, Williamsburg, Va.
College of Wooster, Wooster, Ohio.

Last year we reported that our work covered 16 colleges, of which 1, Mills College, California, has been obliged to drop out. The reason for this was the inability of that college to continue complying with its obligation of $500 per annum to the plan. When we consider what has happened in the fiscal year under report, we take it that the officers of the American Historical Association will understand and we hope you will be pleased that more colleges have not been forced to withdraw. The effects of the war and taxation on the resources of privately endowed colleges like Mills cannot have escaped your attention. For the rest, each college matched the appropriation of the Association with its own $500, making a total of $1,000 in credit for each college, against which books were purchased.

The Report and Accounts, prepared, compiled, and attested by our auditors, Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co., shows the nature, extent, and conditions of the receipts and disbursements of this committee. A summarized statement of "Cash Receipts and Disbursements" from the Ann Arbor office is enclosed in duplicate.

Our appropriation for the current fiscal year, i.e., 1942-43, was granted by the McGregor Fund in May, 1942. The operating budget is substantially the same as the period for which we are making the present report. The book budget was subject to a further change. In our last report (Oct. 28, 1941), pages 2-3, we called attention to the fact that the fund reduced the appropriation for books from $8,000 to $2,000, and that we made up the deficiency by liquidation of the original stock, a kind of "backlog" handed to the committee in 1937 and amounting to $12,822.99 of assets in books. The above-mentioned reduction in appropriation diminished the backlog to $8,125.23. In May, 1942, the McGregor Fund appropriated $3,000 for books, again requesting us to make up the deficiency from the backlog. The backlog continues to be able to stand this because we were able to transform the stock of books not wanted by the colleges into a stock of books wanted, or into cash. Whenever transformed into cash, each item has been liquidated at the value at which it has been carried on our books; i.e., if we carried an item at $10 on our accounts, we sold it for the same amount to some agency (usually a dealer) outside the plan. It is evident that the backlog cannot stand this indefinitely, but in matters such as come under our work one step at a time seems all that we can reasonably expect to take.

The budget for 1943-44 will not be laid before the Trustees of McGregor Fund until April, 1943, just prior to their annual meeting. The budget figures will remain approximately the same as in previous years, save for the diminution of $500 because of the withdrawal of Mills College and a further $250 because Carleton College, Minn., has been able to supply only that amount of its own for the current year.

At this point we should explain that while the original plan called for a contribution of $500 per annum per college to be matched by McGregor Fund, Carleton College asked our committee whether they could continue in the plan, contributing only $250, to be matched by $250 from the fund. Under ordinary circumstances this would have seemed a failure to comply with the terms of Mr. McGregor's original plan. But the committee had to take into account the international events since December 7, 1941—events which have changed the picture of the whole of our national life. Rather than let Carleton drop out, the committee decided to let that college do the best it could.

The question may arise as to why this committee has not taken on another college in the place of Mills and half of Carleton's share. This was given great consideration by the committee, which had before it Mr. McGregor's explicitly stated idea that this should be at least a 10-year experiment. Uncertainty as to whether the period of 10 years began in 1934 or whether it began with the accession of each college confronted the committee. Uncertainty as to the whole future of privately created endowments confronted the Trustees. These uncertainties do not seem to be cleared up by the progress of international events to this date. (We write this report only a few days after the President has finally signed the revenue bill for a year now almost past!) We feel that the officers of the American Historical Association will sympathize with the committee's unwillingness to add colleges when there is so much uncertainty as to what any institution is going to be able to do, or not to do, during the next 10 years. The committee does not wish to involve the Association in commitments or obligations of such length at this particular time in our country's history.

A list of the books purchased and distributed during the year past is on file in the office of the Association. As has been our custom, this list gives author, short title, date and place of publication, from whom bought, price, and to which college it was either sent or to which it is to be sent. It will be observed that we tend more and more to make purchases only of books actually earmarked for a specific college. This enables us to avoid accumulating stock without knowing whether or not we are going to be able to turn it over. Most of these books have already been sent out, and the others are being held against the requirements of the colleges for the fiscal year 1942-43.

In this list of books there are certain incomplete titles. These are books which were sent directly to the colleges from dealers, a practice sometimes desirable. For example, if Pomona wants a book which is in the stock of Dawson in Los Angeles, we feel Mr. Eastman will not like it if the shipment is sent to Ann Arbor and thence returned to within a few miles of its origin in California. In all cases of this sort the college undertakes to ascertain that the book is suitable as to condition and approves and certifies the bill on to us for payment. Thus we can keep track of the titles, assuring ourselves that they fall within the scope of our work, but occasionally we have to leave it to the colleges to assure themselves that the books are in adequate condition.

After the committee's meeting last January we communicated with the Trustees of McGregor Fund to ascertain (1) their views as to the beginning of the "10-year period" and (2) their views as to what encouragements we can hold out that the plan may be deemed sufficiently successful to be thought worth carrying on into the future. The Trustees acknowledged this letter of inquiry and promised to study it. As yet we have had no advice as to their opinion. Yet we feel this delay in advising us is a matter which must be charged to the state of the whole world today. McGregor Fund is a foundation with an endowment. Those of us who have had experience with similar foundations in the past few years are inclined to sympathize with the reluctance of trustees in general to make far-reaching decisions which, at any moment, may be upset by the exigencies of the international situation.

The thanks of the American Historical Association are due to McGregor Fund which has loyally supported the project begun by the late Tracy W. McGregor. As in the past our work calls for no financial support from the Association itself.

The Committee on the Publication of the Annual Report

Three volumes have appeared during the past year—Instructions to the British Ministers to the United States, 1791–1812, edited by Bernard Mayo and forming Volume III of the Annual Report for 1936; Writings on American History for 1937 and 1938, compiled by Grace Gardner Griffin and associates and forming Volume II of the Annual Report for 1937; and Proceedings for 1940, constituting the entire Annual Report for that year and containing the usual record of the Association's and of the Pacific Coast Branch's activities for 1940 as well as the reports of the Conference of Historical Societies and of the Conference on Latin-American History for the same year.

Volume I of the Annual Report for 1941 is being printed this week and will be issued at an early date. It includes the Association's and the Pacific Coast Branch's proceedings for 1941; a report covering the Fifteenth Conference on Latin-American History; Private Letters from the British Embassy in Washington to the Foreign Secretary, Lord Granville, 1880–1885, edited by Professor Paul Knaplund and Dr. Carolyn Clewes; and a list of manuscript accessions in United States depositories in 1940, compiled by Mrs. Margaret S. Eliot.

Volumes II and III of the Annual Report for 1941 are also in manufacture and are scheduled for publication shortly after Christmas. Volume II is entitled Talleyrand in America as a Financial Promoter, 1794–1796: Unpublished Letters and Memoirs. It was translated and edited by Hans Huth and Wilma J. Pugh. Volume III contains a List of Doctoral Dissertations (and Research Projects) in History Now in Progress at Universities in the United States and the Dominion of Canada, continuing the series long published by the Carnegie Institution of Washington's Division of Historical Research and more recently as a supplement to the American Historical Review.

As Writings on American History will be published under the auspices of the Albert J. Beveridge Fund Committee—starting with the 1939–40 volume, it is no longer charged against the Association's Government Printing Office credit, and the Committee on the Annual Report is now in a position to enlarge its publication program—a happy circumstance which should greatly increase the work's usefulness. A credit of $10,620 is available for the present fiscal year, ending June 30, 1943. Plans for the 1942–43 series are as yet in the formative state, but it may be mentioned that, in addition to the usual proceedings, Volume I will include a membership list and other material now in process of selection, and it is hoped that Volume II may consist of a collection of edited letters from the British minister in Berlin in the Bismarck period. If the budget permits, a third volume will likewise be scheduled.

A special committee named by the Executive Secretary of the Association upon this committee's request (Dr. Solon J. Buck, Chairman; Dr. St. George L. Sioussat, Dr. Lester J. Cappon) is now considering the possibility of publishing a selective bibliography of American history, based upon an elaborate W. P. A. project recently completed, and will report in due course. Such an undertaking would not, however, affect plans for the current fiscal year.

It is recommended in this connection that the Council make known to the membership at large the possibility of publishing collections of documentary material, especially in the American history field, now that the committee must no longer include Writings in its program, and that individuals be encouraged to submit edited groups of papers and the like to the committee, with a view to their acceptance for publication. While, of course, no royalties are paid, a wide distribution throughout the profession and among the libraries of the world is assured, and this factor will, in most cases, outweigh the monetary ones. Any such program beyond the current year is, however, dependent on the printing budget of the Smithsonian Institution.

As announced in the Annual Report for 1932 (p. 51), a grant of $2,000 was secured a decade ago from the American Council of Learned Societies for the preparation of a cumulative index to Writings on American History from 1906 through 1930, under the supervision of Dr. David M. Matteson. A complete collection of Writings indices in duplicate form was assembled with considerable difficulty, some from bound volumes, some from sets of final page proof, and some in photostat form, and work ultimately got under way. It was planned to complete the project in 1938 (Annual Report for 1936, p. 18). It has, however, always been carried on only on a part-time basis of from fifteen to twenty-five hours a week, as Dr. Matteson has been regularly employed by the Constitution Sesquicentennial Commission and in preparing an Index to the Writings of Washington. The manuscript is still far from complete, due to the fact that the scope of the indices varied greatly over the quarter of a century, and this in many cases necessitated virtual reindexing to achieve desired uniformity. Of the $2,000 available for the project, $500 was turned over to the Association at once, but as Dr. Matteson has never presented a bill, it remains in the treasury of the Association.

In view of the time lapse and because of the further fact that a natural break in the publication of the series occurred with the appearance of the 1937–38 volume, the last one published by the Government Printing Office, it is the opinion of the committee that the project should be extended to include the 1931 through 1937–38 volumes and that the cumulative index in this enlarged form should be published as speedily as possible, so that scholars may enjoy the benefit of its use. There seems a reasonable prospect that Dr. Matteson will be able and willing to devote a major portion of his time to the preparation of this index.

Lowell Ragatz, Chairman.

OTHER REPORTS

Report of the Managing Editor on The American Historical Review

Though there has been no noticeable impact of the war on the number of subscribers, there has been on the inflow of articles. This is a matter that must be given serious consideration by the Board of Editors and the active membership of the Association. The number of available articles is not now and may not be in the immediate future sufficient to give a comfortable sense of editorial security. This decrease in the submission of possible articles was to be expected under conditions that affect all scholars directly or indirectly; nevertheless, although the standards of the Review have been generally regarded as well guarded, there is an unnecessary timidity among young scholars in submitting their work. At the worst a proffered article can only come back with suggestions that are certainly well meant and friendly. And the only way to learn to write is to learn to think and be willing to write and rewrite that which is worth thinking about. The first essay in scholarship after the compulsory doctor's thesis is the great venture and any editor interested in scholarship is glad to see it even if it does not fit his particular publication. He may help the young scholar deliace out of the carpels of the master's or doctor's thesis, even if he is not interested in unpolished blocks quarried from such compositions. The older scholars should be represented more often in the Review. The president's address is now the only certain contribution from this group.

One may speak in a more cheerful tone about the section of the Review devoted to reviews. Whether with or without reason the editor views this section with considerable satisfaction. The list of reviewers has grown and some of the reviews have been notable in their excellence. It is the editor's purpose to review, or at least note, as wide a list of books as is justifiable. This means the inclusion not only of books directly in many fields of history, but of books that the alert historical scholar wants to know about. At present the receipt of books worthy of some consideration is satisfactory. There is an almost total cessation of historical works from abroad. The same is true of foreign historical periodicals, and I can speak only with praise of the work done by the sectional editors in ferreting out and listing each quarter such a considerable number of articles in their fields.

To return to the reviewers. Those who have accepted a commission have been generous in giving thought and time to their work. There is an occasional delinquent who accepts a request and then does not respond to reminders or return the book. If such negligence were common, it would destroy the interest of publishers in sending books for review and in the end lower the value of our common enterprise. The editor, I may add, has a real respect for the reviewer who tells him the book is not worth the space he has assigned and cuts the assigned wordage to fit his judgment.

If in no other way, perhaps, this year in the history of the Review will be sufficiently set off by the change in its format and typography. There seemed to be every reason for a historical periodical to recognize that the passing years bring change. Nowhere has that been more evident than in the graphic arts, in the printing and designing of books and periodicals. Art is a way of life, not something esoteric and cloistered in museums. The excellent advice that was given freely in redesigning the Review has given us a periodical which in appearance is both dignified and distinguished. In this phrase I am only summing up the many letters that have come to the writer's desk since the October issue went out.

There have been surprisingly few cancellations. One young scholar going into service sent in his subscription for three years so that he would have an unbroken file when he came back. Let us hope he does come back both for his own sake and because by such spirits is scholarship sustained and the future assured not for this Association alone. Older men who cannot go into service might well consider the possibility of carrying the membership of younger men who do and are thus obliged to suspend their membership for the duration. Our younger colleagues will need the equipment of scholarship when they return as they now need the equipment of warfare. I can testify that some of them on their way from training camps to actual service find time to come to this office to examine eagerly the last Review or a new book in their field.

Volume XLVII of the Review (October, 1941–July, 1942) contained 1,021 pages, including an annual index of 40 pages, as compared with 1,064 pages in Volume XLVI. The total number of articles, notes and suggestions, and documents was 20, the same as in Volume XLVI. Volume XLVII contains 301 reviews as against 290 in Volume XLVI and 336 notices as against 380, a total of reviews and notices of 637 as compared with 670 in Volume XLVI, a decrease of approximately 5 percent. During the period September 1, 1941–August 15, 1942, 82 articles, notes and suggestions, and documents were submitted. Of these 13 were accepted, 68 declined, and 1 is under consideration. The figure 82 generously includes everything submitted to the Review, and is a figure for the record rather than an indication of possible usable material. There are still people who think that minor local incidents, term papers, genealogies, or their views on some subject are eligible for the pages of the Review. Twelve major articles were published, including the presidential address and an account of the annual meeting of the Association at Chicago. Of these (exclusive of the account of the meeting) 5 were in the field of European history, 1 in ancient history, 3 in American history, 1 in economic history, and 1 general article (a study of Doctors of Philosophy in history). There were 4 documentary contributions, 3 in American history, and 1 in European history.
Because of the combination of the offices of the American Historical Association it is impossible to separate as in the past the expenses of the Review from those of the Association. Postage and the services of the small staff are spread over both these major responsibilities of the central office. The net cost to the Association of printing the Review, after deducting the contribution of the publishers to editorial expenses and the Association's share of profits of publication, amounted to $3,542.53, an increase of $1.17 over the cost of last year. The loss on the sale of the ten-year index has been reduced by the sale during the year of 11 copies with an aggregate return of $19.96. I should like to repeat what I said last year about the ten-year index, namely that it "is still short of paying for itself, although the actual editorial work on it was done in the offices of the Review without additional cost. It seems rather surprising that with over thirty-five hundred members in the Association, all of them receiving the Review, less than 500 copies of the last ten-year index have so far been sold."

The term of Professor William C. Langer as a member of the Board of Editors expired and the Council elected Thad W. Riker to replace him. Miss Margaret Blegen has succeeded Miss Florence Miller as assistant editor. My secretary as executive of the Association, Miss Harriet Bohning, assists in proof-reading and other services to the Review.

DECEMBER 21, 1942:

GUY STANTON FORD, Managing Editor.

REPORT OF THE EDITOR OF SOCIAL EDUCATION

Economics: Beginning with the January, 1942, number, each issue of Social Education has been forty-eight pages in length instead of eighty pages. In order to compensate, in part, 10-point rather than 11-point type has been used, and each column has been slightly lengthened and widened; the net reduction in text has amounted to about 22 percent; the number of articles and reviews has been cut accordingly. The cost of printing (paper, composition, alterations, mailing, and copyright) has been reduced from about $620 to about $480 per issue, in spite of some increases in paper prices and labor rates.

The position of managing editor was discontinued on August 31. The monthly review of magazine articles in the department called "Have You Read?" conducted by the managing editor, was discontinued effective the December, 1941, issue.

Mr. Donald R. Tobey, advertising manager, entered the Army in July, 1942. No new appointment has been made; responsibility for the sale of advertising has been assumed by the editor and the secretary in the editorial office. A small salary increase has been given to the secretary in view of her increased responsibility for this part of the work of the editorial office.

Editorial Expenses and Receipts: Editorial expenses for the year ending August 31, 1942, totaled $6,223.67, which was $708.06 less than for the preceding year. The proposed editorial budget for 1942-43 totals $4,800 as against $7,200 for 1941-42; actual expenditures should not exceed $4,500. The deficit met from reserves was $2,192.48 for 1941-42; it should not exceed $900 for 1942-43.

Receipts from advertising and that share of subscription income that is allocated to editorial costs totaled $4,031.19 for 1941-42, an increase of $52.71 over the preceding year. The budget for 1942-43 anticipates a decrease of $400 in receipts from these sources. A drop in the advertising sales of most educational journals has recently been reported.
Subscriptions: The average number of paid subscriptions has been over 3,500, of which more than five-sixths are members of the National Council for the Social Studies. The anticipated drop due to wartime living costs and taxes has not yet become an actuality.

Magazine Content: The war has received much attention in articles, editorials, and all the departments of Social Education. The background, causes, and purposes of the war, the role of youth and of education in the war, wartime inflation, and consumer education have received attention. So have the bases and possibilities of the future peace settlement and of postwar reconstruction. The Far East, Canada, and Latin America, areas long neglected in our social studies program, have also received attention, as have the geography of the air age and efforts, reported in the press, to stimulate wartime legislation on the teaching of American political history.

Classroom problems, methods, and materials have been considered in various aspects, as has the curriculum, while teacher training has not been altogether neglected. Few articles on the elementary school have been available. An announcement of the College Entrance Examination Board was published in January, partly at the expense of that body.

Much material on recent history, public affairs, and in government, economics, and sociology is submitted. Earlier history, both American and European, continues to be neglected in our articles.

We continue to be greatly indebted to Dr. William H. Hartley and Mr. Ralph Adams Brown for their capable and unpaid editing of departments in this journal.

Report of Delegate to Social Science Research Council

The Social Science Research Council has been considering several matters of interest to the historical guild during the past year.

1. Its Committee on Control of Social Data has been at work to aid in the great task of keeping a proper record of the war effort and of promoting the writing of the history of the war in a fashion which will be of greatest benefit to social science. This committee secured the co-operation of Dr. Lester J. Cappon of the University of Virginia and has published a pamphlet designed to stimulate better keeping of war records in the states. This pamphlet will be distributed throughout the United States by the Committee on the Conservation of Cultural Resources. A small conference was held upon the recommendation of the Committee on the Control of Social Data which prepared the outline of a plan for a history of the war. This plan was turned over to the Executive Director of the S. S. R. C. so that he might investigate the possibility of securing funds for carrying it into effect.

2. The Committee on the Guide to Local History is glad to report that it has secured the manuscript of such a guide from Dr. Donald E. Parker. This is in the process of being edited by Dr. C. C. Coleman of North Carolina and other members of the committee. It is planned to publish this guide early in the new year.

3. Under the direction of the Problems and Policy Committee of the S. S. R. C., Mr. Nichols prepared a review of current research trends in American history. This report was submitted to several historians for criticism and then considered by the Problems and Policy Committee of the S. S. R. C. This report and several accompanying documents were submitted to a conference which met at the Council office in November. To this conference were invited Charles A. Beard, Crane Brinton, Paul W. Gates, Louis Gottschalk, John A. Krout, Wallace Notestein, Richard H. Shryock, and the three members of the S. S. R. C. from the American Historical Association. The results of this conference will be given further consideration by the Problems and Policy Committee at its December meeting.

The Social Science Research Council has devoted a larger proportion of its time and effort to historical interests this year than in any other for some time past.

ROY F. NICHOLS.

NOVEMBER 18, 1942.

REPORT OF REPRESENTATIVE ON THE NATIONAL PARKS ASSOCIATION BOARD

Unfortunately, due to the demands for economy in nonwar expenditures, there has been a curtailment in the historical activities of the National Park Service. Sometime in the near future I hope to write to the president of the National Parks Association, presenting some of my ideas concerning possible historical activities during these war times.

B. FLOYD FLICKINGER.

NOVEMBER 19, 1942.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE PACIFIC COAST BRANCH

The annual meeting of the Pacific Coast Branch of the American Historical Association, which was to have been held on the Davis campus of the University of California, December 28, 29, and 30, 1942, has been cancelled because of difficulties arising from the war emergency. In addition to an emphatic request from the Office of Defense Transportation that all holiday meetings be abandoned and travel curtailed, the administration at Davis found itself unable to guarantee the Pacific Coast Branch the space intended for its use because of the impending occupation of that campus by the Signal Corps of the United States Army; accordingly the meeting was cancelled by action of the President and the Council.

A program, consisting of eight sections and twenty-six papers and on which eighteen institutions were represented, was prepared by the following committee: Profs. Harold W. Bradley, Chairman, Stanford University; Francis J. Bowman, University of Southern California; Charles M. Gates, University of Washington; and John H. Gleason, Pomona College. The program has been printed and distributed to the members of the Pacific Coast Branch.

Arrangements for the meeting were in charge of a committee consisting of Professors Vernon J. Puryear, Chairman, Walton E. Bean, and Basil H. Peterson, all of the University of California, Davis.

An informal meeting, with the reading of papers by those on the program who are connected with institutions in the Los Angeles area, is to be held at the California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, on December 30.

The membership of the Pacific Coast Branch is at present 326, including thirty-three libraries.

Officers, members of the Council, and members of committees for next year have not yet been chosen. The incumbents will retain their positions until a decision to elect new officers is reached.
