Donation Funds

- ☐ AHA Advocacy Fund
Contributions to the advocacy fund support the AHA's work protecting the rights and careers of historians, encouraging historical practice in diverse venues, and championing the important role honest history plays in education and culture.
- ☐ AHA Endowment Fund
Income generated from contributions support basic operations and provides a reserve for any new programs the Association might pursue to support research, teaching, and professional activities in the history discipline.
- ☐ AHA Operating Fund
Contributions to the general operating fund are used to support current projects on behalf of the discipline.
- ☐ Council Annual Meeting Travel Support Fund
Contributions to the fund support grants for graduate students to attend the AHA annual meeting.
- ☐ Feis Award Fund
Contributions support the annual Herbert Feis Award for distinguished contributions to public history, broadly defined.
- ☐ James G. Stofer Fund for Teachers
Revenue from the fund will be used for grants to support the participation of community college and public high school teachers in AHA activities and programs.
- ☐ LGBTQ History Research Fund
Contributions to the LGBTQ History Research Fund support grants for research in LGBTQ history.
- ☐ Middle East History Prize Fund
Contributions to the Middle East History Prize Fund support a prize for a work of extraordinary scholarly distinction, creativity, and originality in the history of the Middle East since the seventh century.
- ☐ Wesley-Logan Prize Fund
Contributions support the annual Wesley-Logan Prize for the most outstanding book in African diaspora history.
