PROGRAM OF THE THIRTY-NINTH ANNUAL MEETING HELD IN RICHMOND, VA., DECEMBER 27-31, 1924

Saturday, December 27

12.30 to 2.30 p.m. Joint luncheon conference of the American Historical Association, the National Council for the Social Studies, and the Virginia Society of History Teachers. Subscription luncheon. Hotel Richmond. THE OUTLOOK FOR HISTORY IN THE SCHOOLS: Chairman, Principal Thomas J. McCormack, LaSalle-Peru (Ill.) High School. Discussion led by Albert E. McKinley, University of Pennsylvania.

6 to 7.45 p.m. Subscription dinner of the Agricultural History Society. The Jefferson. Chairman, Oscar C. Stine, United States Department of Agri-

10 p. m. Smoker for the gentlemen of the associations at the Westmoreland Club, 601 East Grace Street.

10 p. m. Informal reception for the ladies in the parlors of the Jefferson.

Monday, December 29

10 a. m. to 12 m. Group meetings. The Jefferson.

1.30 to 2.45 p. m. Complimentary luncheon given by the president and trustees of the University of Richmond, president F. W. Boatwright presiding, Roger Millhiser Memorial Gymnasium, University of Richmond.

3 p. m. Annual business meeting, Sarah Brunet Hall, University of Richmond.

10 p.m. Reception to the ladies and gentlemen of the associations. The Executive Mansion, Capitol Square.

Tuesday, December 30

9.30 p. m. Reception to the ladies of the associations, on the part of the Colonial Dames of America in the State of Virginia, at the Woman's Club, 211 East Franklin Street.

10 p. m. Forum for the gentlemen of the associations. The Jefferson.

MINUTES OF THE ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING HELD AT THE GYMNASIUM, UNIVERSITY OF RICHMOND, RICHMOND, VA., DECEMBER 29, 1924

The annual business meeting was called to order at 3 p. m. by Acting President Andrews, who presented in the following communication the greetings of the Royal Historical Society:

22 RUSSELL SQUARE, LONDON, W. C. 1.,
November 28, 1924.

The president and council of the Royal Historical Society, having learnt that several fellows of the society are included in the party of British historical scholars invited to take part in the annual meeting of the American Historical Association on the 29th of December next, take this opportunity of conveying through them a very cordial fraternal greeting to the members of the American Historical Association.

The council are glad to see that the number of American fellows of the society has increased rapidly during recent years. It includes the acting president of the association. During recent years, too, a number of American scholars have contributed to the transactions of the Royal Historical Society, or have edited volumes in its Camden series of publications. These, and other American visitors, have frequently attended meetings of the Royal Historical Society, and have always been welcome. This friendly intercourse between the historical scholars of the two countries is a matter of deep gratification to the British fellows of the Royal Historical Society. They are conscious that it has been a source of material and moral support to the society in its efforts for the advancement of historical learning. The British fellows are also mindful that American scholars are cooperating actively with them in the preparation of a much needed bibliography of British modern history.

In these circumstances the council of the Royal Historical Society, on behalf of the British fellows, wish to offer to the president and council of the American Historical Association sincere congratulations upon their successful efforts to promote historical studies. They desire herewith to convey their best wishes for the continued prosperity and usefulness of the American Historical Association.

J. W. FORTESCUE, President.
H. E. MALDEN, Honorary Secretary.

It was voted that the resolutions be received and placed in the minutes of the meeting.