The 134th annual meeting of the Association will be held January 3–6, 2020, in New York. More than 1,500 scholars will participate in the four-day meeting. In addition, 50 specialized societies and organizations have scheduled sessions and events in partnership with the Association. AHA awards and honors will be announced on Friday, January 3, followed by a plenary session. John R. McNeill, Georgetown University, will deliver the presidential address on Saturday, January 4.

Land Acknowledgement

The American Historical Association acknowledges that this year we meet on the territory of the Lenape peoples. We honor the Lenape, along with the Unkechaug, Shinnecock, Matinecock, Montaukett, and Setalcott nations, whose historical and contemporary homes stand along the nearby waters of both the north and south shores of Long Island.

Hotel Accommodations

The AHA has reserved blocks of rooms at the following hotels:

	Single	Double	Triple	Quadruple
New York Hilton 1335 6th Ave. (Headquarters)	$185	$185	$225	$245
Sheraton New York 811 7th Ave. (Co-Headquarters)	$178	$198	$228	$258

Please see Hotels and Travel (historians.org/hotels) on the AHA website for details.

Making a Hotel Reservation

Attendees should reserve a room through the AHA’s housing service, Experient. Attendees will be able to make reservations online through a link on the AHA website or by calling toll free at 800-967-8852. International registrants may call 847-996-5832. Attendees interested in reserving suites should email AHA@experient-inc.com for more information about suite types and rates.

Reservation Dates

Reservations can be made by internet or phone between September 12 and December 10, 2019. The last day to make or change reservations through the housing service is December 10, 2019. After that date, remaining inventory in each hotel’s block will be released and rates are no longer guaranteed. After December 10, all reservations, changes, and cancellations must be made directly with the hotels.

Credit Card Guarantee

All reservations must be guaranteed with a major credit card or deposit of one night’s room rate and taxes. Cancellations must be made 72 hours prior to the scheduled arrival date or hotels will charge a cancellation fee of one night’s room and tax.

Meeting Registration

Take advantage of reduced rates by preregistering for the conference. Make sure your membership is up to date so you can enjoy member pricing at each level. Register online at historians.org/register.

Advance registration must be completed by midnight on December 13, 2019. After that, onsite rates will apply. Registration materials, including badges, will be distributed at the meeting during registration hours, posted on page vi.

Everyone attending the meeting must register. In addition, all US historians presenting at AHA sessions must be AHA members. Admission to the Exhibit Hall requires a registration badge.

Refund Policy

Advance registrants who are unable to attend the meeting may request a refund of their registration fee. Cancellations and refund requests should be submitted by December 13, 2019. Refunds will be processed less a $20 administrative fee. No refunds will be issued for requests received after December 13, 2019. Refunds will not be given for no-shows. Cancellations and refund requests should be emailed to ltownsend@historians.org. Proof of payment may also be required.

Accessibility Information

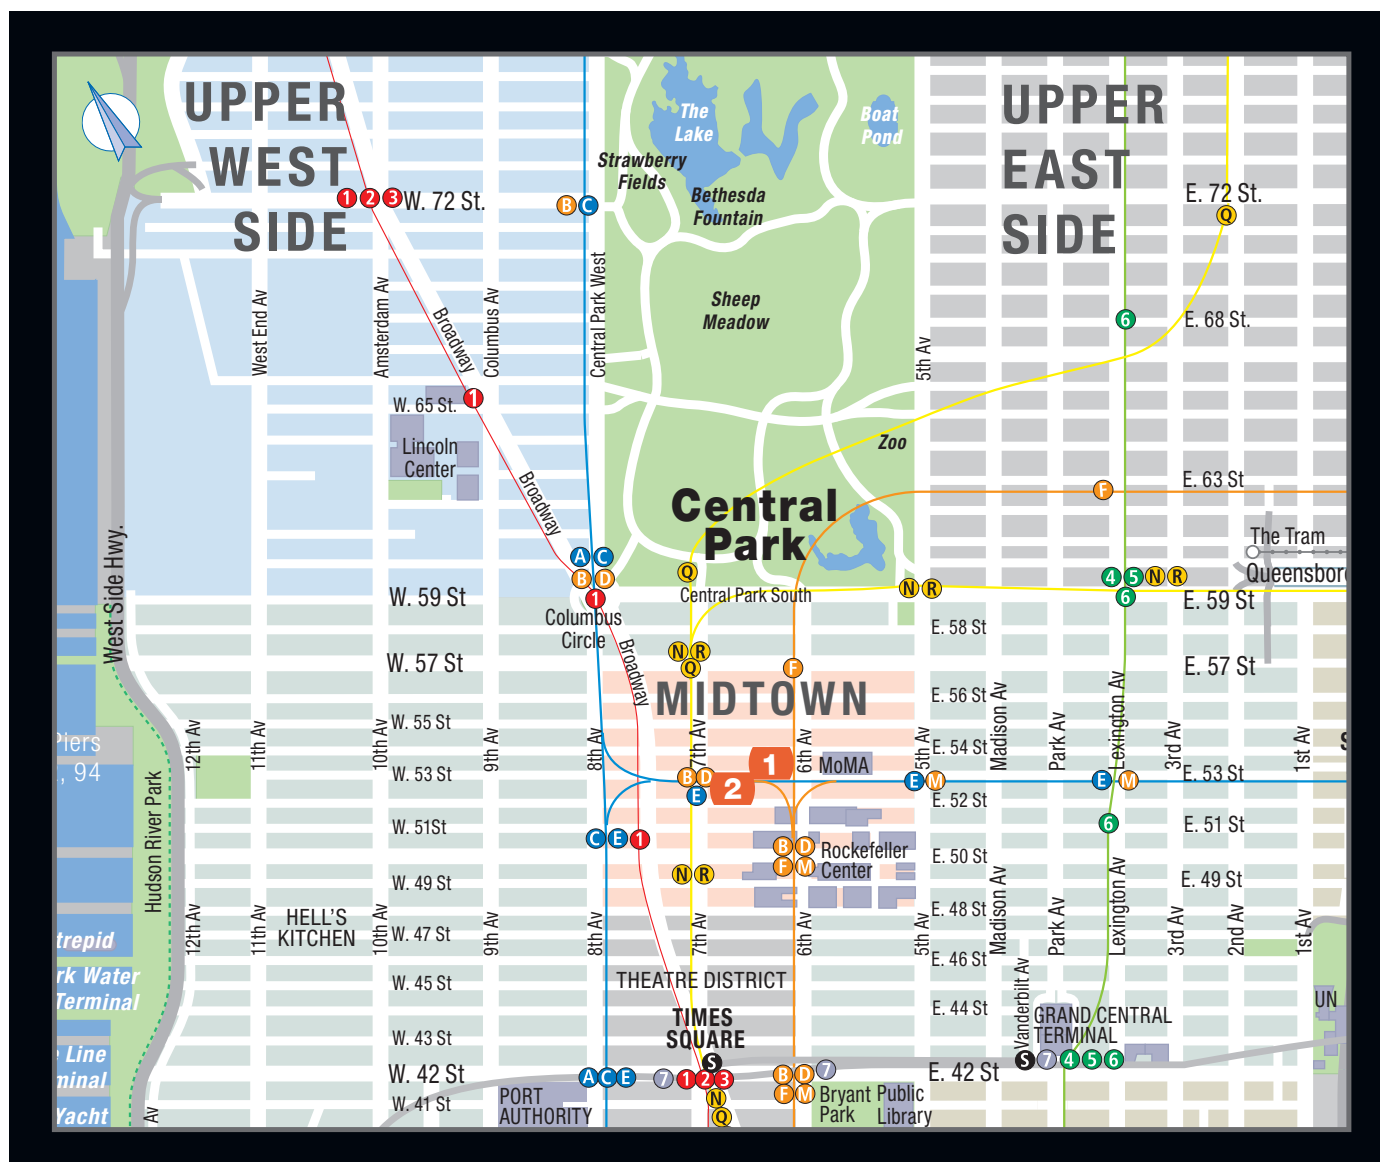

Find general information and resources at wheelchairtravel.org/new-york-city.

All meeting hotels have accessible lobbies with at least one entrance with auto-slide doors; door-service personnel are available at other entrances. Thresholds and doormats are in compliance with American with Disabilities Act (ADA) regulations. Lobbies have marble floors and/or low-pile area carpeting. Elevators connect all levels of each property. Each elevator has a wheelchair-accessible keypad. Elevators either have audible announcements or Braille numerals beside each control button. Restrooms in lobbies and on meeting room floors are wheelchair accessible and have tactile signage.

All hotels have accessible registration desks or provide clipboards to guests to complete registration documentation. All hotels have accessible guest rooms. The number of such rooms at each property is noted in the listing below. Among other amenities, these rooms feature wheelchair-accessible doors, lever door handles, security peepholes, ample room space, grab bars in restrooms, low sinks with insulated pipes, accessible towel racks, and accessible mirrors. The following auxiliary aids are available at most properties: flashing fire alarm, doorbell, and telephone; vibrating alarm clock; closed-caption decoders; Braille signage; and TDD telephones.

New York Hilton

Parking: Accessible parking.

Guest Rooms: 116 accessible rooms and 10 accessible suites.

Meeting Rooms: All meeting rooms are ADA accessible.

Sheraton New York

The hotel's main entrance on Sixth Avenue is accessible.

Parking: Accessible self-parking.

Guest rooms: 80 accessible rooms.

Meeting Rooms: All meeting rooms are ADA accessible.

Accessible Transportation

The public transportation system in New York is accessible, though not all subway stations are accessible via elevator. Details are available at new.mta.info/accessibility.

Wheelchair-accessible, ADA compliant taxis are available through the centralized Accessible Dispatch (call 646-599-9999 or text 646-400-0789, www.accessibledispatch.com).

Scooter rentals are available by contacting ScootAround (888-441-7575, www.scootaround.com).

Service Animals Welcome

The American Historical Association is committed to making the annual meeting accessible. Service animals are welcome at all events, sessions, and venues. The ADA protects the right of people with disabilities to be accompanied by trained service animals in public places. Remember, not all disabilities are visible and service animals are not required to wear special equipment or tags. Service animals are working and should not be distracted without permission.

Fragrance

Please help us to accommodate attendees who are sensitive to fragrances by refraining from wearing scented products.

Sign Interpreting

Members with hearing impairment who will need sign-interpreting service at the AHA annual meeting must notify the AHA Headquarters Office and register for the meeting by November 1, 2019. The request should include the sessions they plan to attend. The AHA will secure the services of appropriate interpreters. The AHA will assume the cost for up to nine hours of sign language interpreting service per member.

An interpreter may also be provided upon request for the presidential address (Saturday, January 4) and the annual business meeting (Sunday, January 5).

Assistive listening devices are also available on request.

Please contact Debbie Doyle at ddoyle@historians.org by November 1, 2019, if you would like to request an interpreter or assistive listening device.

Code of Professional Conduct

The AHA is committed to creating and maintaining a harassment-free environment for all participants in the Association's activities, regardless of their actual or perceived sex, gender, gender expression, gender identity, sexual orientation, marital status, race, ethnicity, nationality, ability, socioeconomic status, veteran status, age, or religion. All members and participants, including employers, contractors, vendors, volunteers, and guests, are expected to engage in consensual and respectful behavior and to preserve AHA's standard of professionalism at all times. The policy pertains to all venues where officially sanctioned AHA conferences, meetings, and other activities occur.

Details, including procedures for addressing violations of the statement, are posted at historians.org/conduct.

Recording Policy

The AHA and the press occasionally record sessions for use in broadcast and electronic media, and film or photograph public areas at the meeting. Registration, attendance, or participation at the meeting constitutes an agreement to the use of the attendee's image in photographs, video, audio, and electronic communications. Presenters who do not wish for their session to be recorded may opt out by contacting annualmeeting@historians.org. In order to encourage open debate and allow members to speak as freely as possible, the AHA does not permit audio or video recording of its business meeting. Anyone who wishes to conduct audio or video recording must obtain permission from participants in advance. The AHA is not responsible for unauthorized recording but does reserve the right to revoke registration of anyone who records sessions without appropriate permissions.

Live Tweeting

To facilitate virtual conversations arising from the annual meeting, the AHA encourages attendees to live tweet using #AHA20. Participants are encouraged to share their Twitter handles. Speakers presenting material that they do not wish to be live tweeted should make a request to the audience at the beginning of their presentations.

Quiet Room

The AHA will make a quiet room available in the Sheraton New York's Bryant Park room. It is available for all conference attendees as a place to sit for a few minutes of quiet time.

All-Gender Restrooms

All are welcome to use the restroom that best fits their identity. All-gender restrooms will be available on the New York Hilton's lobby level near the executive lounge and at the Sheraton New York on the second floor near the Metropolitan Ballroom and on the third floor near the New York Ballroom.

Nursing Room

The New York Hilton provides a nursing room on the fourth floor. A second nursing room will be located in the Sheraton New York's Park Suite 1. The rooms are equipped with comfortable furniture and a private area for nursing.

Childcare

Grants to subsidize childcare are available by application. Please visit historians.org/childcaregrants for more information. Applications are due by November 1.

Formal childcare services will not be provided at the meeting. Attendees should make arrangements directly with a provider prior to arriving in New York (some options are noted below). The AHA assumes no responsibility with respect to these services and accepts no liabilities related to the services provided.

Business Meeting

The AHA Council, divisions, and committees will report to the Association at the annual business meeting. Reports are subject to discussion and appropriate motions relating to them. Resolutions on other matters for the business meeting will be handled as follows: (1) resolutions signed by 100 members of the Association will be accepted until November 1, 2019, and (2) must be no more than 300 words in length. Resolutions should be sent to the Executive Director at the AHA headquarters.

Only AHA members and others who receive permission from the Council may attend the business meeting. Please confirm in advance that your membership is up to date.

Affiliated Societies

A table in the exhibit hall has been set aside during normal hours for affiliated societies to display materials and to meet with members of the profession on a rotating schedule. Check the online program for the schedule.

Meetups

Those interested in holding an informal conversation with colleagues during the annual meeting can arrange a meetup. The AHA has set aside space for small group conversations about historical and professional issues. AHA members who have registered for the meeting can sign up online to reserve a space. Meetups will be listed in the online program and the meeting app. See historians.org/meetups for details.

Meet Your Collaborators

Collaborating with a group of people that would like to meet face to face? The AHA can provide members registered for the meeting with a room for small group meetings during the conference—for example for board meetings, focus groups, or collaborative projects. See historians.org/meetups for details.

Transportation to New York

See historians.org/annual-meeting for complete details about transportation, including discounts for AHA members and attendees.

Tours Organized by the Local Arrangements Committee

The Local Arrangements Committee has organized six tours highlighting the historical resources of New York City.

Preregistration for tours is highly recommended. Tour tickets are nonrefundable and cannot be exchanged. Tour participants must be registered for the AHA meeting. Log in at historians.org/myaha to add tickets to an existing registration.

Tour groups will meet at the New York Hilton's Rhinelander Gallery North.

AHA tours will travel by subway. Fares and admission fees are included in the price of the tour. See the tour descriptions for details about the accessibility of each tour site. Please note that most subway stations are accessible only by stairs. Alternate transportation for people with disabilities will be available on request. Contact annualmeeting@historians.org for additional information.

WORKSHOPS

Friday, January 3, 9:00 a.m.–1:00 p.m.

Getting Started in Digital History Workshop

New York Hilton, Concourse A

For the seventh year in a row the AHA will be running the Getting Started in Digital History workshop immediately prior to the start of the meeting. The workshop brings historians with an interest in using digital tools and resources together with experts in a range of digital-history methodologies. This year will include hands-on sessions for people with wide range of levels of experience. At lunch, we will also have a roundtable discussion on a range of topics in the digital humanities. Lunch will be provided for all attendees.

Registration for the workshop can be purchased in advance through the registration form for $45 for AHA members, $10 for student members or $50 nonmembers, $20 student nonmembers. Registration includes a boxed lunch. Please note that you do not need to pick up your badge before attending the pre-meeting workshop. We look forward to seeing you there.

Friday, January 3, 9:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m.

LOCAL ARRANGEMENTS COMMITTEE TOURS

Friday, January 3, 10:15 a.m.–1:15 p.m.

Tour 1: Brooklyn Historical Society: Taking Care of Brooklyn: Stories of Sickness and Health

New York Hilton, Rhinelander Gallery North

Tour leader: Julie Golia, Brooklyn Historical Society

Founded in 1863, Brooklyn Historical Society (BHS) has been a leader in spearheading public history initiatives that engage diverse audiences with cutting-edge and relevant historical narratives about life in the borough and beyond. BHS's long-term exhibitions challenge audiences to think about how complex historical concepts such as race and slavery, labor and class, deindustrialization and gentrification have shaped their lives and the Brooklyn they see today.

This tour will provide a behind-the-scenes look into how public history is created at BHS through one of the institution's acclaimed exhibitions. Taking Care of Brooklyn at BHS Pierpont explores how centuries of Brooklynites have understood their own health and that of those around them. The exhibition reveals that while sickness is about germs and biology, it is also about housing conditions, access to nutritional food and clean water, inequities and stereotypes, and much more.

Please note: The group will travel by subway (fare card provided); the museum is a short walk from the Court Street station. The Court Street station is accessible only by stairs; alternate transportation is available on request. The museum is ADA compliant.

Limit 20 people. $20 members, $30 nonmembers

Tour 2: Brooklyn Historical Society: Waterfront

New York Hilton, Rhinelander Gallery North

Tour leader: Nalleli Guillen, Brooklyn Historical Society

Founded in 1863, Brooklyn Historical Society (BHS) has been a leader in spearheading public history initiatives that engage diverse audiences with cutting edge and relevant historical narratives about life in the borough and beyond. BHS's long-term exhibitions challenge audiences to think about how complex historical concepts such as race and slavery, labor and class, deindustrialization and gentrification have shaped their lives and the Brooklyn they see today.

This tour will provide a behind the scenes look into how public history is created at BHS by discussing one of the institution's most recent projects. Waterfront, an exhibition and multimedia experience located at BHS's second gallery in the neighborhood of DUMBO (Down Under the Manhattan Bridge Overpass), brings to life the vibrant history of Brooklyn's coastline through interwoven stories of workers, industries, activists, innovators, families, neighborhoods, and ecosystems. The exhibition engages with important debates about the shoreline's future by taking on the waterfront's most pressing contemporary topics, including sea level rise and gentrification.

Please note: The group will travel by subway (fare card provided); the museum is a short walk from the High Street station. The High Street station is accessible only by stairs; alternate transportation is available on request. The museum is ADA compliant.

Limit 20 people. $20 members, $30 nonmembers

Friday, January 3, 12:15–3:15 p.m.

Tour 3: Tour of LGBTQ Materials at the Schomburg Center

New York Hilton, Rhinelander Gallery North

Joint tour with the Committee on Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender History

Tour leader: Dan Royles, Florida International University

A tour of the LGBTQ materials held at the Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture.

Please note: The group will travel by subway (fare card provided); the library is a 10-minute walk from the 135th Street station. The 135th Street station is accessible only by stairs; alternate transportation is available on request. The library is ADA compliant.

Limit 12 people. $20 members, $30 nonmembers

LOCAL ARRANGEMENTS COMMITTEE TOUR

Friday, January 3, 2:00–4:00 p.m.

Tour 4: Museum of the City of New York: City of Workers, City of Struggle: How Labor Movements Changed New York

New York Hilton, Rhineland Gallery North

Tour leader: Steven Jaffe, Museum of the City of New York

For two centuries, working people's movements have shaped New York—and vice versa. Some of the first labor organizations in the country were formed by the city's artisans in the early 19th century, and some of the nation's foremost labor leaders have been New Yorkers, from Samuel Gompers and Elizabeth Gurley Flynn to A. Philip Randolph, David Dubinsky, and Sidney Hillman.

But working New Yorkers have also struggled with each other over pay, power, and inclusion. New waves of workers—women, immigrants, people of color, and the “unskilled”—have repeatedly defined their own movements for a better life, and in the process remade city life in ways that affect all.

Join curator Steven Jaffe for a tour of City of Workers, City of Struggle: How Labor Movements Changed New York. The exhibit traces the social, political, and economic story of these diverse workers and their movements in New York through rare documents, artifacts, and footage, and considers the future of labor in the city.

Please note: The group will travel by subway (fare card provided); the museum is a 10-minute walk from the 103rd Street station. The 103rd Street station is accessible only by stairs; alternate transportation is available on request. The museum is ADA compliant.

Limit 25 people. $20 members, $30 nonmembers

WORKSHOP

Saturday, January 4, 9:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m.

K–16 Educators' Workshop: Hold On—I Thought I Knew This Story!

Sheraton New York, Lenox Ballroom

Sponsored by AP/College Board

Once in a while, a single document can completely alter our understanding of a historical event or a historic figure. Sharing such sources with students can help them consider the importance of evidence, perspective, and thorough research—and can suggest or lead to counter-narratives. This interactive workshop will begin with a keynote address by a scholar currently serving as a fellow in the John W. Kluge Center at the Library of Congress, who will share relevant research. This will be followed by an interactive workshop conducted by Lee Ann Potter and Kaleena Black of the LOC's Center for Learning, Literacy, and Engagement. They will focus on surprising documents related to America slavery, the age of invention, women's suffrage, and more, that come in a variety of media from the collections of the library. Workshop strategies will replicate classroom activities appropriate for a wide range of history courses and student reading abilities. Materials will be provided.

No charge; because space is limited, free advance registration is required.

LOCAL ARRANGEMENTS COMMITTEE TOUR

Saturday, January 4, 10:15 a.m.–12:30 p.m.

Tour 5: Highlights of the Center for Women's History at the New-York Historical Society

New York Hilton, Rhineland Gallery North

Tour leaders: Valerie Paley, Center for Women's History, New-York Historical Society and Jeanne Gutierrez, New-York Historical Society

The Center for Women's History at the New-York Historical Society is the first of its kind in the nation within the walls of a major museum. Its exhibitions, collecting initiatives, public programs, and educational materials explore the lives and legacies of women who have shaped and continue to shape the American experience. Join center director Valerie Paley and curatorial scholar in women's history Jeanne Gutierrez on an in-depth exploration of the center's current exhibitions and installations, featuring a gallery of Tiffany lamps; Women's Voices (a multimedia digital installation that showcases the exceptional and unknown women who left their mark on New York and the nation); and upcoming exhibition Artist in Exile: The Visual Diary of Baroness Hyde De Neuville. In addition to the tour, each group member will receive full-day admission to all museum exhibitions and access to the introductory film, New York Story, and the Center for Women's History film We Rise.

Please note: The group will travel by subway (fare card provided); the museum is a five-minute walk from the 81st Street station. The 81st Street station is accessible only by stairs; alternate transportation is available on request. The museum is ADA compliant; the wheelchair accessible entrance is located at 2 W. 77th Street.

Limit 20 people. $20 members, $30 nonmembers

LOCAL ARRANGEMENTS COMMITTEE TOURSaturday, January 4, 11:00 a.m.–1:00 p.m.*Tour 6: Museum of the City of New York: *New York at Its Core*New York Hilton, Rhinelander Gallery NorthTour leader: Lilly Tuttle, Museum of the City of New York

What made New York New York? Follow the story of the city's rise from a striving Dutch village to today's "Capital of the World," and consider its future in our changing world, on a tour of New York at Its Core led by curator Lilly Tuttle.

The exhibition begins with the era of Henry Hudson's voyage into New York Harbor and follows the story of the city as it grew into the nation's economic and cultural capital. Visitors will encounter more than 200 key objects and images from this period, including a ceremonial club from the Native people of the area; a slice of a wooden pipe that formed the original water system of the city; and William M. "Boss" Tweed's gold tiger-headed cane. The exhibition also delves into the 20th century and the cycles of financial growth and crisis that continually reshaped the city's economic, cultural, and social life, as did the influx of new waves of people from across the country and around the world. Steep challenges—including the Great Depression, the fiscal and urban crises of the postwar era, and the terrorist attacks of 9/11—tested and ultimately affirmed the creativity and resilience of the residents of a teeming metropolis that had become the most influential city in the world.

Please note: The group will travel by subway (fare card provided); the museum is a 10-minute walk from the 103rd Street station. The 103rd Street station is accessible only by stairs; alternate transportation is available on request. The museum is ADA compliant.

OPEN FORUM

Saturday, January 4, 12:30–1:30 p.m.

Meet the Editors and Staff of the American Historical Review

New York Hilton, Gibson Room

What do you want from the flagship journal of the American Historical Association? The editors and staff of the AHR invite members to attend an informal, open session to express their views on the journal. We are prepared to offer advice on how members might best prepare articles for submission and tell them what they should expect from the review process. Most importantly, we are eager to hear what you have to say.

EARLY AFTERNOON SESSIONS OF THE AHA PROGRAM COMMITTEE

Saturday, January 4, 1:30–3:30 p.m.

101. Film Screening: John O'Connor Film Award
Winner, Documentary: *Bisbee '17

New York Hilton, Rendezvous Trianon

Robert Greene, writer and director (4th Row Films, 2018)

On July 12, 1917, 2000 deputized residents of Bisbee, Arizona, organized by management of Phelps Dodge, the town's primary employer, rounded up 1300 striking workers, union activists, and recent immigrants and deported them to the New Mexico desert. Precisely 100 years later, Bisbee's citizens staged a re-enactment of those events. Dramatizing scenes based on the town's collective memory with surprising humor and suspense, the film simultaneously reminds us of the intertwined histories of immigration and labor and evokes the contemporary resonance of past conflicts.

Contributors to a June 2019 AHR roundtable on the film will lead a discussion afterward, beginning at 3:30 p.m.

Saturday, January 4, 1:30–3:00 p.m.

FILM FESTIVAL

Saturday, January 4, 7:00–9:30 p.m.

Film Screening: John O'Connor Film Award Winner, Feature Film: Colette

New York Hilton, Rendezvous Trianon

Wash Westmoreland, director and writer; Richard Glatzer and Rebecca Lenkiewicz, writers (Killer Content and Number 9 Films, 2018)

This biopic of French novelist Sidonie-Gabrielle Colette (1873–1954) provides an origin story for the woman we know simply as “Colette.” We follow the young Colette from her home in rural France to the salons of Paris as she becomes a ghostwriter for her husband’s literary firm, and then rebels against his attempts to control her and take credit for her work. Set at the fin-de-siècle, the film renders universal one woman’s struggle to find her voice.

Patricia Tilburg, Davidson College, will introduce the film and lead a discussion afterward.

EARLY MORNING SESSIONS OF THE
AHA PROGRAM COMMITTEE

Monday, January 6, 9:00–10:30 a.m.

254. Lightning Round, Part 2

New York Hilton, Sutton North

Organized by the AHA Research Division

This experimental session will feature three-minute presentations by historians describing their research. With space for approximately 15 participants, this session is an excellent opportunity for scholars to get feedback on projects at any stage of development, hear about other types of projects and methods, and network with other historians. We are now accepting abstracts from those looking to participate. To submit an abstract, e-mail klou@historians.org. Please include an 80-word abstract and the title of your project.

255. World History for the 21st Century: Redesigning the College History Introductory Curriculum

New York Hilton, Beekman Room

This session offers you an opportunity to explore and articulate what you see as the challenges facing instructors in these courses, and to help establish the framework and aims of this project. We will discuss what students bring to the course, university pedagogical requirements, the role of introductory history courses in departmental and university requirements, and the particular challenges presented by teaching world history. Everyone is welcome to join this workshop.

CHILDHOODS

Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Children and Youth

Series editors,
KAREN SÁNCHEZ-EPPLER,
RACHEL CONRAD, LAURA L.
LOVETT, and ALICE HEARST

This groundbreaking series pursues critical thinking about the nature of childhood and the diverse experiences of children, as well as the social and political forces that shape them. Childhoods prioritizes work that recognizes children's active roles as producers of political and cultural meaning.

Radical History Review

Edited by the RHR Editorial Collective

For more than thirty-five years, Radical History Review has stood at the point where rigorous historical scholarship and active political engagement converge. Articles address issues of gender, race, sexuality, imperialism, and class, stretching the boundaries of historical analysis to explore Western and non-Western histories.

Recent special issue

Labor: Studies in Working-Class History

Leon Fink, editor

As a site for both historical research and commentary, Labor provides an intellectual scaffolding for understanding the roots of continuing social dilemmas. It invites submissions that explore the situation, subjectivity, or strategy of working men and women in any era.

AMERICAN HISTORY

Give Me Liberty! An American History, Sixth Edition

Eric Foner

The new Sixth Edition of the leading U.S. history textbook features new coverage of issues of inclusion and exclusion, as well as a documents feature, titled "Who Is An American?" The text remains concise and authoritative, integrated by the freedom theme throughout.

America: A Narrative History, Eleventh Edition, and The Essential Learning Edition, Second Edition

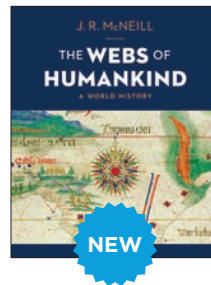

David Emory Shi

America is the leading narrative history because students love to read it. Featuring timely new coverage of immigration, Shi's thorough revision maintains his classic storytelling approach while presenting balanced coverage of political, social, and cultural history.

Reacting to the Past

The award-winning series of immersive role-playing games that actively engage students in their own learning.

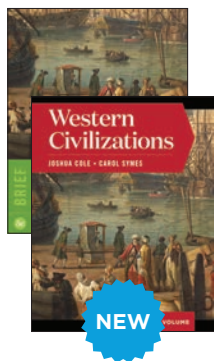

The Webs of Humankind: A World History

J. R. McNeill

Coming soon: a new world history textbook from AHA president John McNeill. Visit the Norton booth for more information.

EUROPEAN HISTORY

Western Civilizations, Twentieth Edition and Brief Fifth Edition

Joshua Cole, Carol Symes

Used by more than a million students since its original publication, Western Civilizations became the leading text for the course by combining historical scholarship with classroom innovation. New History Skills Tutorials for each chapter help students to interpret a document, image, or map and then relate that source to key chapter themes.

WORLD HISTORY

Worlds Together, Worlds Apart: With Sources, Concise Second Edition

Pollard, Rosenberg, et al.

A streamlined and simplified global history—with sources. The most global text for world history is also unmatched in drawing connections and comparisons across time and place. With a new compact format, engaging design, and built-in reader, this edition improves accessibility while strengthening history skill development.

TEACHING AND LEARNING WITH NORTON

Available with survey texts in American, Western, and World History

Norton InQuizitive

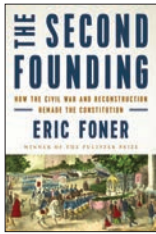

InQuizitive is Norton's award-winning, easy-to-use adaptive learning tool that personalizes the learning experience for students and helps them master key learning objectives.

History Skills Tutorials

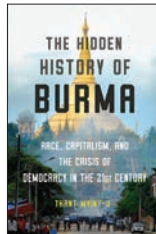

Students learn a framework for source analysis and watch the author of their text demonstrate how to apply that framework to a series of sources. Then, assessments challenge students to test their understanding.

Inaugural Eugen Weber Book Prize

Recognizing the best book In modern French history

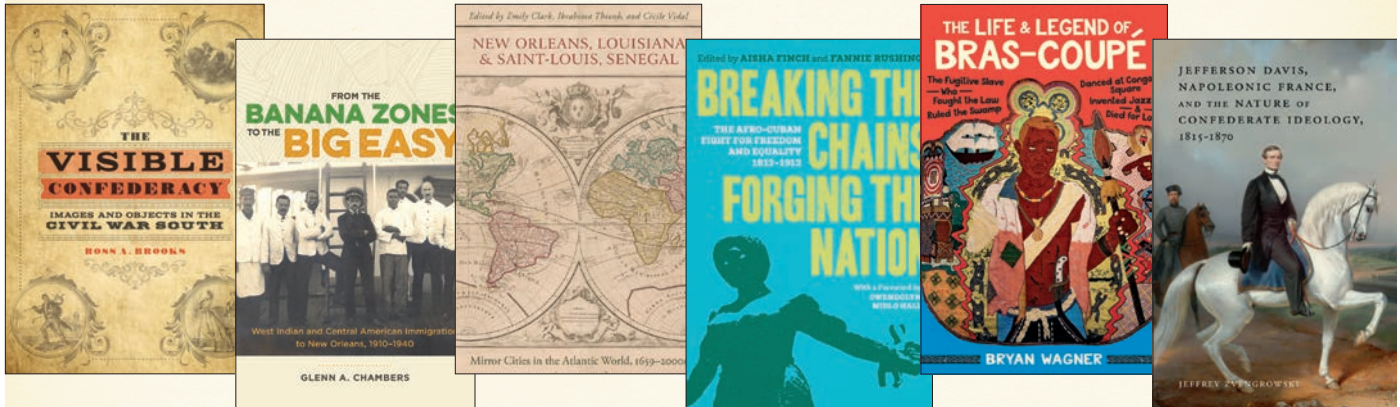

Please join the the UCLA Department of History as we announce the inaugural Biennial Eugen Weber Book Prize in French History at our department reception on Saturday, January 4 from 7 to 8:30 p.m. in the New York Room at the New York Hilton. A prize for the best book in modern French history (post 1815) over the previous two years, this award is named for the eminent French historian Eugen Weber (1925-2007).

Professor Weber served on the History faculty at UCLA from 1956 until his retirement in 1993. He was renowned as a teacher and scholar for bringing the French and European past to life, whether in magisterial lectures delivered without notes or in his many acclaimed books that covered topics ranging from right-wing elite groups to the peasantry. He had a special interest in French politics and culture at the turn of the 20th century and in the 1930s.

The Eugen Weber Book Prize in French History brings a cash award of $15,000. The winning author will be invited to visit UCLA to speak about his or her work and to receive the prize during the spring of 2020.

AMERICAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION

YEAR IN REVIEW 2018-19

Leadership

Rethinking History Education

- Published Careers for History Majors to help departments recruit students and to inform current and future undergraduates about the social and economic value of studying history, distributing 5,000 copies in six months
- Launched History Gateways, an initiative to revise introductory college history courses to better serve students from all backgrounds
- Engaged with more than 30 institutions to discuss strategies and spearhead cultural and curricular change in PhD programs as part of the AHA's Career Diversity for Historians initiative. Activities included 136 seminars, workshops, informal information sessions, visits, and conferences

Improving Data Transparency

- Expanded the annual jobs report to provide more context about academic hiring
- Collaborated with the Association of American Universities and the Council of Graduate Schools to collect improved data about doctoral career outcomes across disciplines
- Published "The History BA since the Great Recession" by Benjamin M. Schmidt in Perspectives on History, which sparked wide conversation about the future of historical knowledge in the United States

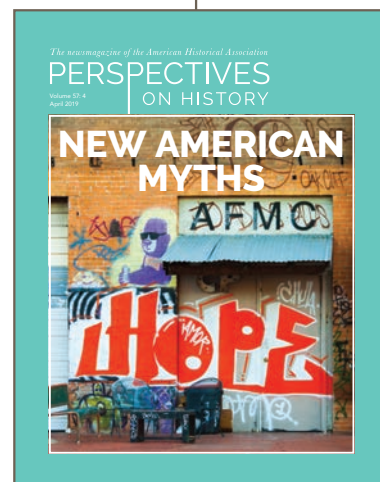

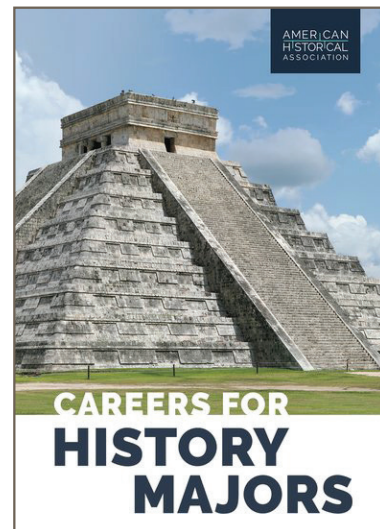

Raising the Bar for Diversity and Inclusion in the Discipline

- Partnered with the American Philosophical Association to collaborate with faculty at Historically Black Colleges and Universities to explore how scholarly associations can better serve these institutions
- Embarked on a broad range of initiatives to comprehensively diversify the American Historical Review with respect to article topics, contributors, peer reviewers, and more
- Developed policies and a code of conduct to safeguard our member spaces and to protect members from harassment and discrimination within the scope of AHA activity

Advocacy

Defending and Supporting the Work of Historians

- Issued a record-breaking number of letters and statements regarding academic freedom and the integrity of historical work in Saudi Arabia, Iran, Nicaragua, Hungary, and across the United States

We began renovation of the AHA headquarters building in Washington, DC, to enable access for all members and to create adequate meeting space for our Council and committees.

Join the AHA today.

- Mobilized members to protect federal funding for the humanities, higher education budgets, and history courses in public higher education systems
- Established a committee to advise on issues at the National Archives and Records Administration relating to the work of historians
- Played a leadership role in the National Humanities Alliance, National Coalition for History, and American Council of Learned Societies, in addition to continued participation in the Consortium of Social Science Associations and Social Science Research Council

Bringing Historical Thinking into Policy Debates

- Responded to current events with late-breaking sessions at #AHA19 related to such issues as Confederate monuments, threats to the collections and work of archives, and Brazil's presidential election
- The National History Center convened five congressional briefings by expert historians on the histories of federal agricultural policy, US refugee policy, congressional reform and rules changes, US gun rights and regulations, and US health care policy, which consistently attracted large audiences and were filmed and broadcast by C-SPAN
- A series of Perspectives Daily articles contextualized contemporary issues, including marijuana decriminalization, white supremacist nostalgia for the Middle Ages, and African American student activism
- A webinar with leading political historians discussed the historical implications of the 2018 midterm elections

Creating Community

Supporting Members with Professional Development

- Subsidized $17,200 worth of graduate student travel to #AHA19 and provided childcare stipends to graduate students and non-tenure-track faculty
- Welcomed the participation of over 500 students at all levels at #AHA19, with an undergraduate lightning round and poster presentation
- Held the first annual Department Chairs' Workshop to develop leaders who can advocate for disciplinary priorities on campus
- Arranged dozens of informational interviews through Career Contacts, a database of nearly 250 history PhDs working beyond the professoriate
- Sponsored two large teaching conferences in Texas and California, connecting high school and undergraduate educators
- Launched Perspectives on History biweekly newsletter to better communicate with our readers
- Expanded the digital scope and reach of the American Historical Review

Applied History Course Development Grant Opportunity

The Stanton Foundation is accepting proposals from tenured and tenure-track faculty to create new case-based undergraduate courses in U.S. history. The goal of these courses is to prepare students to think about the major issues related to U.S. vital interests that they will encounter during their lifetimes as citizens.

What is a “case-based applied history” course?

It is a course taught through a rich collection of cases drawn from the historical record to give students more context when thinking about current issues, making them more informed consumers of news and more responsible civic decision makers. Issues such as immigration, business regulation, international alliances, and income distribution that the U.S. confronts repeatedly, and with varying approaches and outcomes are examples of possible course topics.

What are the minimum requirements for the course?

The course must be a semester- or quarter-long offering; preference is given to larger courses. The department chair, and in some cases the dean of the division, must support the course.

What funding is available?

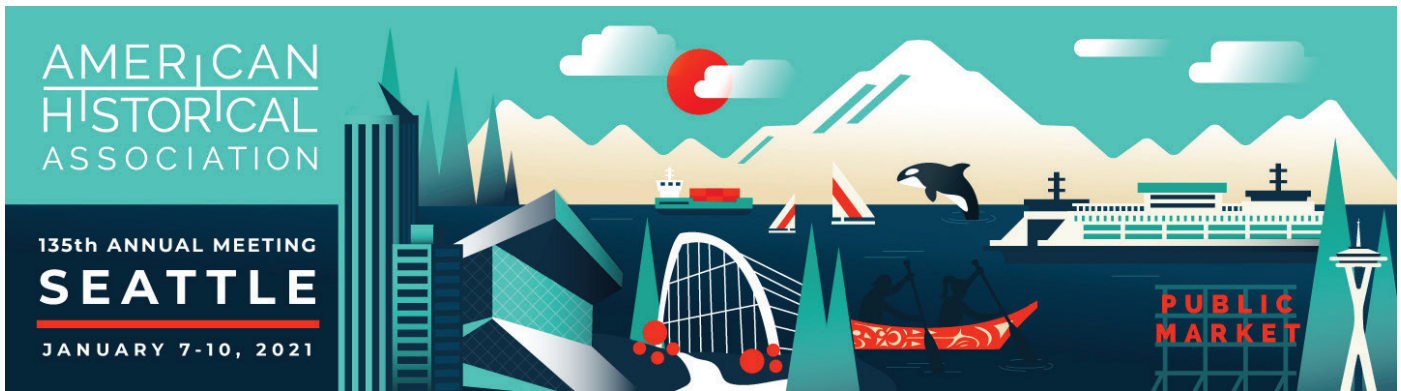

The Foundation will provide grants of up to $50,000 to cover released or summer time, materials, and research assistance.

About the Stanton Foundation:

The Stanton Foundation was created by Frank Stanton, who is widely regarded as one of the greatest executives in the history of electronic communications and one of the television industry’s founding fathers. The Foundation was an early funder of Wikipedia, has created seven endowed professorships, and has awarded nine Applied History Course Development Grants to eight institutions.

Call for Proposals for the 135th Annual Meeting of the American Historical Association

The AHA's annual meeting is the largest yearly gathering of historians in the United States.

All historians are welcome and encouraged to submit proposals. The AHA also invites historically focused proposals from colleagues in related disciplines and from AHA affiliated societies. The Program Committee will consider all proposals that advance the study, teaching, and public presentation of history.

The Association seeks submissions on the histories of all places, periods, people, and topics; on the uses of diverse sources and methods, including digital history; and on theory and the uses of history itself in a wide variety of venues.

We invite proposals for sessions in a variety of formats and encourage lively interaction among presenters and with the audience.

Session Proposals

Sessions last for 90 minutes. Most sessions will be limited to four speakers plus a chair. The Program Committee will accept proposals for complete sessions only. We encourage organizers to build panels that bring together diverse perspectives.

Poster Proposals

The meeting will feature a poster session to allow historians to share their research through visual materials. Proposals for single, individual presentations may be submitted as posters.

The Program Committee welcomes proposals from all historians, whatever their institutional affiliation or status, and historians working outside the United States. With the exception of foreign scholars and those from other disciplines, all persons appearing on the program must be members of the AHA, although membership is not required to submit a proposal. All participants must register for the meeting when registration opens. The Association aspires to represent the full diversity of its membership at the annual meeting.

Electronic submission only, by midnight PST on February 15, 2020

Before applying, please review the annual meeting guidelines and more information at historians.org/proposals.

Questions about policies, modes of presentation, and the electronic submission process?

Contact annualmeeting@historians.org.

Questions about the content of proposals?

Contact Program Committee chair Jared Poley, Georgia State University (jpoley@gsu.edu) and co-chair Lisa Brady, Boise State University (lisabrad@boisestate.edu).
