

FINAL EXAM RUBRIC – 10%

A (100-90): The student fully answers both questions by using a skillful combination of personal reflection and incorporating of a wide variety of readings, classroom discussions, field experiences, and assignments. The answers reflect a deep knowledge of the wider questions of the field and of the complexities of the possible responses. The student displays a strong sense of mission. The essays present an incredibly organized and thoughtful argument.

B (89-80): The student fully answers both questions by using a combination of personal reflection and incorporating of a variety of readings, classroom discussions, field experiences, and assignments. The answers reflect knowledge of the wider questions of the field and of the complexities of the possible responses. The student displays a strong sense of mission. The essays present an organized and thoughtful argument.

C (79-70): The student fully answers both questions by using a combination of personal reflection and incorporating at least some of the readings, classroom discussions, field experiences, and assignments. The answers reflect knowledge of the wider questions of the field and of the complexities of the possible responses. The student displays a sense of mission. The essays present a fairly organized and at times thoughtful argument.