

PROGRAM OF THE FORTY-FIRST ANNUAL MEETING, HELD IN ROCHESTER, N. Y., DECEMBER 28-30, 1926

Tuesday, December 28

9.30 a. m. Meeting of the executive council.

10 a. m. Agricultural history. Joint meeting with the Agricultural History Society. "Suggestions for an Agricultural Who's Who in the ante-bellum period," Chairman, Edward E. Dale, University of Oklahoma. "The North," Joseph Schafer, State Historical Society of Wisconsin. "The South," A. O. Craven, University of Illinois. "The West," Herbert A. Kellar, McCormick Agricultural Library, Chicago.

A round table: "The College and Research," Chairman W. K. Boyd, Duke University. "The Status of Modern European History," C. P. Higby, University of North Carolina. "The Exploitation of State History," A. E. Martin, Pennsylvania State College. "The College Administration and Research," M. B. Garrett, Howard College. "Report from Inquiry as to Productivity on the Part of Ph. D.'s," M. W. Jernegan, University of Chicago.

12.30 Luncheon conference. Chairman, Dana C. Munro, Princeton University. Discussion of Mr. Jernegan's report.

Luncheon conference.—"The Far East," Chairman, K. S. Latourette, Yale University. "Some Prevalent Legends in the History of the Far East," Payson J. Treat, Stanford University. "Some Remarks on the Chinese Art of the Han Period," M. Rostovtzeff, Yale University.

2.30 p. m. General session. "History," Chairman, Dice R. Anderson, Randolph-Macon Woman's College. "What is Historical Fact?" Carl Becker, Cornell University. "The Logic of Historical Synthesis," Fred Morrow Fling, University of Nebraska. "The Essentials and Non-Essentials of the New History," Harry Elmer Barnes, Smith College.

4.30 to 6 p. m. Reception, Memorial Art Gallery, University of Rochester. Exhibition of works and unpublished manuscripts of Lewis H. Morgan; a part of the autograph collection of the University of Rochester, founded by Charles A. Brown; and a collection of coins covering twenty-six centuries, assembled by the American Numismatic Society.

6 p. m. Dinner of the Agricultural History Society. "The Market Surplus Problem in Colonial Tobacco," L. C. Gray, Washington, D. C.

8.15 p. m. General session. Address of welcome, President Rush Rhees, University of Rochester. Award of prizes. Annual address of the president of the American Historical Association: "War and History," Dana Carleton Munro, Princeton University.

Wednesday, December 29

10 a. m. Joint meeting with the Mississippi Valley Historical Association, Chairman, Otto L. Schmidt, president of the Mississippi Valley Historical Association. "Illinois to Oregon in 1852," C. A. Dunaway, Carleton College. "The High Tide of the French Conquest in North America," G. A. Wood, Lake Forest College. "The St. Lawrence in the Boundary Settlement of 1783," G. W. Brown, Toronto University.

MEDIEVAL HISTORY:—"Some Phases of Medieval Intellectual History," Chairman, Henry Osborn Taylor, New York. "A Ninth Century Commentator on St. Matthew," M. L. Wolfram Laistner, Cornell University. "The Crusading Ardor of John of Garland—a Professor in the Universities of Paris and Toulouse in the Thirteenth Century," L. J. Paetow, University of California. "The Survival of Medieval Intellectual Interests into Early Modern Times," Lynn Thorndike, Columbia University.

12.30 p. m. Luncheon offered by the University of Rochester: "The Promotion of American History and of History in America," Chairman, Albert J. Beveridge, chairman of the association's committee on endowment.

2.30 p. m. Annual business meeting.

4.30 p. m. Inspection of the Eastman School of Music.

5 p. m. Musicale, Kilbourn Hall, Eastman School of Music.

6 p. m. Dinner of the Mississippi Valley Historical Association, Chairman, Otto L. Schmidt, president of the Mississippi Valley Historical Association. Toastmaster, Benjamin F. Shambaugh, superintendent of the State Historical Society of Iowa.

6 p. m. Dinner for medievalists, Chairman, Eugene H. Byrne, Madison, Wis. "A Word of Caution," G. L. Burr, Cornell University.

8.15 p. m. General session.—"The Influence of Europe in the Development of American Civilization," Chairman, E. P. Cheyney, University of Pennsylvania. "The Influence of British and European Universities on American Life during the Colonial Period," M. W. Jernegan, University of Chicago. "Civilization in Transit," Dixon Ryan Fox, Columbia University. "Dutch Influence on the Development of Civilization in America," Albert Hyma, University of Michigan.

9.30 p. m. Smoker for members of the associations, given by the Rochester Historical Society, Rochester Club.

Thursday, December 30

10 A. M. PUBLIC ARCHIVES: Chairman, G. S. Godard, Hartford, Conn. "Review of the Work of the Public Archives Commission," T. M. Marshall, Washington University, St. Louis. "What is Being Done for the Preservation of Local Records in New York State," A. C. Flick, Albany, N. Y. "Summary of 1926 Legislation relating to Public Archives and Records," G. S. Godard, Hartford, Conn. "History, Progress and Work of the Emory Record Preserving Co. in Connection with the Public Records of Our Land," A. P. Hoard, Taunton, Mass. "Statement concerning Archives of the League of Nations," W. G. Leland, Washington, D. C. "National Archive Building—What This Building and its Occupation will mean to the United States," J. Franklin Jameson, Washington, D. C.

MODERN HISTORY:—"The Near East," Chairman, Herbert Adams Gibbons, Princeton, N. J. "The Origins of the Druze People and Religion," Philip K. Hitti, Princeton University. "The Trend of Political Events in Moslem Lands," A. H. Lybyer, University of Illinois. "Origins of Philhellenism in the United States," Edward Mead Earle, Columbia University.

CONFERENCE OF HISTORICAL SOCIETIES.—"Intersectional Relations," Chairman Christopher B. Coleman, Secretary of the Conference of Historical Societies, Indianapolis, Ind. "Church Records as Sources of Movements of Population," Joseph Schafer, State Historical Society of Wisconsin. Discussion, led by Mrs. Charles M. Morris, Milwaukee, Wis. "Examination of a Typical Church Record," William H. Allison, Colgate University. "Recent Historical Expeditions in the Northwest," Samuel Elliot Morison, Harvard University.

12.30 p. m. Luncheon conference.—"Modern European History." Chairman, Archibald Cary Coolidge, Harvard University. "Diplomatic Documents and the Student of Modern European History," W. E. Lingelbach, University of Pennsylvania. "Problems of Research in the Economic and Social History of France During the Revolution," H. E. Bourne, Western Reserve University.

2.30 p. m. General session.—"American History." Chairman, Frederic Lincoln Thompson, Amherst College. "Preparedness in the Revolutionary Period," C. H. Van Tyne, University of Michigan. "The Adjustment of Educational Ideals and Practices to Eighteenth Century America," R. F. Seybolt, University of Illinois. "Some Significant Factors in the History of the American Churches," W. W. Sweet, DePauw University.

6 p. m. Dinner.—"Hispanic-American History. Symposium—Means and Methods of widening among Colleges and Universities an Interest in the Study of Hispanic-American History," Chairman, J. A. Robertson, Hispanic-American Historical Review.

8.15 p. m. General Session.—"Modern European History." Chairman, Sidney B. Fay, Smith College. "From Fashoda to the Entente Cordiale," Frank Maloy Anderson, Dartmouth College. "Some Contributions of Herder to the Doctrine of Nationalism," Carlton J. H. Hayes, Columbia University. "The Nineteenth Century Reconsidered," Bernadotte E. Schmitt, University of Chicago.

MINUTES OF THE ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING, HELD AT THE HOTEL SENECA, ROCHESTER, N. Y., DECEMBER 29, 1926

The meeting was called to order by President Dana C. Munro.

The report of the secretary for council was presented by Dr. Leo F. Stock and accepted.

The treasurer presented his report which was referred to the audit committee, who later reported through Mr. Sontag that they had examined the report and found it correct. Supplementing his report, Mr. Moore stated that $10,000 had been advanced by Mr. Benjamin for purposes of the endowment campaign.

Mr. Payson J. Treat presented the report of the Pacific Coast Branch which was accepted.

The treasurer presented the following budget for 1927 which, by a vote of the meeting, was approved:

BUDGET, 1927

RECEIPTS

Annual dues.....	$14,000
Interest on endowment and on bank balances.....	5,000
Royalties.....	50
Publications.....	100
Registration fees.....	200
Government appropriation for printing report.....	7,000
Grant from commonwealth fund for committee on history teaching.....	3,000
Miscellaneous.....	25
	<hr/>
	29,375
	<hr/>

DISBURSEMENTS

Office of secretary and treasurer.....	3,700
Pacific Coast Branch.....	400
Committees on management:
Committee on nominations.....	100
Committee on membership.....	100
Committee on program.....	500
Committee on local arrangements.....	150
Executive council.....	500
Endowment fund.....	5,000
Treasurer's contingent fund.....	200