Achieve for History

Everything you wish for in a full course solution

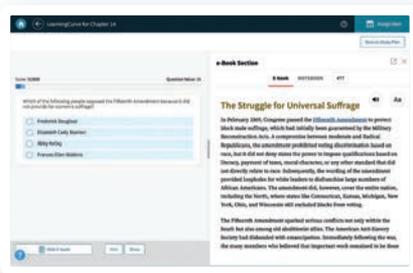

Developed with extensive feedback from instructors and students, Achieve's comprehensive suite of interconnected teaching and learning tools support your course however you wish to teach it.

Wish it was easy to integrate online courseware into your current LMS?

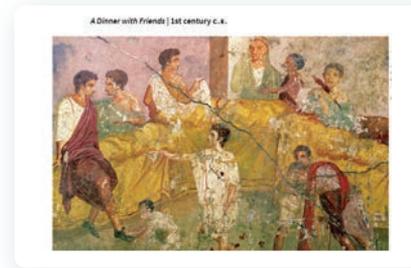

With both pre-built assignments and à la carte, curated history resources easily accessible within your LMS or our platform, Achieve is ready to help you deploy and manage the course as you'd like to teach it.

Wish your students did the reading before class?

LearningCurve adaptive quizzing gives each student the support they need for reading assignments, with individualized quizzes and feedback for incorrect answers, all linked to relevant sections of the e-book.

Wish your students knew how to critically interpret historical sources?

Achieve for History is rich with primary sources for each title, with activities that ask students to think critically about their context and meaning (source-based quizzing, map-based questions, and more.)

Wish your students had a way to practice essential history study skills?

Available in Achieve, the Bedford Tutorials in History help you get students up to speed with basic skills for your course – without taking up valuable class time .

Wish you had a clearer view of barriers to learning?

Achieve's analytics help you pinpoint content and skills your students are struggling to grasp. You can see how they're doing individually or as a whole class, and plan lectures and assignment accordingly.

The 136th annual meeting of the Association will be held January 5–8, 2023, in Philadelphia. More than 1,500 scholars will participate in the four-day meeting. In addition, 43 specialized societies and organizations have scheduled sessions and events in partnership with the Association. AHA awards and honors will be announced on Thursday, January 5, followed by a plenary session. James H. Sweet, University of Wisconsin–Madison, will deliver the presidential address on Friday, January 6.

Land Acknowledgment

The American Historical Association recognizes and acknowledges that Philadelphia stands on the Indigenous territory known as “Lenapehoking,” the traditional homelands of the Lenape, also called Lenni-Lenape or Delaware Indians. These are the people who, during the 1680s, negotiated with William Penn to facilitate the founding of the colony of Pennsylvania. Their descendants today include the Delaware Tribe and Delaware Nation of Oklahoma; the Nanticoke Lenni-Lenape, Ramapough Lenape, and Powhatan Renape of New Jersey; and the Munsee Delaware of Ontario.

Hotel Accommodations

The AHA has reserved blocks of rooms at the following hotels:

	Single	Double	Triple	Quadruple
Philadelphia Marriott Downtown (hdqtrs.) 1201 Market St.	$169	$199	$229	$259
Loews Philadelphia Hotel 1200 Market St.	$149	$174	$199	$224
Notary Hotel, Autograph Collection 21 N. Juniper St.	$164	$194	$224	$254
Marriott Residence Inn Center City 1 E. Penn Sq.	$169	$199	N/A	N/A

Please see Hotels and Travel (historians.org/hotels) on the AHA website for details.

Making a Hotel Reservation

Attendees should reserve a room through the AHA’s housing service, Maritz Global Events. Attendees will be able to make reservations online through a link on the AHA website or by calling 864-641-1557. International registrants may call 864-641-1557. Attendees interested in reserving suites should email AHA@maritz.com for more information about suite types and rates.

Reservation Dates

Reservations can be made by internet or phone between September 15 and December 13, 2022. The last day to make or change reservations through the housing service is December 13, 2022. After that date, remaining inventory in each hotel’s block will be released and rates are no longer guaranteed. After December 13, all reservations, changes, and cancellations must be made directly with the hotels.

Credit Card Guarantee

All reservations must be guaranteed with a major credit card or deposit of one night’s room rate and taxes. Cancellations must be made 72 hours prior to the scheduled arrival date or hotels will charge a cancellation fee of one night’s room and tax.

Meeting Registration

Take advantage of reduced rates by preregistering for the conference. Make sure your membership is up to date so you can enjoy member pricing at each level. Register online at historians.org/register.

Advance registration must be completed by midnight on December 15, 2022. After that, onsite rates will apply. Registration materials, including badges, will be distributed at the meeting during registration hours, posted on page vi.

Everyone attending the meeting must register. In addition, all US historians presenting at AHA sessions must be AHA members. Admission to the Exhibit Hall requires a registration badge.

Health and Safety

The AHA and our meeting hotels are working together to follow Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) guidelines to make attendance at the meeting as safe as possible. We expect that all attendees will have up-to-date vaccinations at the time of the meeting. Masks will be required in the meeting space. Attendees should comply with all mask and social distancing rules and guidelines established by the AHA, which will follow CDC guidance as well as any additional requirements set by the conference hotels and the local government. We will regularly update members on health and safety guidelines via our website. See historians.org/AHA23-health-and-safety for the latest information.

Refund Policy

Advance registrants who are unable to attend the meeting may request a refund of their registration fee. Cancellations and refund requests should be submitted by December 15, 2022. Refunds will be processed less a $20 administrative fee. No refunds will be issued for requests received after December 15, 2022. Refunds will not be given for no-shows. Cancellations and refund requests should be emailed to ltownsend@historians.org. Proof of payment may also be required.

Accessibility Information

Find general information and resources at visitphilly.com/features/accessible-philadelphia/#getting-around

All meeting hotels have accessible lobbies with at least one entrance with auto-slide doors; door-service personnel are available at other entrances. Thresholds and doormats comply with American with Disabilities Act (ADA) regulations. Lobbies have marble floors and/or low-pile area carpeting. Elevators connect all levels of each property. Each elevator has a wheelchair-accessible keypad. Elevators either have audible announcements or Braille numerals beside each control button. Restrooms in lobbies and on meeting room floors are wheelchair accessible and have tactile signage.

All hotels have accessible registration desks or provide clipboards to guests to complete registration documentation. All hotels have accessible guest rooms.

The number of such rooms at each property is noted in the listing below. Among other amenities, these rooms feature wheelchair-accessible doors, lever door handles, security peepholes, ample room space, grab bars in restrooms, low sinks with insulated pipes, accessible towel racks, and accessible mirrors. The following auxiliary aids are available at most properties: flashing fire alarm, doorbell, and telephone; vibrating alarm clock; closed-caption decoders; Braille signage; and TDD telephones.

Philadelphia Marriott Downtown

The entrance at 1200 Filbert Street (currently the main entrance) has side doors with auto-openers.

Parking: Valet parking only; get in touch with the hotel about possible accommodations.

Guest Rooms: The hotel has 70 accessible rooms, of which 30 have roll-in showers.

Meeting Rooms: All meeting rooms are accessible.

Loews Philadelphia Hotel

The main entrance at 1200 Market Street has a door with an auto-opener, followed by a revolving door with a “Push to Slow” button. All entryways at the valet entrance on 12th Street have automatic stationary doors. There are double doors with auto-open buttons next to the main entrance with revolving doors on Market Street, but the doors are only useable while the hotel restaurant is open (Thursday and Friday: 7 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. to 10 p.m., Saturday and Sunday: 7 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 5 p.m. to 10 p.m.).

Parking: Valet parking only; get in touch with the hotel about possible accommodations.

Guest Rooms: The hotel has 20 accessible rooms, of which 6 have roll-in showers.

Meeting Rooms: All meeting rooms are accessible.

Notary Hotel, Autograph Collection

The main entrance to the Notary Hotel has an auto-opener.

Parking: Valet parking only.

Guest Rooms: The hotel has accessible rooms, including rooms with roll-in showers; please contact Maritz or the hotel for additional information.

Meeting Rooms: All meeting rooms are accessible.

Marriott Residence Inn Center City

The hotel's main entrance is accessible.

Parking: Valet-only parking available.

Guest Rooms: The hotel has accessible rooms, including rooms with roll-in showers. Please contact Maritz or the hotel for more information.

Accessible Transportation

Many of the region's SEPTA stations for rail, subway, trolley, or bus are wheelchair accessible. Every bus has a lift or ramp and can be lowered to street level. Regional Rail cars and stations are also wheelchair accessible.

All taxi dispatchers must accept requests for wheelchair-accessible vehicles and coordinate service calls with other dispatchers. Information on accessible transportation to and from the airport can be found at phl.org/about/accessibility/ground-transportation.

For more information about accessible transportation in Philadelphia, see visitphilly.com/features/accessible-philadelphia/#getting-around.

Scooter and wheelchair rentals are available by contacting ScootAround (888-441-7575, www.scootaround.com).

Service Animals Welcome

The American Historical Association is committed to making the annual meeting accessible. Service animals are welcome at all events, sessions, and venues. The ADA protects the right of people with disabilities to be accompanied by trained service animals in public places. Remember, not all disabilities are visible and service animals are not required to wear special equipment or tags. Service animals are working and should not be distracted without permission.

Fragrance

Please help us to accommodate attendees who are sensitive to fragrances by refraining from wearing scented products.

Sign Interpreting

Members with hearing impairment who will need sign-interpreting service at the AHA annual meeting must notify the AHA and register for the meeting by November 1, 2022. The request should include the sessions they plan to attend. The AHA will secure the services of appropriate interpreters. The AHA will assume the cost for up to nine hours of sign language interpreting service per member.

An interpreter may also be provided upon request for the presidential address (Friday, January 6) and the annual business meeting (Saturday, January 7).

Assistive listening devices are also available on request.

Please contact annualmeeting@historians.org by November 1, 2022, if you would like to request an interpreter or assistive listening device.

Other Resources

US Department of Transportation's New Horizons: Information for the Air Traveler with a Disability (www.transportation.gov/airconsumer/new-horizons-information-air-traveler-disability).

Code of Professional Conduct

The AHA is committed to creating and maintaining a harassment-free environment for all participants in the Association's activities, regardless of their actual or perceived sex, gender, gender expression, gender identity, sexual orientation, marital status, race, ethnicity, nationality, ability, socioeconomic status, veteran status, age, or religion. All members and participants, including employers, contractors, vendors, volunteers, and guests, are expected to engage in consensual and respectful behavior and to preserve AHA's standard of professionalism at all times. The policy pertains to all venues where officially sanctioned AHA conferences, meetings, and other activities occur.

Details, including procedures for addressing violations of the statement, are posted at historians.org/conduct.

Recording Policy

The AHA and the press occasionally record sessions for use in broadcast and electronic media, and film or photograph public areas at the meeting. Registration, attendance, or participation at the meeting constitutes an agreement to the use of the attendee's image in photographs, video, audio, and electronic communications. Presenters who do not wish for their session to be recorded may opt out by contacting annualmeeting@historians.org. In order to encourage open debate and allow members to speak as freely as possible, the AHA does not permit audio or video recording of its business meeting. Anyone who wishes to conduct audio or video recording must obtain permission from participants in advance. The AHA is not responsible for unauthorized recording but does reserve the right to revoke registration of anyone who records sessions without appropriate permissions.

Live Tweeting

To facilitate virtual conversations arising from the annual meeting, the AHA encourages attendees to live tweet using #AHA23. Participants are encouraged to share their Twitter handles. Speakers presenting material that they do not wish to be live tweeted should make a request to the audience at the beginning of their presentations.

Quiet Room

The AHA will make a quiet room available in Room 401 of the Philadelphia Marriott Downtown and the Tubman Room at the Loews Philadelphia Hotel. The rooms are available for all conference attendees as a place to sit for a few minutes of quiet time. Please do not make phone calls in the quiet rooms.

Multifaith Room

A private space for faith practice or meditation will be available at the Philadelphia Marriott Downtown in Room 301. Please note this is not limited to silent observation.

All-Gender Restrooms

All are welcome to use the restroom that best fits their identity. All-gender restrooms will be available at the Philadelphia Marriott Downtown on the fifth floor, at the Loews Hotel Philadelphia on the third floor, and at the Notary Hotel on the first floor.

Nursing Room

Nursing rooms will be located in Room 301 at the Philadelphia Marriott Downtown and in the P1 Parlor at the Loews Hotel Philadelphia. Access to the nursing room at the Loews Hotel requires a keycard, which you can obtain from meeting staff. The rooms are equipped with comfortable furniture and a private area for nursing.

Childcare

Grants to subsidize childcare are available by application. Please visit historians.org/childcaregrants for more information.

Formal childcare services will not be provided at the meeting. Attendees should make arrangements directly with a provider prior to arriving in Philadelphia (some options are noted below). The AHA assumes no responsibility with respect to these services and accepts no liabilities related to the services provided.

Sittercity.com

Child Registration Policy

Parents and guardians whose children, 15 years old and younger, will accompany them to the meeting may bring their own child into the Exhibit Hall at no extra charge. Attendees ages 16 and up must register at the appropriate registration rate. The AHA assumes that parents and guardians will provide appropriate supervision for their children.

Business Meeting

The AHA Council, divisions, and committees will report to the Association at the annual business meeting. Reports are subject to discussion and appropriate motions relating to them. Resolutions on other matters for the business meeting will be handled as follows: Resolutions must be in proper parliamentary form; must be signed by members of the Association in good standing and by at least 2% of the total Association membership as of the end of the previous fiscal year (232 people); must not be more than 300 words in length including any introductory material; and must deal with a matter of concern to the Association or to the discipline of history. Such resolutions must be in accord with the Association's Guiding Principles on Taking a Public Stance (historians.org/public-stance). Organizers of resolutions are encouraged to consult with members of the AHA Council prior to the submission deadline for guidance on adherence to AHA constitution and bylaws. Resolutions must be submitted to the executive director by October 1 and include the name(s) and contact information for the resolution organizers.

Only AHA members and others who receive permission from the Council may attend the business meeting. Please confirm in advance that your membership is up to date.

Affiliated Societies

A table in the Exhibit Hall has been set aside during normal hours for affiliated societies to display materials and to meet with members of the profession on a rotating schedule. Check the online program for the schedule.

Community Space and Continuing Conversations

Those interested in holding an informal conversation with colleagues during the annual meeting can arrange a gathering in our community space. The AHA has set aside space for small group conversations about historical and professional issues. See historians.org/meetups for details.

For the first time, we will hold a closing session on Sunday, January 8, at 12:30 p.m., where attendees will come together for small group conversations about our time learning together at the annual meeting. See p. 73 and historians.org/meetups for details.

Meet Your Collaborators

Collaborating with a group of people that would like to meet face to face? The AHA can provide members registered for the meeting with a room for small group meetings during the conference—for example for board meetings, focus groups, or collaborative projects. See historians.org/meetups for details.

Transportation in Philadelphia

See historians.org/annual-meeting for complete details about transportation, including discounts for AHA members and attendees.

Tours Organized by the Local Arrangements Committee

The Local Arrangements Committee has organized three tours highlighting the historical resources of Philadelphia. Participants will have a unique opportunity to take these tours with their fellow historians.

Preregistration for tours is highly recommended. Tour tickets are nonrefundable and cannot be exchanged. Tour participants must be registered for the AHA meeting. Log in at historians.org/myaha to add tickets to an existing registration.

Tour groups will meet in Room 308 at the Philadelphia Marriott Downtown.

Tours travel by bus or walk. Fares and admission fees are included in the price of the tour. See the tour descriptions for details about the accessibility of each tour site. Accessible buses or alternate transportation for people with disabilities will be available on request. Contact annualmeeting@historians.org for additional information.

LOCAL ARRANGEMENTS COMMITTEE TOUR

Thursday, January 5, 10:00–11:45 a.m.

Tour 1: Eastern State Penitentiary

Philadelphia Marriott Downtown, Room 308

Tour leaders: Museum staff

Eastern State Penitentiary Historic Site interprets the legacy of American criminal justice reform, from the nation's founding through to the present day, within the long-abandoned cellblocks of the nation's most historic prison. Once the most famous and expensive prison in the world, Eastern State was the world's first true "penitentiary," a prison designed to inspire penitence, or true regret, in the hearts of prisoners. The tour highlights Eastern State's 142-year history, revolutionary and influential architecture, and stories of people who lived and worked in the building while setting the stage for conversations about criminal justice reform today.

Please note: The tour route meets most ADA guidelines, but some areas of the historic property are not accessible. See easternstate.org/access for details. Terrain in the indoor and outdoor spaces can occasionally be uneven. The building is not climate controlled, so please dress for the weather.

Limit 25 people. $35 members, $45 nonmembers

45. Historians for Mental Health: An Open Discussion

Loews Philadelphia Hotel, Washington Room C

Organized by the AHA Professional Division

This session will be an opportunity for people interested in the role of mental health in the lives of historians to come together in a supportive atmosphere to discuss challenges and opportunities. Mental illness is common, difficult, and hidden. Stigma discourages people dealing with mental health concerns from seeking treatment and making their conditions public. Our goal is to acknowledge its frequency and reduce its difficulties by opening a discussion about mental health and its impact on our profession. We hope those who have experienced mental illness, advisors, department chairs, partners, friends, and those who want to show support for the cause will join us. In order to encourage open discussion, we request that members of the press do not attend.

WORKSHOP

Friday, January 6, 9:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m.

Grading Writing Charrette

Philadelphia Marriott Downtown, Grand Ballroom Salon J

Organized by the AHA Teaching Division

Bring one of your writing assignments, a grading rubric, and at least one sample of student work, and discuss with colleagues how to adjust your teaching of writing, how to improve the feedback you give to students, and how to make your grading both more efficient and more useful. This workshop also aims to foster conversations on student writing across levels of instruction and, in particular, encourage collaboration between high school teachers and college professors.

For details on how to participate, visit historians.org/aha23-charrettes.

Sara Rzeszutek, Saint Francis College91. LGBTQ+ History Research Lightning SessionPhiladelphia Marriott Downtown, Grand Ballroom Salon A*

Organized by the AHA Committee on LGBTQ Status in the Profession

Working on an article, master's thesis, dissertation, or book? In this alternative session, participants are invited to share their research with others in a format drawn from digital humanities un-conference "dork shorts." Rather than have formal presentations or a roundtable, audience members are invited to come to the podium and present a timed, three-minute presentation about their research. Presentations will continue for as long as there are audience members who wish to present; the organizers will then create discussion groups organized around larger queer history topics that will take up the remainder of the session. These groups are designed to help scholars make connections with each other and share information: attendees may choose any group they like and migrate from discussion to discussion.

All annual meeting participants are invited to attend, and no audience member is required to participate. That said, graduate students and early scholars are urged to take the plunge and present, particularly if they are just embarking on graduate or new research, or beginning a book project, and established scholars are urged to attend to both present and learn about how the discipline of LGBTQ+ history is evolving.

92. Digital Drop-In Session*Philadelphia Marriott Downtown, Grand Ballroom Salon I*

Organized by the AHA Digital History Working Group

Have questions about how to use digital tools in your teaching or research? Have a question about a digital tool? Interested in learning about the latest digital history projects? Stop by the Digital Project Showcase from 1:30 to 3:00 to see examples of digital projects and stay for the Digital Drop-in Session from 3:30 to 5:00 to ask a question of one of our knowledgeable digital historians.

WORKSHOP

Saturday, January 7, 9:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m.

K–16 Educators' Workshop: Exploring Collective and Collected Memory*Philadelphia Marriott Downtown, Grand Ballroom Salon J*

Sponsored by the Advanced Placement Program of the College Board

The Library of Congress website (www.loc.gov) contains literally millions of digitized primary sources in a variety of media that are free to use. The materials can present multiple perspectives on a single event, and they can reveal holes in the historical narrative. They can contribute to our understanding of collective memory and how it is formed, and they can help us understand collected memory—how what gets collected, and what does not, influences our understanding of the past. In this hands-on workshop, Library of Congress education specialists will share select examples of sources from newly digitized collections to engage participants in classroom strategies that explore both collective and collected memory. Specialists will also provide tips and strategies for finding compelling and useful materials in the Library's extensive digitized collections; as well as information about the Library's Of the People: Widening the Path initiative and Teaching with Primary Sources grants.

No charge; because space is limited, free advance registration is required.

206. State of the Field for Busy Teachers: World History*Philadelphia Marriott Downtown, Grand Ballroom Salon B*

Organized by the AHA Teaching Division

The second annual “State of the Field for Busy Teachers” will again feature two components: the first part will be a keynote by a scholarly expert who will present the latest historiographical interpretations, new lines of inquiry, current debates, new primary sources being used, and even new periodizations to consider. The second part will be a moderated discussion, led by a high school teacher and a community college instructor, who will query the scholar about how to incorporate new research into the classroom. Teachers attending the session will be invited into the conversation by the moderators. We envision a lively exchange in which all participants can walk away with new insights and resources. This year’s topic is World History.

FILM SCREENING

Saturday, January 7, 6:00–8:00 p.m.

Film Screening: John O'Connor Film Award Winner, Documentary: How the Monuments Came Down

Philadelphia Marriott Downtown, Grand Ballroom Salon A

Hannah Ayers and Lance Warren, directors (Field Studio, in association with Virginia Public Media, 2021)

Taking the confederate statues erected on Monument Avenue in Richmond, Virginia and their removal as its subject, How the Monuments Came Down shows how these statues shored up white supremacy and how Black people contested those regimes over almost 160 years. This story emerges compellingly through the voices of historians, activists, descendants, and community members. Rather than a triumphant narrative of justice achieved the film proposes that the project of racial liberation is an ongoing, unfinished project.

Maureen Elgersman Lee, College of William and Mary, will introduce the film and lead a discussion afterward.

Op-Ed Workshop

Philadelphia Marriott Downtown, Grand Ballroom Salon L

Organized by the AHA Research Division

Writing short articles for the general public is an important skill in the historian's toolkit. From newspaper op-eds to magazine articles to blog posts, there are many publications where historians can share their research, connect it with current events or popular culture, and reach new readers. This workshop will include two parts. A panel of experienced editors and writers will begin the session by discussing how to pitch, write, and edit op-eds meant for a general audience. In the second part, small groups will be able to workshop their own ideas for short-form writing with each other and the experts.

No charge; because space is limited, free advance registration is required.

- Chair: Laura Ansley, American Historical Association
- Panel: Bryan Banks, Columbus State University and Age of Revolutions
 Jelani Cobb, Columbia Journalism School and The New Yorker
 Maura Elizabeth Cunningham, Association for Asian Studies
 Francine Hirsch, University of Wisconsin–Madison

Writing Beyond the Academy: How to Secure a Commercial Book Deal

Philadelphia Marriott Downtown, Grand Ballroom Salon K

This workshop is for historians for historians interested in understanding the process of finding an agent, securing a commercial book deal, writing in a more accessible register, and other skills related to making the transition into writing for the general public.

Participation is by application only, and will be limited to 50. Apply by filling out the following form by December 1: airtable.com/shrQt1kgo2LwFmzV2.

- Chair: John Ghazvinian, University of Pennsylvania

Sunday, January 8, 9:00 a.m.–1:00 p.m.

Assignment Charrette and Course Syllabus Workshop

Notary Hotel, Autograph Collection, Juniper Ballroom

Please join us for a hands-on half-day workshop to explore the roles that assignments can play in history classes. This workshop is part of the AHA's History Gateways initiative to rethink introductory history courses. We will discuss how to create a course syllabus that communicates the instructor's expectations to students but also enhances their engagement and learning. We will spend the first half of the morning working in small groups on participants' assignments, which will be precirculated, then turn to a guided consideration of what a syllabus can be.

Preregistration required; lunch provided. For details on how to participate, visit historians.org/aha23-charrettes.

LOCAL ARRANGEMENTS COMMITTEE TOUR

Sunday, January 8, 9:45–11:15 a.m.

Tour 3: Smellwalk Philadelphia

Philadelphia Marriott Downtown, Room 308

Tour Leader: Kate McLean, University of Kent

A smellwalk is a sensewalk, a methodological tool that foregrounds alternative sensory modalities; the visual and auditory are removed from center stage and the olfactory sense is highlighted. As a qualitative method developed in urban studies to understand the physical and cognitive experience of being within a particular environment, the smellwalk frequently elicits a change in participants' knowledge of their neighborhood, and of their own sense of smell.

Building in the ideas discussed in Session 183 (p. 55), this group smellwalk embraces the complexity of everyday smellscape, enabling their constituent, ephemeral smells to be determined. During Smellwalk Philadelphia, participants will be encouraged to use their own noses to detect, differentiate and describe the smells of the contemporary urban landscape and imagine historical parallel odors.

The planned route starts at Washington Square and then follows footpaths through Independence Square to the Liberty Bell. The second stage goes along Ranstead Street and to Benjamin Franklin's former home. The final stage follows Market Street east past local restaurants to end at The Franklin Fountain. Participants are encouraged to connect contemporary smellscape with historical ones.

Smellwalk Philadelphia will be led by Kate McLean, a British designer who creates visual maps of urban smellscape (sensorymaps.com).

Please note: Participants with travel by bus to and from the start and end points of the approximately one-mile walking tour.

Limit 20 people. $25 members, $30 nonmembers

CLOSING EVENT

Sunday, January 8, 12:30–1:30 p.m.

Continuing Conversations

Philadelphia Marriott Downtown, Grand Ballroom Salon E

Join us for informal small group conversations about our time learning together at the annual meeting. Meet with others in your field to discuss new ideas you learned about, old ideas you gained a new perspective on, ideas that excited you, and more. What conversations would you like to continue, throughout the year and at the annual meeting next year in San Francisco?

Have an idea for a topic you would like to discuss at the session, or a group of colleagues you would like to gather for a conversation? Stop by the AHA booth during Exhibit Hall hours to propose a table topic.

Don't miss annual meeting news & updates!

Late-breaking sessions & plenary

Check the AHA website for important updates about our late-breaking plenary and late-breaking meeting sessions, which allow historians to respond to current events or recent controversies within the discipline.

See historians.org/program for more information.

Call for Proposals for the 137th Annual Meeting of the American Historical Association

The AHA's annual meeting is the largest yearly gathering of historians in the United States.

All historians are welcome and encouraged to submit proposals. The AHA also invites historically focused proposals from colleagues in related disciplines and from AHA affiliated societies. The Program Committee will consider all proposals that advance the study, teaching, and public presentation of history.

The Association seeks submissions on the histories of all places, periods, people, and topics; on the uses of diverse sources and methods, including digital history; and on theory and the uses of history itself in a wide variety of venues.

We invite proposals for sessions in a variety of formats and encourage lively interaction among presenters and with the audience.

Session Proposals

Sessions last for 90 minutes. Most sessions will be limited to four speakers plus a chair. The Program Committee will accept proposals for complete sessions only. We encourage organizers to build sessions that bring together diverse perspectives.

Poster Proposals

The meeting will feature a poster session to allow historians to share their research through visual materials. Proposals for single, individual presentations may be submitted as posters.

The Program Committee welcomes proposals from all historians, whatever their institutional affiliation or status, and historians working outside the United States. With the exception of foreign scholars and those from other disciplines, all persons appearing on the program must be members of the AHA, although membership is not required to submit a proposal. All participants must register for the meeting when registration opens. The Association aspires to represent the full diversity of its membership at the annual meeting.

Electronic submission only, by midnight PST on February 15, 2023

Before applying, please review the annual meeting guidelines and more information at historians.org/proposals.

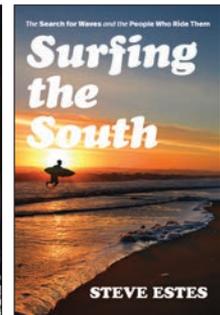

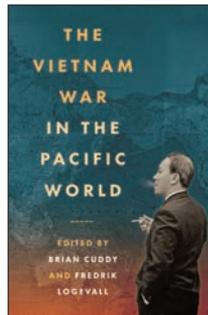

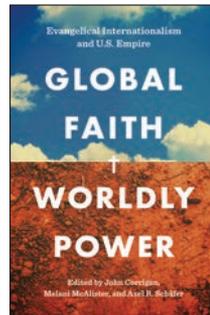

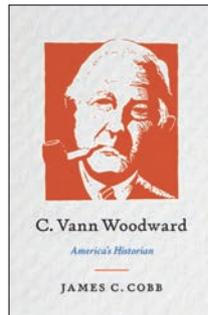

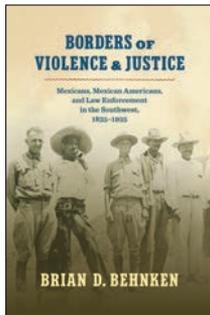

Questions about policies, modes of presentation, and the electronic submission process?

Contact annualmeeting@historians.org.

Questions about the content of proposals?

Contact Program Committee chair Amy B. Stanley, Northwestern University (a-stanley@northwestern.edu) and co-chair A. K. Sandoval-Strausz, Penn State University (sandoval@psu.edu).

NEW FROM NORTON HISTORY

AMERICAN HISTORY

Give Me Liberty!

Full, Brief, and Seagull Editions • 7E
ERIC FONER • KATHLEEN DuVAL •
LISA MCGIRR

Eric Foner welcomes acclaimed scholars Kathleen DuVal and Lisa McGirr as co-authors. Together, they have enhanced coverage of Native American history with an emphasis on how it refines our understanding of freedom—the book's urgent guiding theme. New pedagogical tools, including a guided interactive reading experience, are designed to help students get the most out of this beloved text.

 AVAILABLE AS AN ASSIGNABLE
NORTON ILLUMINE EBOOK

These Truths: A History of the United States

Inquiry Edition
JILL LEPORE

In an absorbing, character-driven narrative, acclaimed historian Jill Lepore engages the urgent question of how well the nation has lived up to its founding ideals. Now expanded into a two-volume textbook, the Inquiry Edition is a new kind of history text—one that highlights the importance of analyzing evidence and practicing historical inquiry to help students develop civic skills relevant to their lives far beyond the course.

The Essential Learning Edition • 3E
DAVID SHI

David Shi's rich storytelling style, colorful biographical sketches, and vivid first-person quotations puts narrative front and center. These editions further reflect our society and our students today by continuing to incorporate diverse voices into the narrative with a focus on Latino/a history in the new editions. The Essential Learning Edition surrounds these stories with a framework that guides reading and develops the skills required for analyzing primary and secondary sources.

EUROPEAN HISTORY

Western Civilizations

Full Edition • 21E | Brief Edition • 6E
JOSHUA COLE • CAROL SYMES

In this timely revision of their beloved #1 Western Civ text, the authors help students think critically about the emergence of Western ideals, such as democracy and equality, and their intersection with the invention of race and other forms of difference.

WORLD HISTORY

Worlds Together, Worlds Apart

With Sources • 6E
Concise and Seagull Editions • 3E
ADELMAN • POLLARD • TIGNOR

The authors provide a compelling chronological foundation for world history in this college market leading text. A global theme frames each chapter, making thousands of years of history less daunting for students and instructors. New lead authors and master teachers Jeremy Adelman and Elizabeth Pollard distill cutting-edge scholarship with a focus on introductory students.

The Webs of Humankind: A World History

Full and Seagull Editions • 1E
J.R. McNEILL

McNeill uses connective webs—along which trade, religious beliefs, technologies, pathogens, and much else traveled—to organize details and keep the big picture in view. Instructors have hailed McNeill's approach as “integrative” and “accessible,” and students call the book “easy-to-absorb” and “fun to read.”

HISTORY THROUGH THEIR EYES

As a partner to academic libraries, Gale is excited to help power your institution's equity, diversity, and inclusion (EDI) initiatives with interdisciplinary Gale Primary Sources digital archives that share marginalized voices witnessing history as it unfolded.

Visit gale.com/primary-sources to learn about new digital collections for student and faculty researchers, including those in gender studies, LGBTQ studies, and much more—and how to incorporate them into digital humanities research programs with Gale Digital Scholar Lab. Together, let's explore how digitization of these rare accounts leads to discovery of new narratives in diversity.

Achieve for History

New for 2023!

New editions of Bedford/St. Martin's acclaimed history survey texts (Roark, The American Promise and Wiesner-Hanks, A History of Western Society) are available now in Macmillan Learning's ACHIEVE. In addition, recent editions of other titles shown here are now also available in the Achieve platform.

Now all survey titles for U.S. History, Western Civilization, and World History can be enhanced with Achieve's comprehensive suite of interconnected teaching and learning tools, all in an exceptionally powerful yet convenient platform that is easily integrated into your current learning management system.
