The 129th annual meeting of the Association will be held January 2–5, 2015, in New York City, at the New York Hilton Midtown and the Sheraton New York Times Square. Many of the AHA's most distinguished members will be present to deliver papers and more than 1,500 scholars will participate in the four-day meeting. In addition, 43 specialized societies and organizations will meet in conjunction with the AHA. Societies have scheduled sessions and luncheons in partnership with the Association. AHA awards and honors will be announced on Friday, January 2, followed by the plenary session. Jan E. Goldstein, University of Chicago, will deliver the presidential address on January 3.

Accommodations

The AHA has reserved substantial blocks of rooms at the New York Hilton Midtown and the Sheraton New York Times Square, with a smaller block at the Manhattan at Times Square. The hotels are located in midtown Manhattan between Central Park and Times Square.

The New York Hilton (newyorkhiltonhotel.com; 212-586-7000), located at 1335 Avenue of the Americas (Sixth Avenue) between West 53rd and West 54th Streets, will serve as headquarters and will house the AHA Exhibit Hall, Job Center, and AHA and affiliate sessions. The Sheraton New York (www.sheratonnewyork.com; 212-581-1000), at 811 Seventh Avenue between 52nd and 53rd Streets, will serve as co-headquarters and will accommodate AHA sessions and affiliate events. The side entrances of the Hilton and Sheraton are directly across the street from each other. The Manhattan at Times Square (www.manhattanhoteltimesquare.com; 212-581-3300), located at 790 Seventh Avenue across the street from the Sheraton, has a block of 250 rooms. The Manhattan's guestrooms offer free WiFi for up to 4 devices.

Rates at the Hilton and Sheraton are $169 and $149 single and $169 double; the additional person charge is $30. The rate at the Manhattan is $119 single and double for a king room with one bed and $149 for singles and doubles requesting two beds; the triple and quad rate is also $149. The Manhattan's lower, $119 rate is in effect up to housing cut off (December 10, 2014); thereafter, rates will be the same as the Hilton and Sheraton. All properties are non-smoking.

All rooms are subject to 14.75 percent city and state taxes, plus a 5.875 percent per room, per night New York City occupancy tax (subject to change without notice). Rates are in effect three days before and after the meeting dates, and are for a limited number of rooms only at each property.

Making a Hotel Reservation

Once preregistered for the annual meeting, attendees will receive a confirmation of their registration that will include information on how to make a standard room or suite reservation. Attendees will be able to make reservations via each hotel's customized web site or toll-free number. There will also be a direct-dial number for international attendees to call. Throughout the fall members can consult the AHA's web site (www.historians.org/annual) for complete details of each property's suite types and rates.

Acknowledgement

Hotel reservation acknowledgements are available via e-mail or mail. Acknowledgements will be e-mailed when e-mail addresses are provided unless otherwise indicated. All processing deadlines and cancellation policies are noted on acknowledgements. A reservation ID number will be provided on the acknowledgement.

Early Departure Fee

Some hotels have an early departure fee. Guests wishing to avoid an early checkout fee should advise the hotel at or before check-in of any change in planned length of stay. Hotels will inform attendees of this potential charge upon check-in.

Credit Card Guarantee

All hotels require a credit card to guarantee the reservation, or one night's room rate and taxes if payment is to be by check. Credit cards must be valid through January 31, 2015. Major credit cards (MasterCard, Diners Club, Visa, American Express, and Discover) are accepted.

Cutoff Date

The cutoff date for the AHA's official block at all hotels is December 10, 2014. After this date, remaining inventory in each hotel's block will be released and rooms will be available at the AHA's convention rates on a space-available basis at the time of reservation. If hotel blocks sell out, the AHA will secure additional hotel rooms and post details on the AHA web site.

Changes, Cancellations, and New Reservations

Meeting attendees can continue to make and modify (depending on availability) or cancel reservations until a few days before their arrival. Each hotel has its own cancellation policy, which can vary from 24 hours to 72 hours prior to the reserved arrival date. If cancelled after this window, one night's room and taxes will be charged.

If a reservation is not cancelled and the individual is a "no show," the hotels will charge one night's room and taxes as a penalty.

Information and Accommodations for Persons with Disabilities

General Information and Resources

New York City is one of the most accessible cities in the world for visitors with disabilities. NYC & Company, the city's convention and tourism bureau, offers the free Official Accessibility Guide (www.nyc.gov/html/mopd/downloads/pdf/accessibility\_guide.pdf), which includes detailed accessibility information for many attractions and restaurants. The guide can be accessed by screen reader users.

New York City Transit's Access-a-Ride provides transportation for people with disabilities who are unable to use public bus or subway service. It offers shared ride, door-to-door paratransit service. It operates 24 hours a day, seven days a week, including holidays. There is an application process, so arrangements must be made in advance of arrival in New York City. Visit www.NYC.gov and search for "Access-a-Ride."

Scooter rentals are available by contacting ScootAround Inc., toll-free at 888-441-7575, by e-mail at info@scootaround.com, or online at www.scootaround.com.

The U.S. Department of Transportation's Aviation Consumer Protection and Enforcement has an online guide, New Horizons: Information for the Air Traveler with a Disability (airconsumer.ost.dot.gov/publications/horizons.htm). This site also explains how to file a complaint with the department.

A general resource is Barrier-Free Travels: A Nuts and Bolts Guide for Wheelers and Slow Walkers. It contains detailed information about the logistics of planning accessible travel—whether by plane, train, or bus. The book includes important details about accessible air travel, traveling with oxygen, accessible ground transportation, choosing a travel agent, online booking, accessible recreation, and budget travel.

Airports

John F. Kennedy International Airport (JFK), Newark Liberty International Airport (EWR), and LaGuardia Airport (LGA) are operated by the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey. Visitors can visit the joint web site (www.panynj.gov) for visitors' guides for patrons with disabilities, including information security screening, animal relief areas, taxicab services, and public transit access. A recently passed New York City law requires taxicab drivers not to engage the taxi meter until a disabled passenger has settled in and the ride is about to commence. Drivers are required to assist disabled passengers. In addition, there is no charge for luggage or belongings transported in the interior of the taxicab, or for use of the taxicab's trunk.

Information about Hotels

Guests should advise the selected hotel about specific needs when making room reservations. All hotels have accessible lobbies; several have autoslide doors. Thresholds and doormats are in compliance with American with Disabilities Act (ADA) regulations and door-service personnel are available at most properties. Lobbies have marble floors and/or low-pile area carpeting. All hotels have accessible registration desks or provide clipboards to guests to complete registration documentation. Elevators connect all levels of each hotel. Each elevator has a wheelchair accessible keypad, Braille numerals beside each control button, and audible direction. Restrooms in lobbies and on meeting room floors are wheelchair accessible and have tactile signage.

All hotels have accessible guest rooms. The number of such rooms at each property is noted in the listing below. Among other amenities, these rooms feature wheelchair-accessible doors, lever/lever door handles, security peepholes, ample room space, grab bars in restrooms, low sinks with insulated pipes, accessible towel racks, and accessible mirrors. The following auxiliary aids are available at most properties: flashing fire alarm, doorbell, and telephone; vibrating alarm clock; closed-caption decoders; Braille signage; and TDD telephones.

New York Hilton Midtown

Entrance: The hotel's main entrance on Avenue of the Americas (Sixth Avenue) is accessible.

Parking: The hotel offers valet parking. The lot has designated spaces including van-accessible spots. The valet entrance is located in the back of the hotel, on West 53rd between Sixth and Seventh Avenues.

Guestrooms: Thirty rooms are equipped for persons with disabilities—some for the hearing impaired only and others for both hearing impaired and wheelchair accessible.

Sheraton New York Times Square

Entrance: The main lobby entrance on the southeast corner of Seventh Avenue and 53rd Street is accessible.

Parking: Accessible parking spaces are available; guests should enter on 53rd Street. Maximum vehicle height is six feet, five inches.

Guest rooms: The hotel has 42 guest rooms that meet standard ADA requirements.

Manhattan at Times Square

Entrance: The hotel's entrance on Seventh Avenue is accessible.

Parking: The hotel has several accessible parking spaces. Garage entrances are on 51st and 52nd streets.

Guestrooms: Twenty-three guestrooms are accessible, five with roll-in showers.

Sign Interpreting

Hearing-impaired members who will need sign-interpreting service at the AHA annual meeting must notify the AHA Headquarters Office and register for the meeting by December 1, 2014. The request should include the sessions they plan to attend. The AHA will, with the assistance of the Registry of Interpreters, secure the services of appropriate interpreters. The AHA will assume the cost for up to nine hours of sign language interpreting service or a maximum of $400 per member, whichever is less.

An interpreter may also be provided upon request for the presidential address (Saturday, January 3) and the annual business meeting (Sunday, January 4). Please contact Sharon K. Tune, Director, Meetings and Administration, AHA, at stune@historians.org by the deadline of December 1, 2014, if you would like to request this service.

Transportation to New York City

Train Fares

Amtrak offers a 10 percent discount off the best available fare to New York City between December 30, 2014, and January 8, 2015. To book, call Amtrak at 800-872-7245 or contact your travel agent. Refer to Convention Fare Code X47U-915. Please note that this discount cannot be booked via Amtrak's web site—you must call Amtrak directly and provide the fare code. The offer is not valid on Auto Train and Acela service, but is valid on Amtrak Regional for all departures seven days a week, except for holiday blackouts. Offer valid with Sleepers, Business Class, or First Class seats with payment of the full applicable accommodation charges.

Ground Transportation

From Penn Station (Amtrak)

New York's Penn Station is located at Eighth Avenue and 31st Street in midtown Manhattan. The station is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week; but note that Amtrak's ticket office at Penn Station is open daily from 5:10 a.m.–10:00 p.m. A cab ride to the hotels takes 15–20 minutes and costs from $15–$18, plus tip. Attendees can also take the Uptown E subway from Penn Station to the Seventh Avenue stop, right next to the Sheraton. Travel time is approximately 20 minutes and costs $2.75.

From Airports

New York City is served by two international airports, John F. Kennedy International Airport (JFK), in the borough of Queens at the south end of the Van Wyck Expressway, which primarily handles international flights, and Newark Liberty International Airport (EWR), in New Jersey, which handles both domestic and international flights. The region is also served by LaGuardia Airport (LGA), also in Queens, on the Grand Central Parkway, which mainly handles domestic flights. All airports offer ground transportation with service available from the airports to the hotels. Taxis, vans, limousines, busses, and rental cars are available.

For transportation information for all three airports call Air-Ride (800-247-7433), which offers 24-hour recorded details on bus and shuttle companies and car services registered with the New York and New Jersey Port Authority. Similar information is available at the authority's web site at www.panynj.gov/airports; click on the airport at which you'll be arriving.

LaGuardia Airport is 8 miles from the meeting hotels.

A taxi ride into the city takes anywhere from 30 to 40 minutes and costs a minimum of $45—rides are metered and bridge tolls and tip (15–20 percent is customary) are extra. There is no additional charge for luggage and rates are based per car, not per passenger (up to four passengers).

GO Airlink NYC provides shared van service from LaGuardia to midtown hotels ($21 one way). The trip takes approximately 45 minutes with busses operating every twenty to thirty minutes, seven days a week. NYC Airporter provides bus service to Grand Central Station for $13 one way and $23 round trip, with a complimentary shuttle to hotels. The SuperShuttle provides door-to-door service to and from the airport to downtown hotels. The fare is $16 each way.

Kennedy Airport is 17 miles from midtown.

Taxis from the airport to Manhattan charge a flat rate of $52 (plus tolls and tip). There is a New York state tax surcharge of 50 cents on each trip. The trip takes 65 to 75 minutes. The meter will not be turned on.

GO Airlink NYC provides shared van service from JFK to midtown hotels ($20 one way), and takes approximately 75 to 85 minutes. NYC Airporter offers bus service between JFK and Grand Central Station for $16 one way and $29 round trip; from Grand Central there are complimentary shuttles to hotels. The SuperShuttle provides door-to-door service to and from the airport to downtown hotels. The fare is $21 each way.

Newark Airport is 15 miles from the meeting hotels.

For taxis, the metered fare (plus tolls) from the airport to the hotels is approximately $55. There is an additional charge for oversized luggage, and rates are based per car, not per passenger (up to four passengers). To return to Newark Airport via a NYC taxi, the approximate fare is $69–75 plus return tolls and a $15 surcharge.

Air Train offers connecting service to New Jersey Transit and Amtrak trains that bring passengers into Manhattan. This can be quicker than taking a cab or bus, and it is much more affordable—$12.50 one way from Newark Airport to NYC Penn Station. GO Airlink NYC offers shared van service for a fee of $12 per person. Newark Liberty Airport Express offers shuttle service to Manhattan every 15–20 minutes. One-way fare is $16 and round trip is $28. SuperShuttle is available from Newark for $21, depending on destination.

A Note about Taxicabs in New York City

Yellow Medallion cabs are the only taxis authorized to pick up hails (the act of flagging down a cab) in Manhattan. Annual meeting attendees should avoid “gypsy” cabs—regular cars that offer a lift but usually cost more than cabs and aren't as well regulated or as safe. When the numbers on the roof of the cab are lit, it is available. Taxicabs are required to take you to your destination inside the metropolitan area. Officially, taxicabs can take on only four riders, three in the back seat and one in the front seat. According to the Taxi and Limousine Commission rules, drivers are not allowed to use cellular phones or any communication device, hands free or otherwise, while operating a cab.

The initial fare is $2.50 and each additional one-fifth mile (four blocks) or one minute waiting time is 50 cents. There is a peak surcharge of $1.00 from 4:00–8:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. There is a night surcharge of 50 cents from 8:00 p.m.–6:00 a.m. Riders should pay only what is on the meter, plus a 15–20 percent gratuity.

For accessible taxi service, passengers call 311 to request the service. 311 connects the passenger to the dispatcher, who collects the passenger's pick-up location and request for service. The dispatcher then communicates electronically with participating drivers. The closest available driver accepts the dispatch and picks up the passenger.

Public Transportation

New York City's subway operates 24 hours a day, although some stations are closed between midnight and 6:00 a.m., and the gap between trains can be as long as 30 minutes during off-peak hours. Subway maps are available from station managers or on Metropolitan Transportation Authority's (MTA) web site (www.mta.info). The subway fare is $2.50 when paid with a MetroCard; $2.75 for a single ride ticket.

Parking at the Hotels

All hotels have parking available. Current published rates for each 24-hour period are: Hilton: no self service, valet $55, van and SUV $63 (in and out service available; valet entrance located in rear of building on West 53rd Street between Sixth and Seventh Avenues); Sheraton: no self service, valet $50 with no in/out privileges (when traveling west on 53rd the parking lot entrance is before the hotel entrance); Manhattan: no self service, valet $50 with no in/out privileges (garage entrances on 51st and 52nd streets).

Additional Parking Options

There are parking garages throughout the city. Many cut their rates on the weekend. Depending on where you park, garage rates may range from $6 to $15 for the first hour to $40 per day, with special rates of about $20 on Sundays. Another option is SpotHero (www.spothero.com). Drivers can type in an address to compare hundreds of discounted parking options, then choose the dates/times to park. You can reserve a spot by prepaying through SpotHero. On the date, bring your e-mail confirmation or a print out to give to the garage. Drivers can also visit the city's Department of City Planning web site for a guide to parking lots and garages in the five boroughs. Once on the site, key in "parking facilities" in the search engine.

New York City Driving and Parking Tips

In New York state, the driver and all front-seat passengers are required to wear seat belts, and children under the age of 16 must wear a seat belt in the back seat. New York City forbids making right-hand turns at red lights, except where expressly permitted. The speed limit on streets (not highways) in the five boroughs is 25 miles per hour. In addition, drivers should pay special attention to signs when parking on the street: the city has alternate-side-of-the-street rules in effect for different days of the week. City parking meters do not allow all-day privileges—drivers must deposit quarters on an hourly basis.

Internet Center

A limited number of Internet terminals will be available during Job Center hours in the New York Hilton, Americas Hall II. Extensive information about the availability and price of Internet services at meeting hotels, including free WiFi options, is posted on the web site (www.historians.org/annual).

Quiet Room Available at New York Hilton Midtown

The AHA will make a Quiet Room available in the Hilton's Rhinelander Gallery Center. The room will have free wireless Internet access. Although the room is of particular use to those on the job market, it is also available for all conference attendees as a quiet place to await their next session or appointment, to send a text message, to check a web site, and the like. It's a room to escape temporarily the hubbub of the annual meeting, to read prior to your next session or next appointment, to meet someone before heading out to lunch, to prepare a few notes for those comments you didn't quite finish, to rest tired feet from walking among the hotels, or, for New York City-area attendees with no hotel room, to sit for a few minutes of quiet time.

To allow everyone to enjoy the Quiet Room, please avoid:

- cell-phone conversations—there are hallways and numerous other venues throughout the hotels and elsewhere for these conversations
- using the room as an informal or alternate site for job interviews
- extended conversation

Those who enjoy the room's usage should not leave personal possessions unattended. To deposit such items, the Hilton has a coat check on the lobby level.

AHA staff will check the room periodically, but the space will be self policing: please bus your own table if you dine, throw away any unwanted papers or other trash, straighten seating if you move tables and chairs around, etc. For serious concerns or issues, report to the AHA headquarters office. If there are problems or repeated distractions, the AHA reserves the right to close the room to further use.

Business Meeting

The AHA Council, divisions, and committees will report to the Association at the annual business meeting. Reports are subject to discussion and appropriate motions relating to them. Resolutions on other matters for the business meeting will be handled as follows: (1) resolutions signed by 50 members of the Association will be accepted until November 1, 2014, and (2) must be no more than 300 words in length. Resolutions should be sent to the Executive Director at the AHA headquarters, with a copy to the Parliamentarian, Michael Les Benedict, Department of History, Ohio State University, 230 W. 17th Ave., Columbus, OH 43210.

Voting Cards

Voting cards will be distributed to members at the business meeting.

Affiliated Societies

The second floor promenade of the New York Hilton Midtown has been reserved from 11:30 a.m.–2:30 p.m. on Saturday, January 3, for affiliated societies to display materials and to meet with members of the profession.

Childcare

Formal child care services will not be provided at the meeting. Attendees should make arrangements directly with a provider prior to arriving in New York City (some options are noted below). The AHA assumes no responsibility with respect to these services and accepts no liabilities related to the services provided.

Companies note that they are fully insured, licensed, and bonded, and they will make arrangements to provide childcare in the client's hotel room or elsewhere. Pay rates are generally based on a caregiver's training and experience and the requirements of the particular engagement. Typical rates are $25 to $30 per hour. If plans must be made closer to the meeting dates, attendees can also call their selected hotel's concierge desk for a list of childcare providers maintained by the hotel.

Tours Organized by the Local Arrangements Committee

The Local Arrangements Committee has organized 28 tours highlighting the historical resources of New York. Participants will have a unique opportunity to take these tours with their fellow historians. Tickets for a tour of Harlem religious sites organized by the American Society of Church History will also be sold through AHA registration.

Several tours are offered through Big Onion Walking Tours, which specializes in tours led by current doctoral candidates or recent PhDs in history. Since 1991, Big Onion Walking Tours has offered innovative historian-led walks through New York's historic and ethnic neighborhoods. Founded by two Columbia University U.S. history PhD candidates, Big Onion has grown to include more than thirty guides representing six universities. Upon completion of studies, Big Onion guides have gone on to teach at colleges throughout the United States and work for numerous historical societies and nonprofits. Tours weave together the diverse fabric of urban neighborhoods, combining traditional academic research with public history and cutting-edge teaching techniques. Big Onion offers more than twenty-five tours. The Local Arrangements Committee has selected some of its most unique and interesting outings specifically for the AHA annual meeting.

Registration, attendance, or participation at the meeting constitutes an agreement to the use of the attendee’s image in photographs, video, audio, and electronic communications. Presenters who do not wish for their session to be recorded may opt out when submitting a proposal to the Program Committee, or by contacting aha@historians.org. In order to encourage open debate and allow members to speak as freely as possible, the AHA does not permit audio or video recording of its Business Meeting. Anyone who wishes to audio or videotape must obtain permission of participants. The AHA is not responsible for unauthorized recording, but does reserve the right to revoke registration of anyone who records sessions without appropriate permissions.

WORKSHOPS

Friday, January 2, 9:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m.

Getting Started in Digital History Workshop Sheraton New York, Conference Room E

Our Getting Started in Digital History workshop last year brought historians with an interest in using digital tools and resources together with experts in a range of digital-history methodologies. This year, we're providing another round of introductory overview sessions, but we're also expanding the workshop to include intermediate hands-on workshops. For all of our attendees, we have an overview of digital history as a whole and the state of digital history funding, and a brief look at the importance of collaboration and project management in digital history. Jennifer Serventi of the NEH's Office of Digital Humanities will talk about the work that the ODH does to support digital scholarship. There will also be introductory sessions on preparing research data for digital history projects, making use of various digital tools and methodologies to ask new research questions, building and managing the collaborative aspects of digital history, and using digital tools in the classroom and in public-history endeavors. If you have a little experience but need some hands-on help to get your digital history project kickstarted, we have several sessions that focus on a single methodology and tool set. If you're interested in big data applied to primary sources, we have workshops on text mining, network theory and visualization, and historical GIS and spatial history. For historians focused on collaborative efforts, we also have hands-on sessions for project sustainability and management, and teaching with digital tools.

The workshop is free, but space is limited, so please sign up when you register for the annual meeting. We look forward to seeing you there.

Friday, January 2, 9:00 a.m.–1:00 p.m.

Workshop on Undergraduate Teaching New York Hilton, Beekman Parlor

LOCAL ARRANGEMENTS COMMITTEE TOURS

Friday, January 2, 9:30 a.m.–12:30 p.m.

Tour 2: Big Onion: The Upper West Side New York Hilton, Americas Hall I

Tour leader: A graduate student, historian, guide from Big Onion Walking Tours

If the street plan south of 14th Street has you confused and looking for order amidst chaos, spend some time in the logical grid pattern of the Upper West Side. Unlike the haphazard, spontaneous construction of streets in Greenwich Village or the Lower East Side, Upper West Side planners and landowners imagined an orderly neighborhood of estates and mansions that would be connected to the city while retaining elements of a remote country paradise. See how far the results strayed from the original plan as we visit Lincoln Center, the Dakota, Dante Square, and sites associated with Florence Mills, Mae West, Leonard Bernstein, and the home of the Charleston.

Please note: There are no stairs on this tour. We will walk approximately 1.5 miles, at a moderate pace, during the two-hour tour.

Limit 25 people. $20 members, $25 nonmembers, $15 students

Friday, January 2, 11:30 a.m.–2:30 p.m.

Tour 3: Twentieth-Century Queens New York Hilton, Americas Hall I

Tour leader: Katie Uva, City University of New York, Graduate Center

Join us as we explore Manhattan's sprawling, dynamic neighbor to the East! Queens is the physically largest, second most populous, and most diverse borough in New York City. On this walking and bus tour we will learn a bit about what drove Queens' enormous growth in the twentieth century, and we will learn about how this beneficiary of so much modern urban infrastructure has maintained its identity as a collection of neighborhoods. Why was living in Corona the fulfillment of Louis Armstrong's American dream? What promise does the borough continue to hold for the 2.3 million people, about half of whom are immigrants, who make their home here? And why was Queens, in 1939 and again in 1964, the center of international conversations about humanity and its future at the two New York World's Fairs? This tour takes participants on a guided visit to the Louis Armstrong House Museum, a portion of the World's Fair site at Flushing Meadow Park, and on a guided tour of World's Fair memorabilia at the Queens Museum.

Please note: This bus tour includes some walking. The historic Louis Armstrong house is not wheelchair accessible.

Limit: 25 people. $25 members, $30 nonmembers

LOCAL ARRANGEMENTS COMMITTEE TOURS

Friday, January 2, 1:15–3:30 p.m.

Tour 4: FDR Four Freedoms Park Tour

New York Hilton, Americas Hall I

Tour leaders: Staff of the FDR Four Freedoms Park

Opened in October 2012, the Franklin D. Roosevelt Four Freedoms Park is the only memorial dedicated to the former president in his home state of New York. It is the last work of the late Louis I. Kahn, an iconic architect of the twentieth century. The park celebrates the Four Freedoms, as pronounced in President Roosevelt's famous January 6, 1941, State of the Union speech. Learn about the history of the Roosevelt era and the Four Freedoms, Louis Kahn's design principles and philosophies, the story behind the building of the memorial, and the history of Roosevelt Island.

Please note: There is no indoor visitor center, so the walking tour is completely outdoors.

Limit: 20 people. $20 members, $25 nonmembers

Friday, January 2, 1:30–4:30 p.m.

Tour 5: Big Onion: Historic Lower Manhattan/Wall Street

New York Hilton, Americas Hall I

Tour leader: A graduate student, historian, guide from Big Onion Walking Tours

Explore the neighborhood where New York began! This tour will span 400 years of New York City history. From the original Dutch settlement and trading outpost at Bowling Green, to the peaceful takeover of the British in 1664, to the world financial capital of today, this tour has it all. Our walk weaves together the history of Lower Manhattan with the architecture, people and events that power Wall Street. We will visit many stops including Trinity Church, Federal Hall, the New-York Stock Exchange, and sites associated with eighteenth-century slave uprisings, Alexander Hamilton, George Washington, Victoria Woodhull, J.P. Morgan, and Abbie Hoffman.

Please note: There are no stairs on this tour. We will walk approximately 1.5 miles, at a moderate pace, during the two-hour tour.

Limit: 25 people. $20 members, $25 nonmembers, $15 students

Friday, January 2, 2:00–5:00 p.m.

Tour 6: History on the Hoof in the Gentrifying City: Maverick Women of Greenwich Village

New York Hilton, Americas Hall I

Tour leader: Kathleen Hulser, independent public historian

Drawing on new commitments to public historical literacy, this expedition looks at characters in a setting known for its political and social activism for more than 100 years. This two-hour tour narrates a female story of breaking codes of public decorum in the iconic spaces of Greenwich Village. It models how the walking tour can be used to modify attitudes toward quotidian environments, deepen engagement with the historical fabric of the city, and give a living edge to historical materials that too often reach only readers of academic books.

The walking tour starts with Emma Goldman, explores political activism in Union Square, probes the female side of pre-World War I bohemian culture in the West Village, and ends with references to Jane Jacobs's legacy of brownstone neighborhood activism. Other significant characters include Crystal Eastman, Clara Lemlich, Dorothy Day, Henrietta Rodman, and Louise Bryant. The storyline emphasizes women engaged in public life and public spaces, and the interpretations stress how urban contexts fostered opportunity for maverick personalities and lifestyles.

The rapid transformation of neighborhoods in the grips of gentrification offers fascinating opportunities for the historian using outdoor expeditions to teach young and old alike. This tour offers not just the story of what once was in lovely old brownstone neighborhoods, but also a platform for questioning the workings of urban democracy in defining place.

Please note: The walking part of the tour will last approximately two hours.

Limit: 25 people. $20 members, $25 nonmembers

Friday, January 2, 2:15–5:15 p.m.

Tour 7: Museum of the City of New York Tour: Gilded New York

New York Hilton, Americas Hall I

Tour leaders: Museum of the City of New York staff

Inaugurating the museum's Tiffany & Co. Foundation Gallery, Gilded New York explores the city's visual culture at the end of the nineteenth century, when its elite class flaunted their money as never before. In New York, this era was marked by the sudden rise of industrial and corporate wealth, amassed by such titans as Cornelius Vanderbilt and Jay Gould, who expressed their high status through extravagant fashions, architecture, and interior design. The exhibition presents a lavish display of some 100 works, including costumes, jewelry, portraits, and decorative objects, all created between the mid-1870s and the early twentieth century. The dazzling works in the exhibition will illuminate an era when members of the new American aristocracy often displayed their wealth in storied balls in Fifth Avenue mansions and hotels. It was a time when New York became the nation's corporate headquarters and a popular Ladies' Mile of luxury retail establishments and cultural institutions helped launch the city to global prominence.

Limit: 20 people. $10 members, $15 nonmembers

Tour 8: Museum of the City of New York Tour: Activist New York

New York Hilton, Americas Hall I

Tour leaders: Museum of the City of New York staff

Explore the drama of social activism in New York City from the seventeenth century to the present. In a town renowned for its in-your-face persona, citizens of the city have banded together on issues as diverse as historic preservation, civil rights, wages, sexual orientation, and religious freedom. Using artifacts, photographs, audio and visual presentations, as well as interactive components that seek to tell the entire story of activism in the five boroughs, Activist New York presents the passions and conflicts that underlie the city's history of agitation.

Limit: 30 people. $10 members, $15 nonmembers

Tour 9: Museum of the City of New York Tour: Mac Conner: A New York Life

New York Hilton, Americas Hall I

Tour leaders: Museum of the City of New York staff

McCauley ("Mac") Conner (born 1913) grew up admiring Norman Rockwell magazine covers in his father's general store. He arrived in New York as a young man to work on wartime Navy publications and stayed on to make a career in the city's vibrant publishing industry. The exhibition presents Conner's hand-painted illustrations for advertising campaigns and women's magazines like Redbook and McCall's, made during the years after World War II when commercial artists helped to redefine American style and culture.

Limit: 30 people. $10 members, $15 nonmembers

Tour 10: Museum of the City of New York Tour: The Theater Collection

Tour 15: Melting Pot, Six Feet Under: Trinity Church Cemetery as Muse for American Studies: Washington Heights

New York Hilton, Americas Hall I

Tour leader: Eric K. Washington, independent historian and author of Manhattanville: Old Heart of West Harlem

Is a cemetery the end of the line? More likely, it is an intersection between the present and the past. This walk uses Trinity Church Cemetery to examine the peopling of New York through the city's class, race, ethnic, and gender identities; to explore the interplay of events on both prominent and unsung citizens; and to consider the correlation between historic and contemporary issues. Steeped in Revolutionary War, Civil War, civic history, and social history, this 24-acre garden cemetery is a palimpsest of New York City's eventful past and its cultural melting pot. Notable interments here include John James Audubon, naturalist; New York City mayors Cadwallader D. Colden, Fernando Wood, A. Oakey Hall, and Edward I. Koch; Madame Eliza Jumel, adventuress; John Jacob Astor, merchant; Clement Clarke Moore, poet; Philip Ernst, flutist; and David Hosack, doctor and New-York Historical Society co-founder. The grounds also contain the common burial lots of some of the city's numerous nineteenth-century eleemosynary institutions. Today, urban development frames this modest natural landscape, which forms the only still active cemetery on Manhattan Island. Discover Manhattan's last active cemetery—listed on the National Register of Historic Places—as a unique introduction to the interdisciplinary field of American Studies. Moreover, discover one of New York State's most significant burying grounds, yet one of its best-kept secrets.

Please note: The walking part of the tour will last two hours.

Limit: 25 people. $20 members, $25 nonmembers

Saturday, January 3, 1:30–4:30 p.m.

Tour 16: The Restaurants of Madison Square Park, 1859–2014

New York Hilton, Americas Hall I

Tour leader: Daniel Levinson Wilk, Fashion Institute of Technology

In the late 1800s, the area around Madison Square Park (by the intersection of Fifth Avenue, Broadway, and 23rd Street) was the premier entertainment district in New York, and probably the nation. This walking tour will explain how the restaurants and hotels of the neighborhood built the earliest business chains in any industry, developed trust among businessmen, strengthened the national Republican Party during and after the Civil War, and trained New Yorkers in certain tastes for food and restaurant service. While discussing the restaurant and hotel chains of that era, we will also be visiting four restaurants in the neighborhood—Gramercy Tavern, Eleven Madison Park, Shake Shack, and Eataly—and discussing with managers of those restaurants how they still face the same challenges and opportunities that neighborhood establishments encountered a century and a half ago.

Please note: The walking part of the tour will last for two hours.

Limit: 25 people. $10 members, $15 nonmembers

POSTER SESSION

Sunday, January 4, 11:30 a.m.–2:00 p.m.

213. Poster Session #1

New York Hilton, 2nd Floor Promenade

This poster session provides a venue for the newest developing historical research. Though relatively new to the humanities, poster sessions have long been utilized at professional meetings in scientific fields. On sessions with several panel participants, audience interaction is limited to brief discussion periods—usually only a few people are able to ask questions and each presenter may not have time to discuss their research fully. The poster session addresses this common problem, allowing for considered dialogue and engaging interaction.

The 2015 Program Committee encourages all meeting attendees to visit the posters on display. The following presenters will be available to discuss their posters between 11:30 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. on Sunday, January 4:

POSTER SESSION

Sunday, January 4, 2:30–5:00 p.m.

242. Poster Session #2

New York Hilton, 2nd Floor Promenade

This poster session provides a venue for the newest developing historical research. Though relatively new to the humanities, poster sessions have long been utilized at professional meetings in scientific fields. On sessions with several panel participants, audience interaction is limited to brief discussion periods—usually only a few people are able to ask questions and each presenter may not have time to discuss their research fully. The poster session addresses this common problem, allowing for considered dialogue and engaging interaction.

The 2015 Program Committee encourages all meeting attendees to visit the posters on display. The following presenters will be available to discuss their posters between 2:30 and 5:00 p.m. on Sunday, January 4:

Media Training Workshop for Historians

New York Hilton, Concourse E

Are you looking to increase your media profile? Do your articles and op-eds get ignored or rejected by editors at mainstream periodicals? Do you panic and mumble into the mic when doing radio interviews, or fumble and flail when in front of a camera? Do you have, or need to have, a social media platform to get noticed by major media today?

For helpful tips in crafting articles and op-eds that don't get rejected, participating in radio and TV interviews and navigating social media platforms that will highlight your research and establish you as producers' go-to historian, join Clay Risen of the New York Times's Disunion blog; Bill Parkhurst, media trainer; and Sarah Russo, freelance publicist and brand and platform consultant, to understand a few simple insights on how to get editors to say "yes" to your pitch, and producers to add you to their address books and book you onto their radio/TV shows.

Tour 25: Lower East Side Tenement Museum

New York Hilton, Americas Hall I

Tour leaders: Museum staff

The Tenement Museum preserves and interprets the history of immigration through the personal experiences of the generations of newcomers who settled in and built lives on Manhattan's Lower East Side, America's iconic immigrant neighborhood. Its programs forge emotional connections between visitors and immigrants of the past as well as the present, and enhance appreciation for the profound role immigration has played and continues to play in shaping America's growing national identity. The museum tells the stories of 97 Orchard Street, the tenement on Manhattan's Lower East Side that was home to nearly 7,000 working class immigrants from 1863 onward. The "Hard Times" tour describes how some of the building's residents survived economic depressions between 1863 and 1935.

Please note: The historic building has limited wheelchair access.

Limit: 30 people. $20 members, $25 nonmembers

Monday, January 5, 10:45 a.m.–1:45 p.m.

PRaise FOR THE JOSEPH SMITH PAPERS

The project's high standards for documentary editing are complemented by maps, biographies, thorough historical introductions to the transcribed manuscripts, and stunningly detailed notes. This project remains the gold standard in the field of historical documentary editing."

—Thomas P. Slaughter,
Professor of History, Rochester University, and Editor, Reviews in American History

The opportunity in these volumes to understand Smith and his earliest adherents on their own terms, in their own words, and in their own times is unprecedented and will be of great benefit . . . to scholars of Mormonism and historians of American religion."

—Kenneth Minkema,
Executive Editor of The Works of Jonathan Edwards,
Yale University
JOURNAL OF AMERICAN HISTORY, SEPT. 2013

The editorial staff have gathered every available Smith document, subjected them all to a three-step verification process, and provided an extensive historical annotation without theological commentary in conjunction with an advisory board of Smith scholars. . . . In addition to extensive introductory material, the volume contains useful reference material including a chronology, maps, glossary, and essay on sources. . . . This is an extraordinary work. . . . Highly recommended."

RADICAL HISTORY Review

Celebrities and Publics in the Internet Era

An issue of Public Culture (Vol. 27, no. 1)

Sharon Marcus, special issue editor

Contributors to this issue consider how new digital media platforms have changed celebrity—and how they haven't. They question if new media such as search engines, Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, GIFs, and reality TV have qualitatively changed what celebrity is and how fans interact with celebrities and one another.

publicculture.dukejournals.org

Recent and forthcoming issues of Radical History Review

Queering Archives

Volume 1: Historical Unravelings (#120)

Volume 2: Intimate Tracings (#122)

Daniel Marshall, Kevin P. Murphy, and Zeb Tortorici, special issue editors

These special issues explore the ways in which the notion of the “queer archive” has become increasingly crucial for scholars working at the intersection of history, sexuality, and gender. The issues consider historical materials from queer archives around the world as well as the recent critical practice of “queering” the archive by looking at historical collections for queer content (and its absence).

Sound Politics: Critically Listening to the Past (#121)

Dan Bender, Duane J. Corpis, and Daniel J. Walkowitz,
special issue editors

This issue investigates the historical study of sound, along with its social and political meanings and effects, from a broad range of periods. Contributors engage in critical “readings” of historical sources to reconstruct and interpret silenced soundscapes from the past. The articles exemplify innovative methodological insights and approaches to sources produced before the development of modern sound-recording technologies.

ARC MEDIEVAL PRESS Fall 2014

PANDEMIC DISEASE IN THE MEDIEVAL WORLD RETHINKING THE BLACK DEATH

Edited by Monica H. Green

The Medieval Globe is a new journal sponsored by the Program in Medieval Studies at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Its ground-breaking inaugural double issue, also available as a free-standing book, brings together scholars from the humanities and social and physical sciences to address the question of how recent work in the genetics, zoology, and epidemiology of plague's causative organism (Yersinia pestis) can allow a rethinking of the Black Death pandemic and its larger historical significance.

Topics include

- The status of plague in the modern world and the relevance of historical research to contemporary concerns about emerging infectious diseases.
- New discoveries and analytical methods in archeology that foster more integrated comparison with documentary sources for plague's effects – including new archeological evidence for the Black Death's impact on a Jewish community in Catalonia
- Investigation of the causes and consequences of plague persistence and the establishment of enzootic foci in Western Europe and the Ottoman world
- The effects of long-term depopulation and changes in the immune profile of surviving populations
- The implications of evolutionary genetics for postulating a much wider geographic extent of the late-medieval pandemic than hitherto imagined, and the benefits of "global health thinking" for expanding analysis even further
- A hypothetical scenario for the origin of the Second Plague Pandemic in Central Asia
- Correction of a misdiagnosed "plague" image and reflection on the nature of knowledge-production in a digital age.

This issue of The Medieval Globe is published with the support of the World History Center at the University of Pittsburgh.

Monica H. Green (Arizona State University) specializes in the global history of health and medieval European history. She has published widely on medieval medicine.

Carol Symes is the founding executive editor of The Medieval Globe. She is the Lynn M. Martin Professorial Scholar at the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign, where she is associate professor of history, theatre, and medieval studies.
