The 130th annual meeting of the Association will be held January 7–10, 2016 in Atlanta. More than 1,500 scholars will participate in the four-day meeting. In addition, more than 50 specialized societies and organizations have scheduled sessions and luncheons in partnership with the Association. AHA awards and honors will be announced on Thursday, January 7 followed by the plenary session. Vicki L. Ruiz, University of California, Irvine, will deliver the presidential address on Friday, January 8.

Hotel Accommodations

The AHA has reserved blocks of rooms at the following hotels, all located in downtown Atlanta.

	Single	Double	Each additional guest
Hilton Atlanta 255 Courtland Street NE Headquarters—Registration, Exhibit Hall, and AHA Headquarters	$119	$149	$30
Atlanta Marriott Marquis 265 Peachtree Center Avenue NE Co-Headquarters—Job Center	$119	$149	$30
Hyatt Regency Atlanta 265 Peachtree Street NE	$109	$109	$129 triple & quad

Please see Hotels and Travel (www.historians.org/annual-meeting/hotels-and-travel) on the AHA website for details.

The hotels were built in the 1960s through 1980s and designed by neo-futurist architect and developer John C. Portman, known for hotels organized around a central atrium with glass elevators.

Be aware that there is only one set of restrooms per meeting floor.

Skybridge

A pedestrian skybridge connects the second floor of the Hilton Atlanta to the Marquis level of the Atlanta Marriott Marquis. Another skybridge connects the Atrium level of the Marriott to the lobby level at the Hyatt Regency Atlanta.

Making a Hotel Reservation

After preregistering for the annual meeting, attendees will receive an e-mail confirmation of their registration that will include information on how to make a standard room or suite reservation. Attendees will be able to make reservations by clicking on customized links or calling toll-free numbers provided in the confirmation e-mail. Attendees interested in reserving suites should consult the AHA's website (www.historians.org/annual-meeting/hotels-and-travel) or contact the hotels for more information about suite types and rates.

Credit Card Guarantee

All reservations must be guaranteed with a major credit card or deposit of one night's room rate and taxes. Cancellations must be made 72 hours prior to the scheduled arrival date or hotels will charge a cancellation fee of one night's room and tax.

Cutoff Date

The cutoff date for the AHA's official block at all hotels is Friday, December 18, 2015. After this date, remaining inventory in each hotel's block will be released and rooms will be available at the AHA's convention rates on a space-available basis at the time of reservation. If hotel blocks sell out, the AHA will secure additional hotel rooms and post details on the AHA website.

Accommodations for Persons with Disabilities

The information that follows is provided to assist AHA annual meeting attendees with disabilities in obtaining the reasonable accommodations they require. Please refer to this information when making hotel reservations or arrangements to participate in program sessions and other events. In particular, guests should advise the hotels about specific needs when making room reservations.

Thresholds and doormats are in compliance with American with Disabilities Act (ADA) regulations and door-service personnel are available at most properties. Lobbies have marble floors and/or low-pile area carpeting. All hotels have accessible registration desks or provide clipboards to guests to complete registration documentation. Elevators connect all levels of each hotel. Each elevator has a wheelchair-accessible keypad, Braille numerals beside each control button, and audible direction. Restrooms in lobbies and on meeting room floors are wheelchair accessible and have tactile signage.

All hotels have accessible guest rooms. The number of such rooms at each property is noted below. Among other amenities, these rooms feature wheelchair-accessible doors, lever door handles, security peepholes, ample room space, grab bars in restrooms, low sinks with insulated pipes, accessible towel racks, and accessible mirrors. The following auxiliary aids are available at most properties: flashing fire alarm, doorbell, and telephone; vibrating alarm clock; closed-caption decoders; Braille signage; and TDD telephones.

In addition, MARTA operates mobility services for qualified riders. MARTA provides ADA Complementary Paratransit Service to eligible persons with disabilities who are unable to board, ride, or disembark from an accessible vehicle in MARTA's regular bus or rail services. Service is provided with special lift-equipped vans on a curb-to-curb, shared-ride basis. Certified individuals having a MARTA ADA Photo Identification Card may call the MARTA Mobility Reservation Office at (404) 848-5000 Monday through Saturday from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Scooter rentals are available by contacting ScootAround Inc., toll-free at 888-441-7575, by e-mail at info@scootaround.com, or online at www.scootaround.com.

Checker Cab (www.atlantacheckercab.com/) provides accessible taxi service. To reserve a fully accessible van, call (404) 351-1111 around 24–48 hours in advance.

Service Animals Welcome

The American Historical Association is committed to making the annual meeting accessible. Service animals are welcome at all events, sessions, and venues. The ADA protects the right of people with disabilities to be accompanied by trained service animals in public places. Remember, not all disabilities are visible and service animals are not required to wear special equipment or tags. Service animals are working and should not be distracted without permission.

Fragrance

Please help us to accommodate attendees who are sensitive to fragrances by refraining from wearing scented products.

Sign Interpreting

Members with hearing impairment who will need sign-interpreting service at the AHA annual meeting must notify the AHA Headquarters Office and register for the meeting by December 1, 2015. The request should include the sessions they plan to attend. The AHA will, with the assistance of the Registry of Interpreters, secure the services of appropriate interpreters. The AHA will assume the cost for up to nine hours of sign language interpreting service or a maximum of $400 per member, whichever is less.

An interpreter may also be provided upon request for the presidential address (Friday, January 8) and the annual business meeting (Saturday, January 9).

Assistive listening devices are also available on request.

Please contact Debbie Doyle at ddoyle@historians.org by December 1, 2015, if you would like to request an interpreter or assistive listening device.

Transportation to Atlanta

See historians.org/annual-meeting for complete details about transportation, including discounts for AHA members and attendees.

Airport

The Atlanta area is served by the Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport (ATL), which is located 10 miles from downtown Atlanta. To review a terminal layout, see www.atlanta-airport.com. Free trains run approximately every two minutes between all concourses and the terminals.

Mass Transit

Atlanta's mass transit system is Metropolitan Atlanta Rapid Transit Authority (MARTA) (www.itsmarta.com; 404-848-4711 for schedule information). From the baggage-claim area follow "Ground Transportation/MARTA" signs to the MARTA station inside the terminal. All trains head downtown, so any train you take is the right one. Take MARTA to the Peachtree Center station, located just two blocks from the Hilton and one block from the Marriott and Hyatt. The ride downtown takes about 20 minutes.

All riders must have a Breeze Card to access the bus or train. Breeze fare can be purchased for $2.50 at a Breeze Vending Machine located in all 38 rail stations or at any of the MARTA Ridestores (Airport and Five Points).

Train frequencies and service hours are as follows:

Weekdays: 6 a.m. to 7 p.m.: 10 minutes all lines

Weekdays: 7 p.m. to 1 a.m.: 20 minutes all lines

Weekends: 20 minutes all lines

Taxi Service

Taxis are readily available at designated areas at hotels and at the airport outside baggage claim areas. At the airport, exit the terminal and walk to the Ground Transportation Center. The trip downtown takes approximately 20 minutes, longer in rush hours.

There is a $30 flat rate from the airport to downtown ($2 charge for each additional person).

Van Service

Super Shuttle (www.supershuttle.com; 1-800-622-2089x2; atlsales@supershuttle.com) offers service from the ground transportation area of the airport to all of the major downtown hotels for $16.50 per person one way or $28 round trip.

Arriving by Train

Amtrak's Crescent line stops in Atlanta's Peachtree Station (1688 Peachtree Street NW; 404-881-3060), with daily service.

Parking at the Hotels

All hotels have parking available at rates ranging from $22 to $39 overnight.

Meeting Registration

Take advantage of reduced rates by preregistering for the conference. Make sure your membership is up to date so you can enjoy member pricing at each level. Register online at historians.org/annual-meeting/registration.

Advance registration must be completed by midnight on December 18, 2015. After that, onsite rates will apply. Registration materials, including badges, will be distributed at the meeting during registration hours, posted on page vi.

Everyone attending the meeting is expected to register. Admission to the Exhibit Hall, Career Fair, Job Center, and Internet Center requires a registration badge.

Refund Policy

Advance registrants who are unable to attend the meeting may request a refund of their registration fee. Cancellations and refund requests should be submitted in writing and postmarked (or e-mailed) by December 18, 2015. Refunds will be processed less a $20 administrative fee. No refunds will be issued for requests postmarked or e-mailed after December 18, 2015. Refunds will not be given for no-shows. Cancellations and refund requests should be submitted to the American Historical Association, Business Office, 400 A St. SE, Washington, DC 20003 or e-mailed to borgodol@historians.org. Proof of payment—copies of front and back of cancelled check or copy of credit card statement—may also be required.

Quiet Room Available

The AHA will make Quiet Rooms available in the Hilton's Room 207 and the Marriott's Room M 108. The rooms will have free wireless Internet access. Although the rooms are of particular use to those on the job market, they are also available for all conference attendees as quiet places to await their next session or appointment, to temporarily escape the hubbub of the annual meeting, or to sit for a few minutes of quiet time.

Business Meeting

The AHA Council, divisions, and committees will report to the Association at the annual business meeting. Reports are subject to discussion and appropriate motions relating to them. Resolutions on other matters for the business meeting will be handled as follows: (1) resolutions signed by 100 members of the Association will be accepted until November 1, 2015, and (2) must be no more than 300 words in length. Resolutions should be sent to the Executive Director at the AHA headquarters.

Only AHA members may attend the business meeting. Voting cards will be distributed to members at the meeting. Please confirm in advance that your membership is up to date.

Affiliated Societies

The Hilton Grand Ballroom Prefunction space has been reserved from 11:30 a.m.–2:30 p.m. on Friday, January 8, for affiliated societies to display materials and to meet with members of the profession.

Childcare

Grants to subsidize childcare are available by application. Please visit www.historians.org/annual-meeting/child-care-grants for more information.

Formal childcare services will not be provided at the meeting. Attendees should make arrangements directly with a provider prior to arriving in Atlanta (some options are noted below). The AHA assumes no responsibility with respect to these services and accepts no liabilities related to the services provided.

Nursing Mothers' Room

A Nursing Mothers' Room will be located in the Hilton's Room 308. The room will be equipped with comfortable furniture, a small refrigerator, and separate private area for nursing mothers. Restrooms are immediately adjacent.

Recording Policy

The AHA and the press occasionally record sessions for use in broadcast and electronic media, and film or photograph public areas at the meeting. Registration, attendance, or participation at the meeting constitutes an agreement to the use of the attendee's image in photographs, video, audio, and electronic communications. Presenters who do not wish for their session to be recorded may opt out when submitting a proposal to the Program Committee, or by contacting aha@historians.org. In order to encourage open debate and allow members to speak as freely as possible, the AHA does not permit audio or video recording of its business meeting. Anyone who wishes to conduct audio or video recording must obtain permission from participants in advance. The AHA is not responsible for unauthorized recording but does reserve the right to revoke registration of anyone who records sessions without appropriate permissions.

Live Tweeting

To facilitate virtual conversations arising from the annual meeting, the AHA encourages attendees to live tweet using #AHA16. Participants are encouraged to share their Twitter handles. Speakers presenting material that they do not wish to be live-tweeted should make a request to the audience at the beginning of their presentations.

Tours Organized by the Local Arrangements Committee

The Local Arrangements Committee has organized 10 tours highlighting the historical resources of Atlanta. Participants will have a unique opportunity to take these tours with their fellow historians. Tickets for a tour of Atlanta religious sites organized by the American Society of Church History will also be sold through AHA registration.

Tour 2: Oakland Cemetery

Hilton Atlanta, Lobby Registration Area

Tour leader: Staff of Oakland Cemetery

Discover the history, period gardens, and art and architecture of Oakland Cemetery, Atlanta's oldest public cemetery and first public park. The cemetery has over 70,000 graves representing important Atlanta milestones, from early builders to leaders of industry to civil rights pioneers. Established in 1850,

Oakland is an excellent example of a 19th-century rural garden cemetery with winding paths, large shade trees, flowers, shrubs, and appealing vistas. Today Oakland is still used as a park for the community and a valued green space in Atlanta. Among its famous residents are author Margaret Mitchell, golfer Bobby Jones, and 27 Atlanta mayors, including Maynard Jackson.

Please note: Participants will travel to and from the cemetery by bus. The 90-minute walking tour of the historic cemetery involves some rough pavement and stairs.

Limit 20 people. $20 members, $25 nonmembers

FILM FESTIVAL

Thursday, January 7, 4:15–7:00 p.m.

2015 John O'Connor Film Award Winner,

Feature Film: 12 Years a Slave

Hilton Atlanta, Room 213

Steve McQueen, director; Brad Pitt, producer
(Fox Searchlight Pictures, 2013)

With this breakthrough production the filmmakers and actors have adapted an important historical source, Solomon Northrup's 1853 memoir of kidnapping and enslavement, into a gripping and also painfully accurate drama. In step with the best historical scholarship, this film also challenges Hollywood's long romance with the plantation.

Philip Ethington, University of Southern California, will introduce the film and lead a discussion afterward.

Tour 4: Martin Luther King Jr. National Historic Site

Hilton Atlanta, Lobby Registration Area

Tour leaders: Rebecca Karcher, National Park Service and Marty Smith, National Park Service

The Martin Luther King National Historic Site was created by Congress in 1980 to “preserve, protect and interpret for the benefit, inspiration and education of present and future generations” the places where Martin Luther King Jr. was born; where he lived, worked, and worshiped; and where he is buried, while also interpreting the life experiences and significance of one of the most influential African Americans in the 20th century. The site is located on Auburn Avenue, once described by Fortune magazine as “the richest Negro street in America,” the commercial, cultural, and spiritual center of Atlanta’s African American community for much of the 20th century. Martin Luther King Jr. was born and raised on Auburn Avenue, and three generations of his family were pastors at Ebenezer Baptist Church, located just a block from the home in which King lived until age 12. The tour includes the King Birth Home; Ebenezer Baptist Church; the King Center for Nonviolent Social Change, where Martin Luther and Coretta Scott King are buried; and a permanent exhibition, Courage to Lead, at the National Park Service Visitor Center.

Please note: This bus tour includes some walking. The site is ADA compliant.

Documentary Film Screening: Stephen Douglas and the Fate of American Democracy

Hilton Atlanta, Room 213

Graham A. Peck, writer, producer, and director (Installed as a permanent exhibit at the Douglas Tomb State Historic Site in Chicago, 2014)

This film began in the classroom as a public history project led by a Douglas scholar, and was completed with contributions from other historians, reenactors, and artists, thus illustrating how the production and consumption of history is a shared enterprise. By probing the ambiguities of 19th-century American democracy through the prism of Douglas' career, showing how his democratic and nationalist sensibilities combined to promote racism, expansionism, and support for slavery, and ultimately civil war, it encourages contemplation about the moral parameters of democracy today.

Dan Carter, University of South Carolina and Graham A. Peck, Saint Xavier University will introduce the film and lead a discussion afterward. The screening will be followed by Session 113 (p. 44)

Hilton Atlanta, Grand Ballroom A

In order to maximize opportunities for cross-fertilization across fields of specialization, and to encourage greater participation by the audience, presenters will precirculate/post in advance an “object of inquiry” (an artifact, a transcription, a translation). At the beginning of the workshop they will each frame their object and the methodological and/or conceptual problem they are hoping to tackle through it in a brief opening comment. The remainder of the time will be dedicated to discussing participants’ chosen objects and to drawing connections and contrasts among them.

POSTER SESSION

Saturday, January 9, 11:45 a.m.–2:15 p.m.

195. Poster Session #2

The poster session addresses this common problem, allowing for considered dialogue and engaging interaction.

The 2016 Program Committee encourages all meeting attendees to visit the posters on display. The following presenters will be available to discuss their posters between 11:45 a.m. and 2:15 p.m. on Saturday, January 9:

Tour 10: Self-Guided Tour of Kennesaw Mountain Battlefield Park

Hilton Atlanta, Lobby Registration Area

Tour leader: This is a self-guided tour of the park and museum.

Kennesaw Mountain National Battlefield Park is a 2,965 acre national battlefield that preserves a Civil War battleground of the Atlanta Campaign. Opposing forces maneuvered and fought here from June 19 until July 2, 1864. Kennesaw Mountain National Battlefield Park offers historical perspective amidst a beautiful natural setting. Whether you want to feel the sound of a cannon's roar or take a hike on one of its many trails, Kennesaw Mountain has something for you. Visitors may explore the museum in the visitors' center and hike (approximately two miles) or ride the shuttle bus to the top of the mountain for a panoramic view of the area.

Please note: Participants will travel by bus to and from the park. The visitors' center is fully accessible. Due to the nature of the historic terrain, trails have remained natural and have not been altered. The mountain road is paved and accessible, and the shuttle bus is ADA approved. Shuttle tickets are included in the price of the tour.

Tour 11: Finding Inspiration Inside: The National Center for Civil and Human Rights

Hilton Atlanta, Lobby Registration Area

Tour leader: Dina Bailey, National Center for Civil and Human Rights

The mission of the Center for Civil and Human Rights is to empower people to take the protection of everyone's human rights personally. It accomplishes this mission through three major exhibitions and one temporary exhibition, numerous programs, and outreach; these exhibitions span past, present, local, national, and global civil and human rights movements. They educate, inspire, and empower guests to take action for social change today. In joining the director of educational strategies on a special tour, participants will hear behind-the-scenes information about how this brand new museum came into existence and what lessons have been learned during the institution's first year of being open.

Please note: The museum is ADA compliant; participants will walk approximately 15 minutes to and from the museum. Alternate transportation for people with disabilities is available on request. Participants should be prepared to have their bags inspected.

Limit 30 people. $20 members, $25 nonmembers

POLAR+STUDIES

The Polar Studies book series will solicit a wide variety of projects that capture the importance of the understudied Arctic and Antarctic regions. While the primary focus of the series will be historical (including science, technology, exploration, and environment), we will also consider projects that approach the region from other perspectives, including indigenous anthropology, contemporary science, international studies, geography, law, policy, and animal studies, creating a diverse and nuanced library of works examining the role of the polar regions as political and international frontier zones.

Sexing Empire

An issue of Radical History Review (#123)

Ben Cowan, Nicole M. Guidotti-Hernández, and Jason Ruiz, special issue editors

On beaches and online, and in boardrooms, temples, and taverns, sexual practices have always influenced imperial power relations. In the many places where colonialism still affects economics, sex and sexuality remain a driving force. The contributors to this issue contemplate empire as a global process involving sexualized subjects and objects, with essays that consider the history of sex and empire across several disciplines.

1970s Feminisms

An issue of SAQ: South Atlantic Quarterly (114:4)

Lisa Disch, special issue editor

For more than a decade, feminist historians and historiographers have challenged the “third wave” portrait of 1970s feminism as essentialist, white, middle-class, uninterested in racism, and theoretically naive. They have sought to set the record straight about women’s liberation by interrogating how that image took hold in the public imagination and among academic feminists. This issue invites feminist theorists to return to women’s liberation—to the texts, genres, and cultural productions to which the movement gave rise—for a more nuanced look at its conceptual and political consequences.

"The Making of the West provides a comprehensive and wide-ranging text that is both accessible to students and an excellent teaching tool for instructors."

— Gregory Halfond,
Framingham State University

The Making of the West tells the story of the cross-cultural exchanges that have shaped Western civilization, weaving together the different strands of history—social, cultural, political, economic, intellectual—to help students focus on “big picture” ideas, themes, and trends. With a chronological narrative that offers a truly global perspective, it charts the West’s emergence, explaining its position in the world today and emphasizing the role of borderlands and non-European regions in this process.

This new edition features a wealth of new scholarship, with particular attention to deepening the book’s coverage of Islam and the roots of conflict in the Middle East. For the first time, this text is available in LaunchPad, the comprehensive digital solution that brings together a complete e-book, companion reader, and activities to develop comparative, visual, and quantitative analysis skills, plus LearningCurve to ensure students come to class prepared.
