The 132nd annual meeting of the Association will be held January 4–7, 2018, in Washington. More than 1,500 scholars will participate in the four-day meeting. In addition, more than 50 specialized societies and organizations have scheduled sessions and luncheons in partnership with the Association. AHA awards and honors will be announced on Thursday, January 4, followed by the plenary session. Tyler Stovall, University of California, Santa Cruz, will deliver the presidential address on Friday, January 5.

Hotel Accommodations

The AHA has reserved blocks of rooms at the following hotels, all located in northwest Washington.

	Single	Double	Triple	Quadruple
Marriott Wardman Park 2660 Woodley Rd. NW Headquarters	$145	$175	$185	$215
Omni Shoreham Hotel 2500 Calvert St. NW Co-Headquarters	$145	$175	$205	$235
Washington Hilton 1919 Connecticut Ave. NW	$145	$175	$205	$235

Please see Hotels and Travel (www.historians.org/annual-meeting/hotels-and-travel) on the AHA website for details.

Making a Hotel Reservation

Attendees should reserve a room through the AHA's housing service, Experient. Attendees will be able to make reservations online through a link on the AHA website or by calling toll free at 800-967-8852. International registrants may call 847-996-5832. Attendees interested in reserving suites should e-mail AHA@experient-inc.com for more information about suite types and rates.

Reservation Dates

Reservations can be made by Internet or phone between September 13 and December 12, 2017. The last day to make or change reservations through the housing service is December 12, 2017. After that date, remaining inventory in each hotel's block will be released and rates are no longer guaranteed. After December 12, all reservations, changes, and cancellations must be made directly with the hotels.

Credit Card Guarantee

All reservations must be guaranteed with a major credit card or deposit of one night's room rate and taxes. Cancellations must be made 72 hours prior to the scheduled arrival date or hotels will charge a cancellation fee of one night's room and tax.

Shuttle Bus

Your registration includes a free shuttle bus that will circulate between the hotels during meeting hours. Buses will depart every twenty minutes. There will be a dispatcher at each hotel to assist attendees with information. Buses will pick up and drop off passengers from the Marriott's 24th Street entrance, the Omni Shoreham's main entrance on Calvert Street, and the Hilton's T Street entrance on the terrace level.

Hours:

Thursday, January 4, 11 a.m.–10 p.m.

Friday, January 5, 8 a.m.–9 p.m.

Saturday, January 6, 8 a.m.–10 p.m.

Sunday, January 7, 8:30 a.m.–1 p.m.

Information for Persons with Disabilities

Find general information and resources at wheelchairtravel.org/washington-dc/.

Accommodations for Persons with Disabilities

All meeting hotels have accessible lobbies; several have autoslide doors. Thresholds and doormats are in compliance with American with Disabilities Act (ADA) regulations and door-service personnel are available at most properties. Lobbies have marble floors and/or low-pile area carpeting. Elevators connect all levels of each property. Each elevator has a wheelchair-accessible keypad, Braille numerals beside each control button, and audible direction. Restrooms in lobbies and on meeting room floors are wheelchair accessible and have tactile signage.

All hotels have accessible registration desks or provide clipboards to guests to complete registration documentation. All hotels have accessible guest rooms. The number of such rooms at each property is noted in the listing below. Among other amenities, these rooms feature wheelchair-accessible doors, lever door handles, security peepholes, ample room space, grab bars in restrooms, low sinks with insulated pipes, accessible towel racks, and accessible mirrors. The following auxiliary aids are available at most properties: flashing fire alarm, doorbell, and telephone; vibrating alarm clock; closed-caption decoders; Braille signage; and TDD telephones.

Marriott Wardman Park

All areas of the facility are wheelchair accessible. Electronic doors are located at all main lobby entrances. All elevators are equipped with Braille signage. Additionally, restrooms and drinking fountains are ADA accessible.

Parking: There are 10 self-parking spaces inside the garage. The garage height limit is 5' 10". Valet parking is also offered at an additional cost. Parking garages are accessible with ramps and elevators.

Guest Rooms: There are 28 ADA rooms with king beds and 3 ADA rooms with 2 double beds distributed throughout the hotel. Some of the rooms available are equipped for hearing access only, with the rest having accommodations for hearing and mobility.

Meeting Rooms: All rooms and floors of the hotel are accessible. There are stairs in Balcony A and B, but there is a lift for wheelchairs. All other areas are accessible by elevator or ramps.

Restaurants: The restaurants are on the lobby level and are accessible.

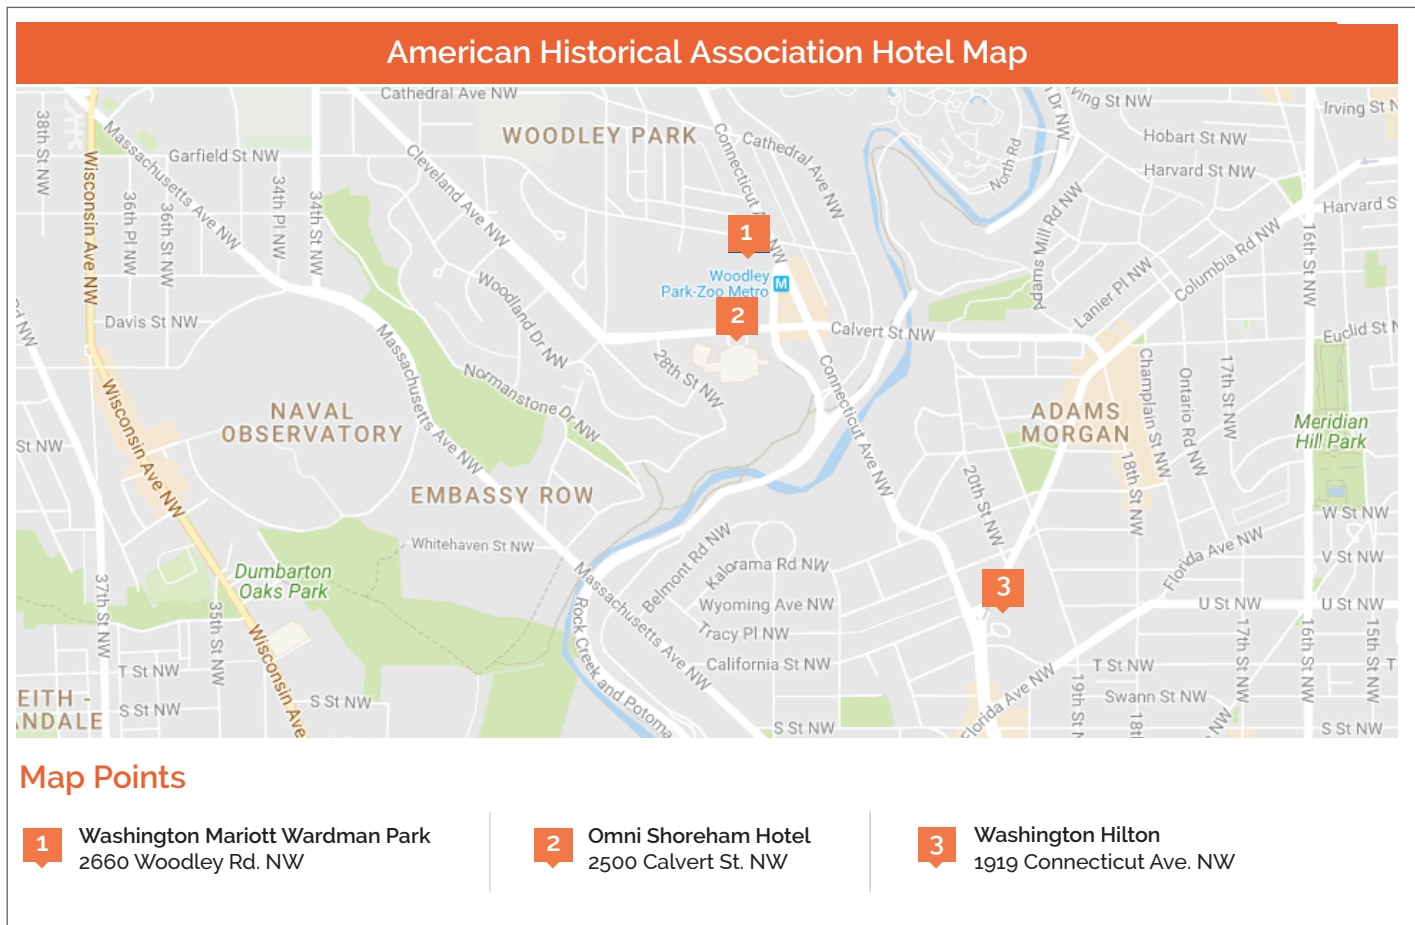

Omni Shoreham Hotel

Parking: The hotel provides valet parking only, with an open-air lot to accommodate oversized vehicles.

Guest rooms: The hotel has 42 ADA rooms (including 1 suite) with roll-in showers or standard tubs with grab bars.

Meeting Rooms: All rooms and floors of the historic hotel are accessible. There is a ramp to the lobby to the left of the main entrance. There are fully accessible elevators between all meeting rooms and floors. Consult the hotel map for the elevator that serves a particular room. The Regency and Ambassador Ballrooms have an ADA lift. Take the West Promenade elevators to level 1B then access the wheelchair lift to both ballrooms. Hotel employees are available to assist with the wheelchair lift.

Map of the Area

Restaurants: Robert's Restaurant is accessible by elevator; Morsel's (coffee shop) and marquee Lounge (evening bar) are on the lobby level.

Other Amenities: The fitness center is accessible by the West Promenade elevator.

Washington Hilton

Parking: The hotel provides valet and self-service parking. The garage height restriction is 6' 4". Vehicles over the height limit may park on the front drive, space permitting. Hotel policy prohibits valet staff from operating vehicles with hand-operated gas and breaks.

Guest rooms: The hotel has 21 ADA rooms with 2 double beds (15 of which have roll-in showers), 7 ADA rooms with one king bed (1 of which has a roll-in shower), 2 parlors, and 1 suite.

Meeting rooms: All meeting rooms can be accessed via elevator.

Restaurants: All restaurants are ADA accessible and located on the lobby level.

Other amenities: The fitness center can be entered through the terrace level, at the very end of the hallway. The pool, located in the fitness center, has a wheelchair lift.

Accessible Transportation

The public transportation system in Washington, DC, is fully accessible. Consult the Metro website for a list of escalator and elevator outages (www.wmata.com).

Wheelchair-accessible, ADA compliant taxi vans are available within the Washington metropolitan area. Wheelchair taxis can be ordered on demand within the city and at all three area airports, but advance reservation is recommended.

The following companies are authorized to make pick-ups within the District of Columbia:

Royal Taxi	(202) 398-0500
Yellow Taxi	(202) 544-1213

Scooter rentals are available by contacting ScootAround (888-441-7575, www.scootaround.com).

Service Animals Welcome

The American Historical Association is committed to making the annual meeting accessible. Service animals are welcome at all events, sessions, and venues. The ADA protects the right of people with disabilities to be accompanied by trained service animals in public places. Remember, not all disabilities are visible and service animals are not required to wear special equipment or tags. Service animals are working and should not be distracted without permission.

Fragrance

Please help us to accommodate attendees who are sensitive to fragrances by refraining from wearing scented products.

Sign Interpreting

Members with hearing impairment who will need sign-interpreting service at the AHA annual meeting must notify the AHA Headquarters Office and register for the meeting by December 1, 2017. The request should include the sessions they plan to attend. The AHA will, with the assistance of the Registry of Interpreters, secure the services of appropriate interpreters. The AHA will assume the cost for up to nine hours of sign language interpreting service or a maximum of $400 per member, whichever is less.

An interpreter may also be provided upon request for the presidential address (Friday, January 5) and the annual business meeting (Saturday, January 6).

Assistive listening devices are also available on request.

Please contact Debbie Doyle at ddoyle@historians.org by December 1, 2017, if you would like to request an interpreter or assistive listening device.

Transportation to Washington

See historians.org/annual-meeting for complete details about transportation, including discounts for AHA members and attendees.

Airports

The nation's capital is served by three airports. Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport (DCA), located in Arlington, Virginia, is the closest airport to DC. Washington Dulles International Airport (IAD) is approximately 30 miles west of Washington and Baltimore-Washington International Thurgood Marshall Airport (BWI) is 40 miles north of Washington. National Airport is connected to the city by its own Metro stop.

Taxi Service

Taxis are readily available at designated exits at the airports.

Arriving by Train

Amtrak serves Washington's Union Station (50 Massachusetts Ave.). The station is on the Metro's Red line.

Metro (www.wmata.com) is the region's rapid transit system. The Marriott Wardman Park and Omni Shoreham hotels are within a block of the Woodley

Park-Zoo/Adams Morgan station on the Red Line. The Hilton is four blocks from the Dupont Circle Station on the Red Line. Riders must purchase a rechargeable fare card at any station.

Van Service

Super Shuttle offers service from the ground transportation area of the airport to all of the major downtown hotels for $25 per person one way or $40 round trip. See historians.org/annual-meeting to take advantage of a discount for AHA attendees.

Parking

All hotels have parking available at rates ranging from $37 to $42 overnight. Find discounts on other nearby lots with SpotHero. See historians.org/annual-meeting for information.

Meeting Registration

Take advantage of reduced rates by preregistering for the conference. Make sure your membership is up to date so you can enjoy member pricing at each level. Register online at historians.org/annual-meeting/registration.

Advance registration must be completed by midnight on December 15, 2017. After that, onsite rates will apply. Registration materials, including badges, will be distributed at the meeting during registration hours, posted on page vi.

Everyone attending the meeting must register. In addition, all US historians presenting at AHA sessions must be AHA members. Admission to the Exhibit Hall and Job Center requires a registration badge.

Refund Policy

Advance registrants who are unable to attend the meeting may request a refund of their registration fee. Cancellations and refund requests should be submitted in writing by December 15, 2017. Refunds will be processed less a $20 administrative fee. No refunds will be issued for requests postmarked or e-mailed after December 15, 2017. Refunds will not be given for no-shows. Cancellations and refund requests should be submitted to the American Historical Association, Business Office, 400 A St. SE, Washington, DC 20003 or e-mailed to borgodol@historians.org. Proof of payment—copies of front and back of cancelled check or copy of credit card statement—may also be required.

Quiet Room

The AHA will make a Quiet Room available in the Marriott's Park Tower Room 8219. The room will have free wireless Internet access. Although the room is of particular use to those on the job market, it is also available for all conference attendees as a place to sit for a few minutes of quiet time.

All-Gender Restrooms

All-gender restrooms will be available at the Marriott Wardman Park on the lobby level near the Delaware Suite; the Omni Shoreham Hotel in the east promenade; and the Washington Hilton on the terrace level inside Columbia Hall. All are welcome to use the restroom that best fits their identity.

A nursing mothers' room will be located on the lobby level of the Marriott Wardman Park in Park Tower Room 8228. The Washington Hilton has a nursing mother's room located on the terrace level; the access code is 9900. The rooms are equipped with comfortable furniture and a private area for nursing mothers.

Childcare

Grants to subsidize childcare are available by application. Please visit historians.org/childcaregrants for more information.

Formal childcare services will not be provided at the meeting. Attendees should make arrangements directly with a provider prior to arriving in Washington (some options are noted below). The AHA assumes no responsibility with respect to these services and accepts no liabilities related to the services provided.

Business Meeting

The AHA Council, divisions, and committees will report to the Association at the annual business meeting. Reports are subject to discussion and appropriate motions relating to them. Resolutions on other matters for the business meeting will be handled as follows: (1) resolutions signed by 100 members of the Association will be accepted until November 1, 2017, and (2) must be no more than 300 words in length. Resolutions should be sent to the Executive Director at the AHA headquarters.

Only AHA members and others who receive permission from the Council may attend the business meeting. Please confirm in advance that your membership is up to date.

Affiliated Societies

The Atrium at the Marriott Wardman Park has been reserved from 11:30 a.m.–2:30 p.m. on Friday, January 6, for affiliated societies to display materials and to meet with members of the profession.

Recording Policy

The AHA and the press occasionally record sessions for use in broadcast and electronic media, and film or photograph public areas at the meeting.

Registration, attendance, or participation at the meeting constitutes an agreement to the use of the attendee's image in photographs, video, audio, and electronic communications. Presenters who do not wish for their session to be recorded may opt out by contacting annualmeeting@historians.org. In order to encourage open debate and allow members to speak as freely as possible, the AHA does not permit audio or video recording of its business meeting. Anyone who wishes to conduct audio or video recording must obtain permission from participants in advance. The AHA is not responsible for unauthorized recording but does reserve the right to revoke registration of anyone who records sessions without appropriate permissions.

Live Tweeting

To facilitate virtual conversations arising from the annual meeting, the AHA encourages attendees to live tweet using #AHA18. Participants are encouraged to share their Twitter handles. Speakers presenting material that they do not wish to be live tweeted should make a request to the audience at the beginning of their presentations.

Tours Organized by the Local Arrangements Committee

The Local Arrangements Committee has organized 12 tours highlighting the historical resources of Washington, DC. Participants will have a unique opportunity to take these tours with their fellow historians.

Preregistration for tours is highly recommended. Tour tickets are nonrefundable and cannot be exchanged. Tour participants must be registered for the AHA meeting. Log in to the Registration Resource Center or call (508) 743-0510 to add tickets to an existing registration.

Tour groups will meet in Room 8226 at the Marriott Wardman Park.

Tours may travel by bus or Metro. Fares and admission fees are included in the price of the tour unless otherwise specified. The Metro system is accessible. See the tour descriptions for details about the accessibility of each tour site. Accessible buses or alternate transportation for people with disabilities will be available on request. Contact annualmeeting@historians.org for additional information.

WORKSHOPS

Thursday, January 4, 8:30 a.m.–12:00 p.m.

International Society for the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning in History Session 1

Learning from Evidence: Using Student Work to Understand Their Learning

Marriott Wardman Park, Maryland Suite C

Historians are used to reading texts as evidence to construct accounts of change and continuity over time. But we tend simply to evaluate the work students do for us, rather than draw explicitly on our competencies as historians. In this workshop, participants will read student work together like historians, to uncover not just what students know, but also how they think and what they can do. They will learn simple, but sophisticated, techniques for analyzing and summarizing the work and discuss the concepts and competencies students should learn to make their history education as authentic to our discipline as possible.

No charge; because space is limited, free advance registration is required. Please note that you do not need to pick up your badge before attending the pre-meeting workshop.

Chair: Leah Shopkow, Indiana University

Panel: Flannery Burke, Saint Louis University
Peter Burkholder, Fairleigh Dickinson University
Lendol G. Calder, Augustana College
Joel M. Sipress, University of Wisconsin–Superior
Laura M. Westhoff, University of Missouri–St. Louis

Thursday, January 4, 9:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m.

College Board

Symposium on Advanced Placement History

Marriott Wardman Park, Wilson Room A

The College Board invites interested historians and history educators to an interactive event to learn more about Advanced Placement Program courses in European, United States, and world history. Attendees will have access to higher education faculty and teachers involved in course development to learn how AP curricula and exams are changing to focus on developing students' ability to think historically, as well as on innovative ways that history teaching comes alive in the AP history classroom. Participants will also discuss how the AP experience helps inspire students to become future history majors.

Presented in collaboration with the AHA Teaching Division.

Please note that you do not need to pick up your badge before attending the pre-meeting workshop.

Chair: Lawrence G. Charap, College Board

Panel: Juliana Barr, Duke University
Paul R. Deslandes, University of Vermont
Rick Warner, Wabash College

Thursday, January 4, 9:00 a.m.–1:00 p.m.

Getting Started in Digital History Workshop

Marriott Wardman Park, Thurgood Marshall South

The AHA will run its fifth Getting Started in Digital History workshop immediately prior to the start of the 2018 meeting. More and more of our attendees describe themselves as skilled digital historians, so each session will include a clear skill range that lets beginners get a good handle on digital history and gives returning intermediate attendees the chance to learn new skills in a comfortable, approachable environment.

Ten sessions will include collaboration and project management for digital projects, digital storytelling, network analysis, data and text mining, history pedagogy with digital mapping and material culture, and a toolkit for multi-method digital approaches that integrates text analysis, timelines, and mapping. Our plenary lunch session, “Table Talks,” offers attendees the chance to network and chat in an informal setting with fellow attendees and session leaders as they delve into other important issues in digital history.

Registration for the workshop can be purchased in advance through the registration form for $45 for AHA members, $10 for student members, $50 for nonmembers, and $20 for student nonmembers. Registration includes a boxed lunch. Please note that you do not need to pick up your badge before attending the pre-meeting workshop. We look forward to seeing you there.

LOCAL ARRANGEMENTS COMMITTEE TOURS

Thursday, January 4, 12:30–4:00 p.m.

Tour 1: The Frederick Douglass Home and National Historic Site

Marriott Wardman Park, Park Tower 8226

Tour leader: Ka'mal McClarin, Douglass Home and National Historic Site

The curator of the historic site will lead a tour of the Douglass home, Cedar Hill, the last residence (1878–95) of the 19th-century African American leader. Douglass escaped from slavery as a young man and became an unrelenting voice in the struggle for freedom and equality before the Civil War and beyond. The tour will provide insight into Douglass's active political and warm family life. The spacious estate and its material culture tell many stories: of Douglass the family man, author, orator, and public figure; of Douglass's interest in literature, games, music, health, learning, and travel; and of the people in Douglass's life such as Abraham Lincoln, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, and John Brown.

Please note: Participants will travel by bus. The visitor center is ADA compliant. However, the historic house is at the top of a large hill and the second floor is accessible only by stairs.

Limit 15 people. $20 members, $25 nonmembers

Thursday, January 4, 1:00–4:30 p.m.

Tour 2: Tour of The Value of Money Exhibition and the National Numismatic Collection at the National Museum of American History

Marriott Wardman Park, Park Tower 8226

Tour leader: Ellen Feingold, National Museum of American History, Smithsonian Institution

This curator-led tour will take participants through The Value of Money exhibition and behind the scenes in the National Numismatic Collection—a world-class collection of approximately 1.6 million historic monetary and transactional objects.

The Value of Money celebrates the power of using monetary objects to explore history. With objects from every inhabited continent, spanning more than 2,600 years, this exhibition showcases the National Numismatic Collection's unique strengths, including the geographic and chronological diversity of the collection and the stunning rarities it contains. It examines the origins of money, new monetary technologies, the political and cultural messages money conveys, numismatic art and design, and the practice of collecting money. The Value of Money connects American history to global histories of exchange, cultural interaction and expression, political change, and innovation.

Please note: Participants should provide their own fare card for the free tour. The group will travel by Metro; the museum is a 5-minute walk from the Federal Triangle station. The museum is ADA compliant.

Limit 30 people. Free advance registration required

24. Research and Scholarship in Federal History Jobs

Marriott Wardman Park, Delaware Suite A

Ever wonder what kind of work federal historians do? This session provides a unique view into the kinds of research and writing jobs performed by federal historians. Each panelist will provide a detailed discussion of some of their work projects, day to day experiences working as a federal historian, and insights into how working for the federal government impacts the historical research and writing of the scholar. The session will be followed by a workshop on applying for federal jobs.

LOCAL ARRANGEMENTS COMMITTEE TOURS

Thursday, January 4, 1:30–4:30 p.m.

Tour 3: The Folger Shakespeare Library

Marriott Wardman Park, Park Tower 8226

Tour leader: Library staff

The Folger Shakespeare Library holds the world's largest collection of Shakespeare materials and major collections of Renaissance books, manuscripts, and art. The library building, opened in 1932, is a national historic landmark.

Please note: The group will travel by Metro (fare card provided); the library is a 5-minute walk from the Capitol South station. The library is ADA compliant.

Limit 50 people. $20 members, $25 nonmembers

Thursday, January 4, 2:00–5:00 p.m.

Tour 4: Tour of Decatur House Led by the White House Historical Association

Marriott Wardman Park, Park Tower 8226

Tour leader: Evan Phifer, White House Historical Association

Built in 1818, Decatur House has been home to foreign and American dignitaries, secretaries of state, members of Congress, and a vice president, in addition to numerous free and enslaved servants who played a pivotal role in shaping America. Decatur House is one of only a few remaining examples of slave quarters in an urban setting.

The White House Historical Association, founded by First Lady Jacqueline Kennedy in 1961, is a private non-profit educational organization with a mission to enhance the understanding and appreciation of the Executive Mansion.

The David M. Rubenstein National Center for White House History, established in 2010 and located at historic Decatur House, offers programs that enhance the understanding of the Executive Mansion and stimulate a sense of history and pride in our country.

Please note: The group will travel by Metro (fare card provided); the house is a 5-minute walk from the Farragut North station. The first and second floor parlors are wheelchair accessible, but the house does include several stairways.

Limit 40 people. $20 members, $25 nonmembers

29. Digital Projects Lightning Round

Omni Shoreham, Palladian Ballroom

Organized by the AHA Research Division

This lightning round invites historians working on digital projects to share their work in a series of three-minute presentations. With space for approximately 20 participants, this session is an excellent opportunity for scholars to get feedback on projects at any stage of development, hear about other types of projects and methods, and network with other digital historians. We are now accepting abstracts from those looking to participate. To submit an abstract, e-mail Stephanie Kingsley at skingsley@historians.org with the subject "Digital Projects Lightning Round Submission." Please include an 80-word abstract and the title of your project.

Film Screening: In Our Son's Name: A Family Responds to 9/11

Omni Shoreham, Congressional Room A

Gayla Jamison, director (Lightfoot Films, 2015)

Joint session with the Peace History Society

In Our Son's Name is an intimate portrait of Phyllis and Orlando Rodríguez, whose son, Greg, dies in the World Trade Center on September 11, 2001. The bereaved parents choose reconciliation and nonviolence over vengeance and begin a transformative journey that both confirms and challenges their convictions. They speak out against war in Iraq and Afghanistan, publicly oppose the death penalty of avowed 9/11 conspirator Zacarias Moussaoui, and befriend his mother. As their search for meaning evolves they speak out against anti-Muslim actions and find peace in working with prison inmates.

LOCAL ARRANGEMENTS COMMITTEE TOURS

Friday, January 5, 10:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m.

Tour 6: Echoes of the Great War: American Experiences of World War I

Marriott Wardman Park, Park Tower 8226

Tour leaders: Ryan Reft, Library of Congress and Sahr Conway-Lanz, Library of Congress

Echoes of the Great War: American Experiences of World War I examines the upheaval of world war as Americans confronted it at home and abroad. Drawing on the Library of Congress's extensive multi-format collections on World War I, the exhibition considers the debates and struggles that surrounded US engagement; explores US military and home front mobilization and the immensity of industrialized warfare; and touches on the war's effects, as an international peace settlement was negotiated, national borders were redrawn, and soldiers returned to reintegrate into American society.

Please note: The group will travel by Metro (fare card provided); the library is a 5-minute walk from the Capitol South station. The library is ADA compliant.

Limit 30 people. $20 members, $25 nonmembers

Friday, January 5, 10:15 a.m.–1:00 p.m.

Tour 7: Seeing Ancient Mesoamerica: Behind the Scenes of the Kislak Collection of the Archaeology of the Early Americas at the Library of Congress

Marriott Wardman Park, Park Tower 8226

Tour leader: John Hessler, Library of Congress

This tour will give attendees a behind the scenes look at the storage vaults where the archaeological treasures of the Americas held in the collections of the Library of Congress reside. Participants will experience first-hand the rare and important examples of Maya, Aztec, Taino, Inca, and Wari art and artifacts held by the library and get a look at some of the research taking place on these priceless pieces of cultural heritage.

Please note: The group will travel by Metro (fare card provided); the library is a 5-minute walk from the Capitol South station.

Limit 25 people. $10

LOCAL ARRANGEMENTS COMMITTEE TOUR

Friday, January 5, 2:00–5:30 p.m.

Tour 9: Giving in America: The Material Culture of Philanthropy at the National Museum of American History

Marriott Wardman Park, Park Tower 8226

Tour leader: Amanda Moniz, National Museum of American History, Smithsonian Institution

The National Museum of American History's philanthropy initiative invites historians interested in American philanthropy and humanitarianism, broadly conceived, to join Amanda Moniz, the David M. Rubenstein Curator of Philanthropy, for a tour and conversation at the museum.

Launched in 2015, the philanthropy initiative is a long-term project to collect, research, document, and display materials relating to the history and impact of American giving, broadly defined—from gifts of time and expertise to social activism and funding. An annual program, The Power of Giving: Philanthropy's Impact on American Life, and new exhibition, Giving in America, explore the collaborative power of giving in all forms and at all levels across a wide spectrum of issues and movements. Annual themes focus on specific areas of giving—this year's focus is sustainability and the environment—and are designed to help visitors make connections between historic and contemporary giving and each individual's part in future solutions.

During the visit, we will tour the new Giving in America exhibit, discuss the philanthropy collecting plan, and discuss material culture approaches to studying the history of philanthropy.

Please note: The group will travel by Metro (fare card provided); the museum is a 5-minute walk from the Federal Triangle station. The museum is ADA compliant.

Limit 20 people. $10

WORKSHOP

Friday, January 5, 2:30–5:30 p.m.

Workshop: Preparing for the Nonacademic Job Search

Marriott Wardman Park, Marriott Ballroom, Salon 2

Join us for a three-hour workshop designed to help graduate students and postdocs learn more about searching for a job outside academia. The presentation will detail how nonacademic employers look at people with PhD training, what students can do to prepare to enter the job market, and the mechanics of the nonacademic job search. By the end of the workshop, attendees should be able to conduct a nonacademic job search, should they ever want or need to. The session is suitable for students and postdocs at any stage of their work.

FILM FESTIVAL

Friday, January 5, 3:30–5:30 p.m.

Film Screening: Adios Amor: The Search for Maria Moreno

Omni Shoreham, Congressional Room A

Laurie Coyle, director (2017)

In Adios Amor, the discovery of forgotten photographs prompts the search for an unsung heroine—Maria Moreno, a migrant mother who sacrificed everything but her twelve kids in the passionate pursuit of justice for farmworkers. Years before Cesar Chavez and Dolores Huerta launched the UFW, Maria picked up the only weapon she had—her voice—and became an outspoken leader in an era when women were relegated to the background. The first farm worker woman in America to be hired as a union organizer, Maria took her crusade all the way to the nation's capital, and yet her story was lost to history.

Jeff Hardwick, National Endowment for the Humanities, will introduce the film and will be joined for a discussion afterward by Laurie Coyle, director; Vicki Ruiz, University of California, Irvine; Karen Kenton, National Endowment for the Humanities; Ernest Lowe, photographer and radio producer; and Mary Wallace, Walter Reuther Library, Wayne State University.

AHA COMMITTEE ON GENDER EQUITY BREAKFAST MEETING

Saturday, January 6, 8:00–9:30 a.m.

Breakfast Meeting of the AHA Committee on Gender Equity

Marriott Wardman Park, Marriott Ballroom, Salon 1

Sponsored by the Berkshire Conference of Women Historians

This annual networking breakfast provides an exciting and unique opportunity to meet scholars across generations working in all fields. This year it has a new name, reflecting the new name of the committee (formerly the Committee on Women Historians). We warmly invite anyone with an interest in gender history to this year's breakfast.

Continental breakfast is open to all; tickets are $35 for members, $50 for nonmembers, $15 for student members, and $35 for student nonmembers. Tickets can be purchased in advance through the registration form or at the meeting at the onsite registration counters. Preregistration is urged; a very limited number of tickets will be available at the meeting.

AHA members may bring a student nonmember to the breakfast at the student member rate. Contact annualmeeting@historians.org for details.

WORKSHOP

Saturday, January 6, 9:30 a.m.–12:30 p.m.K–16 Educators' Workshop: Perspectives on World War I: The Everyday and the GlobalMarriott Wardman Park, Maryland Suite C*

Sponsored by the College Board

Organized with the Society for Military History, the United States World War I Centennial Commission, and the Library of Congress

How does the narrative of World War I change with a focus on ordinary people who fought and suffered in it? How does the story differ across global perspectives? This interactive workshop will begin with a keynote by Leila Fawaz, Tufts University, on research from her recent book on the Middle East during and after World War I. This will be followed by a primary source analysis workshop, drawing on documents from the Library of Congress representing global perspectives on the experience of World War I.

No charge; because space is limited, free advance registration is required.

ImaginePhD and Career Diversity: Integrating Self Assessment, Career Exploration, and Planning into History Departments

Marriott Wardman Park, Marriott Ballroom, Salon 2

Launched in fall 2017, ImaginePhD is a free and confidential career exploration and planning tool for humanities and social science PhDs. Powered by the Graduate Career Consortium, and created by more than 80 PhD career and professional development leaders across the United States and Canada, this platform provides a unique opportunity for PhDs to assess their skills, interests, and values; map those onto career paths; and create an individual development plan that supports degree completion and professional/personal development. Please join Annie Maxfield, ImaginePhD project design and development lead and user experience chair, for this interactive training session to learn how to use this tool in your department and integrate it into career diversity initiatives. To make the most of this session, please bring a laptop or iPad.

Chair: Annie Maxfield, Career Center, University of California, Los Angeles

AHA CAREER FAIR

Saturday, January 6, 1:00–4:00 p.m.

Career Fair

Marriott Wardman Park, Marriott Ballroom, Salon 2

Sponsored by the AHA's Career Diversity for Historians initiative

The AHA will hold its fifth Career Fair during the 2018 annual meeting. The Career Fair introduces job candidates and students to historians working in a wide variety of careers. Advisers will be available for informational interviews and informal conversations to share their experiences about how to transition from history studies to careers within and beyond the professoriate. Last year, advisers came from business, academic administration, universities, independent schools, community colleges, historical societies, government, and publishing. All AHA annual meeting attendees are invited to participate; contact Dylan Ruediger at druediger@historians.org for more information.

Ask an Assistant Professor

Marriott Wardman Park, Marriott Ballroom, Salon 2

What is a professor job actually like? This informal event, held in conjunction with the Career Fair, provides graduate students and others interested in academic careers the chance to speak freely with faculty from a wide variety of institutions about their work as teachers, administrators, and scholars. All AHA annual meeting attendees are invited to participate; contact Dylan Ruediger at druediger@historians.org for more information.

212. Reacting to the Past Workshop, Part 1: The Frederick Douglass Reacting to the Past Game: A Participatory Pedagogy for College Classrooms on Slavery and Abolitionism

Omni Shoreham, Empire Ballroom

In this workshop, participants will play a condensed version of the Reacting to the Past game, Frederick Douglass, Slavery, and the Constitution: 1845. Participants will be assigned distinct, unique roles, like students in an actual class playing the game over several weeks, but this workshop is highly condensed. As in all reacting games, each person will seek to advance the victory objectives of their assigned character. Unlike in regular classes, no written work is required, but participants should make short speeches, in character, advocating the goals and beliefs of their assigned character.

After a short break, the workshop will be followed by a session discussing the limits and possibilities of embodied performance as a teaching tool for this particular subject and more generally as a method for delivering historical content and complexity in the undergraduate classroom.

No charge; because space is limited, free advance registration is required by December 15.

Chair: Mark D. Higbee, Eastern Michigan University

WORKSHOP

Saturday, January 6, 3:30–5:30 p.m.

Oral History Jukebox

Omni Shoreham, Palladian Ballroom

The Oral History Jukebox is an open, informal exchange where oral historians of all experience levels and backgrounds come together to listen and learn. This workshop will turn an open ear to the granularity of oral history recordings, searching the medium for key insights into the field. Interested participants are asked to submit a 1–2 minute excerpt from an oral history interview that they find particularly fascinating or instructive, and to briefly explain what this particular moment has taught them about their approach to oral history—whether that be an insight into interview technique, processing, archiving, crowdsourcing, or program management. Submit the information at historians.org/jukebox. The workshop will open with a lightning round of audio-clip presentations that illustrate a diverse range of lessons learned and teachable moments. Participants will then break into smaller groups to consider additional excerpts and contemplations. The session will conclude with reflections on where the Oral History Jukebox can go next, as we think through ethical considerations for crowdsourcing an online repository of interview excerpts and self-reflections created for and by oral historians.

No charge. Because space is limited, free advance registration is required.

FILM FESTIVALSaturday, January 6, 3:30–5:00 p.m.*Film Screening: *An Outrage*Omni Shoreham, Congressional Room A*

Hannah Ayres and Lance Warren, directors (Field Studio, 2017)

This documentary about lynching in the American South was filmed on location at lynching sites in six states.

The screening will be followed by a conversation with Yohura Williams, Fairfield University; filmmakers Lance Warren and Hannah Ayres; and a high school teacher who has used the film in class.

POSTER SESSIONSaturday, January 6, 3:30–5:30 p.m.Undergraduate Poster SessionMarriott Wardman Park, Atrium

The Program Committee encourages all meeting attendees to visit the posters on display and engage in considered dialogue and engaging interaction with presenters. Participants will be announced online.

WORKSHOPSaturday, January 6, 3:45–4:45 p.m.Teaching and Learning Networking OpportunityMarriott Wardman Park, Hoover Room

This is just an hour, a space, and an open invitation. We're hoping that this event will help those who are interested in teaching and learning to find each other, build strong professional networks, and advance the cause of teaching and learning issues among the larger community of historians.

LOCAL ARRANGEMENTS COMMITTEE TOURSaturday, January 6, 4:00–5:30 p.m.*Tour 10: The African American Civil War Memorial and Museum in the Historic U Street NeighborhoodMarriott Wardman Park, Park Tower 8226Tour leader: Frank Smith, African American Civil War Memorial and Museum

Founder and executive director Frank Smith will lead a tour of the memorial and museum, situating them in the historic black U Street neighborhood. The neighborhood was once known as DC's "Black Broadway" and is home of the famous Ben's Chili Bowl. The memorial and museum are unique in being dedicated to the black men who fought for the Union in the Civil War, whose names are inscribed on the memorial. Exhibits explore the service of black men and their family members in support of the Union cause, in the context of the struggle against slavery as well as of black military service before and after the Civil War. The tour will conclude with reflections on the future of the changing neighborhood in a gentrifying DC and on the future expansion of the museum into the Grimké school next door (named for Archibald Grimké).

Please note: Participants will travel by bus to and from the museum. The museum is ADA compliant.

Limit 50 people. $20 members, $25 nonmembers

Matthew Gilmore will lead an exploration of the lesser-known aspects of Foggy Bottom and the West End—a neighborhood that has witnessed, participated in, and reflects Washington, DC's unique history. The tour will illustrate the neighborhood's shift from an industrial and residential area to an institutional and entertainment destination.

Participants will travel from the Washington's first circle (The Circle) to the last remaining early industrial site in the city, along part of the avenue, then through the historic district and alley dwellings, and finally to the transformed Foggy Bottom of the Kennedy Center and Watergate. Additional stops include St. Mary's Church, Columbia Plaza, the United States Institute of Peace, Braddock Rock, and more.

Please note: This walking tour involves walking a total of 2 miles over moderate terrain. Participants will travel to and from the start of the walking tour by bus.

Limit 20 people. $20 members, $25 nonmembers

Sunday, January 7, 10:30 a.m.–1:00 p.m.Tour 13: President Lincoln's CottageMarriott Wardman Park, Park Tower 8226Tour leader: Museum staff

President Lincoln's Cottage is a historic site and museum located in the Petworth neighborhood of northwest Washington, DC. President Lincoln's Cottage first opened to the public in February 2008, after an eight-year capital restoration project under the auspices of the National Trust for Historic Preservation. It is the only place the public can experience the history of Abraham Lincoln's public and private life, where he lived and worked for over a quarter of his presidency. While in residence at the cottage, Lincoln visited with wounded soldiers; spent time with self-emancipated men, women, and children; and developed the Emancipation Proclamation. The human cost of the Civil War surrounded him, undoubtedly impacting his thinking, and strengthened his resolve to challenge the status quo. We use Lincoln's example to inspire visitors to take their own path to greatness, and preserve this place as an authentic, tangible connection to the past and a beacon of hope for all who take up Lincoln's unfinished work.

Please note: Participants will travel by bus to and from the site. The site is ADA compliant.

Limit 20 people. $20 members, $25 nonmembers

AMERICAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION

133rd ANNUAL MEETING

CHICAGO • ILLINOIS
JANUARY 3-6, 2019

Call for Proposals for the 133rd Annual Meeting of the American Historical Association

The AHA's annual meeting is the largest yearly gathering of historians in the United States.

All historians are welcome and encouraged to submit proposals. The AHA also invites historically focused proposals from colleagues in related disciplines and from AHA affiliated societies. The Program Committee will consider all proposals that advance the study, teaching, and public presentation of history.

The Association seeks submissions on the histories of all places, periods, people, and topics; on the uses of diverse sources and methods, including digital history; and on theory and the uses of history itself in a wide variety of venues.

We invite proposals for sessions in a variety of formats and encourage lively interaction among presenters and with the audience.

Session Proposals

Sessions last for 90 minutes. Most sessions will be limited to four speakers plus a chair. The Program Committee will accept proposals for complete sessions only. We encourage organizers to build panels that bring together diverse perspectives.

Poster Proposals

The meeting will feature a poster session to allow historians to share their research through visual materials. Proposals for single, individual presentations may be submitted as posters.

The Program Committee welcomes proposals from all historians, whatever their institutional affiliation or status, and historians working outside the United States. With the exception of foreign scholars and those from other disciplines, all persons appearing on the program must be members of the AHA, although membership is not required to submit a proposal. All participants must register for the meeting when registration opens. The Association aspires to represent the full diversity of its membership at the annual meeting.

Although the annual meeting has a theme, the Program Committee does not consider proposals' relation to the theme in evaluating them.

Electronic submission only, by midnight PST on February 15, 2018.

Questions?

- Please review the annual meeting guidelines and more information at historians.org/annual-meeting/submit-a-proposal before applying.
- Send questions about policies, modes of presentation, and the electronic submission process to annualmeeting@historians.org.

BRILL

The Guatemala Collection

Government and Church Documents for Sacatepéquez (1587-1991)

Project Advisor: David Carey Jr., Loyola University Maryland

Spanning more than four hundred years, The Guatemala Collection: Government and Church Documents for Sacatepéquez (1587-1991) concentrates primarily on the national era, particularly 1824-1948. The vast majority of the documents—correspondence, annual reports, statistics, letters, litigation—found within The Guatemala Collection are copies from the Archivo General de Centroamérica and the Archivo Histórico Arquidiocesano “Francisco de Paula García Peláez” (formerly known as Archivo Eclesiástico de Guatemala) in Guatemala City.

In recent years, the latter has seldom been opened to the public. Colonial documents mainly come from the Archivo General de Indias in Seville, Spain. A few of the documents and transcripts come from the Centro de Investigaciones Regionales de Mesoamérica (CIRMA) in Antigua. In general, the documents are organized by place, theme, and chronology.

InQuizitive

INQUIZITIVE.WWNORTON.COM

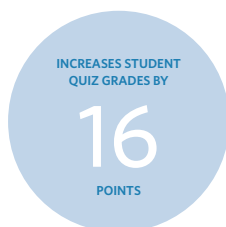

InQuizitive is Norton's award-winning, easy-to-use adaptive learning tool that personalizes the learning experience for students and helps them master key learning objectives. Through a variety of question types, featuring primary-source documents, images, and maps, answer-specific feedback, and game-like elements, students are motivated to keep working until they've mastered the concepts.

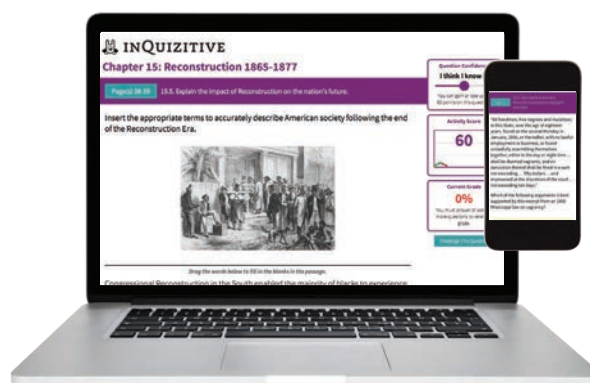

Results from the classroom

Nine out of ten students surveyed (2,493 survey responses) believe InQuizitive helped them do better in class.

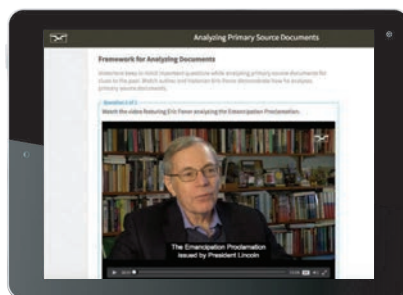

In an efficacy study, when students completed an InQuizitive activity prior to being given a summative quiz, student quiz grades increased by an average of 16 points.

History Skills Tutorials

The History Skills Tutorials combine video and interactive assessments to teach students how to analyze documents, images, and maps. By utilizing a three-step process, students learn a framework for analysis, watch the author of their text demonstrate how to apply that framework to a series of sources, and practice with assessments that test their understanding.

YEAR IN REVIEW 2016-17

Promoting the Value of Historical Work

- Broadcast the career success of history majors using recent federal census data
- Convened annual meeting sessions aired nationally on C-SPAN
- Increased the presence of graduate students, early career scholars, and historians beyond the academy in AHA publications
- Informed the Washington policy community and news outlets about historical perspectives on current events

Speaking Out against the Travel Ban

The AHA acted quickly and forcefully to oppose Executive Orders 13769 and 13780, pointing to their inaccurate historical foundation and deleterious impact on the work of historians and their students. Forty-three AHA affiliated societies endorsed the AHA's position. The AHA continues to challenge threats to the free exchange of scholarly ideas wherever and whenever they occur.

Supporting Historians Professionally

- Issued 13 statements to national and international leaders and 2 advocacy alerts to members and historians
- Collaborated with secondary and postsecondary instructors to craft user-friendly online teaching resources
- Launched a blog series on teaching with digital history
- Developed online resources to integrate Career Diversity for Historians into graduate teaching and advising
- Released Guidelines for the Doctoral Dissertation Process

"Where Historians Work"

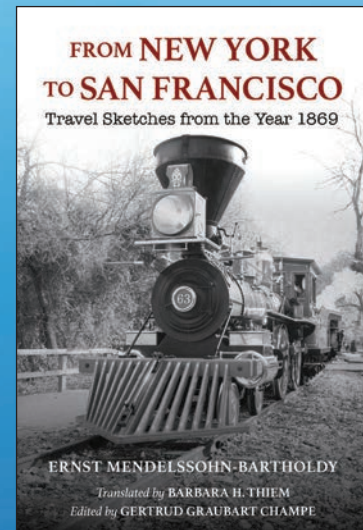

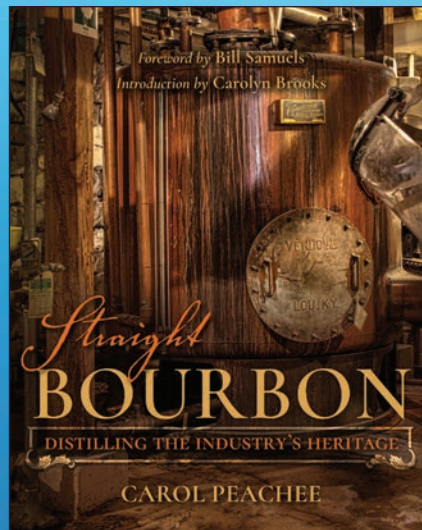

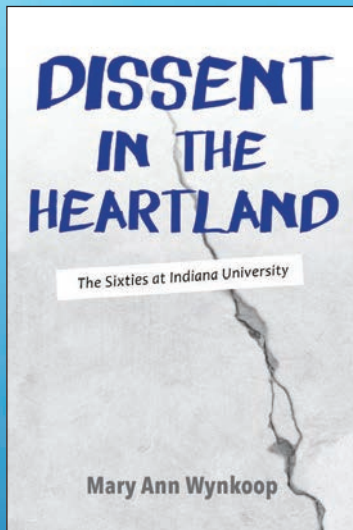

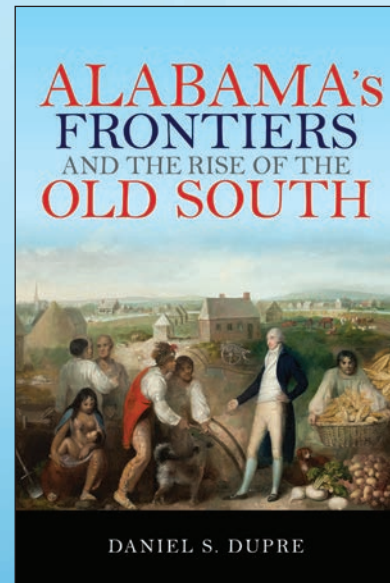

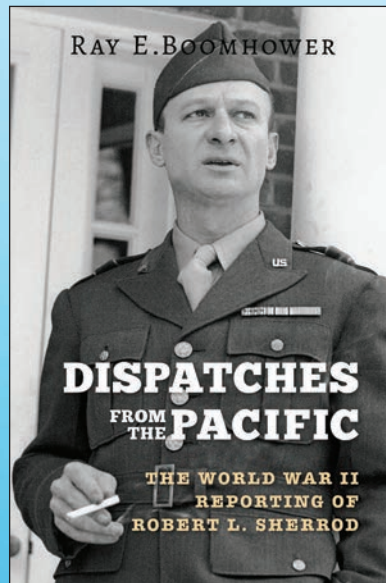

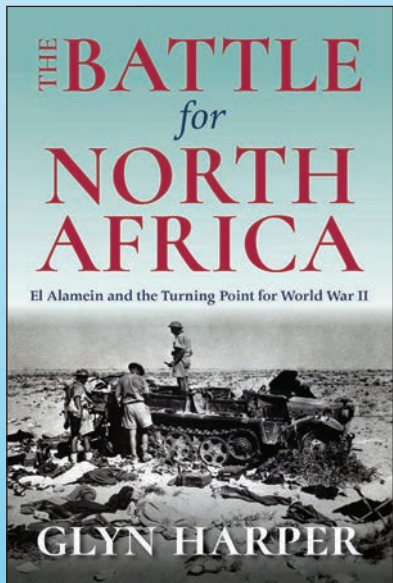

With the generous support of the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, the AHA created the first interactive tool for exploring the career outcomes of history PhDs. Users can examine the range of careers open to history PhDs and explore program outcomes by field, geographic location, gender, graduation date, and more.

Investing in the Future of the Discipline

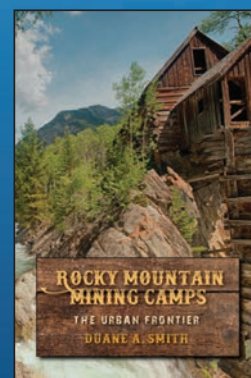

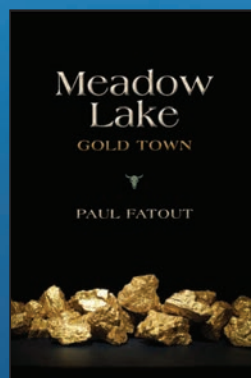

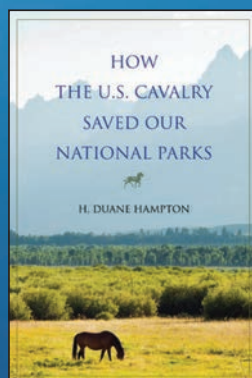

- Launched a multi-year initiative to address declining undergraduate enrollments in history courses
- Published a revised History Discipline Core to define the skills, knowledge, and habits of mind students develop in history courses
- Funded graduate student travel stipends to attend the annual meeting
- Helped students perfect their presentation skills at a "dissertation lightning round" at the annual meeting
- Received a $1.5 million grant to expand the scope and impact of Career Diversity

All Shook Up

The Shifting Soviet Response to Catastrophes, 1917–1991

Nigel Raab

9780773550025 $39.95 cloth – 304pp

The first full-length study of natural and man-made disasters in the Soviet Union.

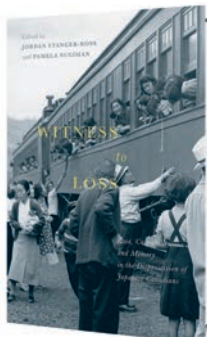

Tug of War

Surveillance Capitalism, Military Contracting, and the Rise of the Security State

Jocelyn Wills

9780773550476 $39.95 cloth – 518pp

“Surveillance. Advanced technologies. National security. Multinational capitalism. Tug of War deftly probes and integrates these vexed themes. Through deep research, masterfully contextualized, Wills tracks Canada’s MacDonald, Dettwiler and Associates (now MDA), a global giant in satellite communications, to show how patriotism and technological enthusiasm gave way to financial ambitions, lured by markets for military and surveillance technologies. A powerful book.” —Pamela Walker Laird, University of Colorado Denver, and author of Advertising Progress: American Business and the Rise of Consumer Marketing

Witness to Loss

Race, Culpability, and Memory in the Dispossession of Japanese Canadians

Edited by Jordan Stanger-Ross and Pamela Sugiman

9780773551213 $29.95 paperback • 9780773551206 $110.00 cloth – 320pp

A previously unpublished memoir reveals the impossible circumstances that confronted the victims of racist state action during the Second World War and includes diverse commentary from historians, sociologists, and a community activist who lived through this history.

War Memories

Commemoration, Recollections, and Writings on War

Edited by Stéphanie A.H. Bélanger and Renée Dickason

9780773547940 $37.95 paper • 9780773547933 $125.00 cloth – 448pp

“The diversity of articles, the many wars mentioned, and the great number of countries concerned with war memories are but some of the elements that make this volume an original and interesting read.” —Gilles Teulié, Aix-Marseille Université

Into Silence and Servitude

How American Girls Became Nuns, 1945–1965

Brian Titley

9780773551411 $34.95 cloth – 304pp

“Brian Titley’s comprehensive use of historical records from several religious institutes and individual memoirs significantly extends the existing body of knowledge ... is likely to become a standard reference on mid-century religious life in the United States.” —Mary L. Gautier, Georgetown University

Homesteading the Plains

By Richard Edwards, Jacob K. Friefeld, & Rebecca S. Wingo

Homesteading the Plains, the first major scholarly study of homesteading in a generation, uses new data sources and new digital techniques to present a nuanced account of an important government program that scholars will need to reevaluate.

—Richard White, Stanford University

Attractively and accurately written, this book demolishes much conventional wisdom about homesteading — that it was a minor factor in settlement, that most claims never proved up, that fraud was “rife.” The book also seriously revises the idea that homesteading dispossessed Indians, expands our understanding of women homesteaders, and explains how homesteading helped build communities. This is the most thoughtful analysis of homesteading to appear in many years.

—Walter Nugent (emeritus),
University of Notre Dame

This careful empirical analysis provides a long overdue corrective to frequently cited but flawed “facts” about homesteading in the nineteenth-century West.

—Brian Cannon,
Brigham Young
University

Homesteading the Plains fundamentally alters the dominant frame for understanding the costs and consequences of settling the Great Plains. Engagingly written, full of lively people’s stories, this book upends many tired and baseless myths about the settlement of the continent. The authors tell a nuanced, fascinating national story that is regionally rooted and beautifully illustrated with tables, charts and maps.

—Karen V. Hansen,
Brandeis University

Homesteading the Plains unsettles longstanding homesteading myth and history alike. Provocative and illuminating, it offers new data, technologies, and questions to open new historical terrain.

—Elizabeth Jameson
University of Calgary

Homesteading the Plains is a provocative plea for a new history of the Homestead laws. The authors argue that a yawning gap exists between public perceptions of the free land granting policies as great successes and negative scholarly assessments of those same laws as ineffective and even harmful failures tainted by fraud and corruption. Anyone interested in understanding the place of these almost mythic laws in the American past must read Homesteading the Plains.

Indiana University
