Prearranged Interviews

If you have a prearranged interview, check the monitor at the Information Booth in the Marriott’s Exhibit Hall C Atrium for that institution’s location. If your interview is in a room, go directly to the room close to your scheduled time. If your interview is at a table, go to the check-in booth about 10 minutes before your scheduled interview. Water and seating space will be provided in a waiting area.

Interviews Arranged at the Meeting

If you seek to arrange interviews through the Job Center, refer to the following pages. Institutions that are accepting CVs are included with full position descriptions. Check the bulletin boards frequently for late-breaking announcements, additions, and cancellations. Please note that interviews are not guaranteed, unless they have been prearranged.

♦ When reviewing the open positions, note the times that the institutions will be at their tables or in their interview rooms. Complete a message form (provided by the Job Center) for each position of interest to you. Staple the message form to a copy of your CV for each position to which you are applying. Proceed to the CV Collection Station in Exhibit Hall C Atrium and give the Job Center staff your CVs and message forms. The staff will file the form and CV in the respective institution’s folder; institutions will collect the material from their folders periodically.
♦ Some positions are noninterviewing. Unless otherwise indicated, you should send the information requested in the position description directly to the institution.

Responses to Interview Requests

Search committees will contact you through e-mail or your local/cell phone number to schedule an interview time. Messages declining an interview will be e-mailed from Job Center staff.

Important Note: Some institutions are interviewing in hotel rooms or suites reserved independently of the Job Center. Job Center staff may have location information, if the institution has provided it to us. Ask at the Information Booth in the Marriott Wardman Park, Exhibit Hall C Atrium.

AP History Teachers. The Ameson American High School (+AP) program’s mission is to bridge elite Western universities with high-performing Chinese students. Our teachers are responsible for preparing students for standardized AP exams in sister schools throughout China. The academy is seeking an academic dean of social studies, AP world history instructors, AP US history instructors, and American studies instructors. In addition to teaching classes, they are often involved in developing lesson plans. Teachers are also responsible for a number of administrative tasks. They must produce and grade homework, meet with parents to discuss how students are progressing, and assign course grades. In addition, they need to meet with school administrators on a regular basis in order to discuss the curriculum, issues that they may be facing, and their overall performance. Teachers are also responsible for developing and implementing lessons that allow students to easily understand the material covered. They may use documentaries and visual aids that illustrate concepts that they are trying to convey to students. In addition, high school history teachers often use re-enactments, debates, lectures, discussions, tests, assignments, and readings in the course of delivering their lessons. Teachers usually follow the College Board AP curriculum, but they must sometimes develop their own exams and assignments. Competitive salary and excellent benefits, free furnished accommodation on campus or housing allowance, international air ticket allowance, visa support and other support services, limited medical insurance, and paid national holidays. Requirements include strong education background, BA degree at minimum; relevant subject majors or teaching credentials; two years verifiable teaching-education background, BA degree at minimum; relevant subject specialty is open, special consideration will be given to candidates with an expertise in US global relations, immigration, ethnicity, and the political history, public history, or constitutional history.
